Mary Shelley Landscape of Fear Tony Magistrale, 1988 One of the very first books to take Stephen King seriously Landscape of Fear originally published in 1988 reveals the source of King's horror in the sociopolitical anxieties of the post Vietnam post Watergate era In this groundbreaking study Tony Magistrale shows how King's fiction transcends the escapism typical of its genre to tap into our deepest cultural fears that the government we have installed through the democratic process is not only corrupt but actively pursuing our destruction that our technologies have progressed to the point at which the individual has now become expendable and that our fundamental social institutions school marriage workplace and the church have beneath their veneers of respectability evolved into perverse manifestations of narcissism greed and violence Tracing King's moralist vision to the likes of Twain Hawthorne and Melville Landscape of Fear establishes the place of this popular writer within the grand tradition of American literature Like his literary forbears King gives us characters that have the capacity to make ethical choices in an imperfect often evil world Yet he inscribes that conflict within unmistakably modern settings From the industrial nightmare of Graveyard Shift to the breakdown of the domestic sphere in The Shining from the techno horrors of The Stand to the religious fanaticism and adolescent cruelty depicted in Carrie Magistrale charts the contours of King's fictional landscape in its first decade A Phenomenology of the Alien Aaron B. Daniels, 2025-05-22 A Phenomenology of the Alien Encounters with the Weird and Inscrutable Other considers both literal and figurative experiences of the alien from a psychological psychoanalytic and philosophical perspective Throughout the book the authors wrestle with the unexplained ineffable unspeakable sublime uncanny abject and Mi ville's abecanny This collection provides phenomenologies of encounters with the inscrutably alien from lights in the sky dark corners of Weird fictional landscapes architecture technology or the clinical symptom The chapters examine fictional and nonfictional encounters with what exceeds the capacity to make sense taking a new approach to the topic of alterity and inviting the reader to examine how these encounters reflect our contemporary condition culturally individually clinically theologically and philosophically Bridging cultural psychoanalytic literary clinical media and religious studies the novel approaches in this volume will be of interest to students and scholars alike The Manson Family on Film and Television Ian Cooper, 2018-10-20 For half a century the Manson Family has captured the public imagination the lurid inexplicable violence in a glamorous Hollywood setting the bizarre and lengthy trials and Charles Manson's strange charisma and willingness to embrace the role of evil icon For years the story has been documented dramatized and lampooned in dozens of films and television programs This comprehensive study examines the various on screen portrayals from factual accounts based on prosecutor Vincent Bugliosi's true crime classic Helter Skelter to prime time TV dramas to a claymation spoof and even hardcore porn Movie Music, the Film Reader Kay Dickinson, 2003 This reader brings together a wide range of writings to examine the role of music in cinema Articles by leading critics including Theodor Adorno Lawrence Grossberg and Lisa A Lewis explore the function of the soundtrack the place of song in film and look at how cinema has represented music and the music industry Capsule
