BOOK REPORT

WRITING TIPS

Writing a Book Report

What is a book report?

A book report is a piece of writing about a book that was read.

It includes key details about the book, and the reader's opinions.

1st. Comprehension

Before you begin to write your book report, you need to have a strong understanding of the story.

Use a Strong Hook

Catch your reader's attention with the very first line of your book report.

Keep It Brief

In the summary, include just the key details and key events that are important to the overall plot.

Use Text Evidence

Is a character clever? Was the ending not satisfying? Give your reader an example from the story.

Keep It Organized

Be sure to have a clear introduction, body and conclusion to your book report. Use transitions to keep the sentences flowing.

Dig Deep

Go below surface-level information from the story and dig deep into the meaning behind the author's writing.

Back Up Opinions

Prove any opinions using exact quotes from the story, or text evidence put into your own words.

End Strong

End your book report in a way that leaves your reader feeling satisfied.

WORDS TO KNOW

hook

A hook grabs your reader's attention and makes them want to read your book report.

literary genre

A literary genre is a category of literature. Examples include fiction, non-fiction, and poetry.

plot summary

A plot summary is a brief overview of the main events of the story.

story elements

Story elements are the 5 most important parts of the story.

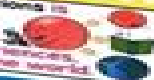

plot summary

A plot summary is a brief overview of the main events of the story.

connection

To make connections is to use what you already know to connect the text to your life experiences, another text, or the world.

author's craft

An author's craft is the way an author uses language to create a story.

A character analysis is a close look at a character's actions, thoughts, and feelings.

text evidence

Text evidence is a quote from the text that supports your opinion.

The theme is the message or lesson that the author wants the reader to learn from the story.

An opinion is what a person thinks, feels, or believes about something.

review

A review critiques or tells opinions about a book, movie, article, piece of art, etc.

recommend

To recommend a book is to suggest it, or tell someone they should read it.

rating

A rating ranks something on its quality. It is giving something a number based on a scale.
