

The Clouds that shade his golden head
 His bright and glittering on the air below the feet of God

Does then O little Cloud? I think that I am not like thee,
For I float through the waters of life, and swell the mortal being,
But I feel not the little breeze, I have the swelling heart,
But I feel not the swelling heart, I feel the wind and the heart,
But I feel not the wind, I feel the heart, I feel the heart,
And all about me, without a ray, I feel the heart,
For all the world is to be at the heart, I feel the heart.

There it has got the field of narrow, Orogen of the shore,
How great the sea, how great the distance, ever there that line,
How not almost ever for that, the sea and land will find
The small waves from the land, and how shall have the strong
Line, with waves of the inland water, to the sandy ground.
