Books of Enoch Collection Scriptural Research Institute, 2020-05-01 The five books of Enoch are a collection of books written in Semitic languages and often grouped together as the Book of Enoch or 1st Enoch The books were likely written at different points in time and different Semitic languages The first book was the Book of the Watchers which is generally considered to be the oldest book in the collection however the age of the book is debated The book is now known to have originated long before Christianity since the discovery of the Dead Sea Scrolls however was lost for well over a thousand years to Europeans and assumed to be a Christian era work when the Europeans rediscovered it in Ethiopia The five books of Enoch only survive in Ge ez the classical language of Ethiopia however do not survive intact and some sections of text do not survive The Ge ez texts are believed to be translations from a Greek source which was itself a translation of an Aramaic source Many fragments of the Aramaic texts were discovered among the Dead Sea scrolls as well as Hebrew and Greek fragments The Aramaic texts are mostly the same as the Ge ez texts however scroll 4Q209 also includes a section of text from 3rd Book of Enoch the Astronomical Book which is lost from the Ge ez copies A few fragments of Greek translations have been found in Egypt in the past two centuries which generally match the Ge ez translation A small fragment of a Latin translation was also preserved by the Vatican through the centuries which also matches the Ge ez copies for a small fragment of 4th Book of Enoch Dream Visions
