Alcools Athlone French Poets:

An Anthology of Modern French Poetry (1850-1950) Peter Broome, Graham Chesters, 1976-07-15 This anthology is the companion volume to The Appreciation of Modern French Poetry the aim of which was to give detailed preliminary help with the problems of poetic appreciation The fourteen poets represented here provide a varied and exciting introduction to what is probably the richest century of French poetry from 1850 to 1950 Hugo the colossus of the nineteenth century whose work gives new resonance and vitality to imaginative vision opens the anthology and Michaux the most individual and modern of twentieth century poets in that he bridges the gap between poetry and contemporary science closes it Almost all the major poets of the period are included Nerval Baudelaire Mallarmé Verlaine Rimbaud and Laforgue from the second half of the nineteenth century Valéry Apollinaire Supervielle and Eluard in the twentieth The lesser known Cros and Desnos fresh and spontaneous poets with an immediate appeal invite a new look at the lyric traditions of French verse and offer an attractive new avenue for study The choice of poems dictated above all by their individual poetic value reflects also the trends of recent criticism and the tastes of present day readers The texts are all accompanied by full notes which not only explain local difficulties of vocabulary syntax and expression but lead the reader directly into the heart of the richness of theme style and interpretation These will prove of value not only to the student who is grappling with the basics of French verse or is anxious to give depth to his familiarity but to the general reader seeking to rekindle his enjoyment of French poetry In addition there are introductions to each poet summarizing the essence of his art useful suggestions for further reading and groups of discussion topics to stimulate comparative insights and a wider responsiveness

Reading Apollinaire Timothy Mathews, 1987 Selected Poems Guillaume Apollinaire, 2015 Apollinaire is the most significant French poet of early modernism and the only great First World War poet from France He coined the word surrealism and was at the forefront of literary and artistic experimentalism This new selection covers the full range of his career in facing page translations with some pictorial calligrams

The Poetry of Miklós Radnóti Emery Edward George, 1986 Translating Apollinaire Clive Scott, 2015-04-01 Translating Apollinaire delves into Apollinaire's poetry and poetics through the challenges and invitations it offers to the process of translation Besides providing a new appraisal of Apollinaire the most significant French poet of WWI Translating Apollinaire aims to put the ordinary reader at the centre of the translational project It proposes that translation's primary task is to capture the responses of the reader to the poetic text and to find ways of writing those responses into the act of translation Every reader is invited to translate and to translate with a creativity appropriate to the complexity of their own reading experiences Throughout Scott himself consistently uses the creative resource of photography and more particularly photographic fragments as a cross media language used to help capture the activity of the reading consciousness

Library of Congress,1977 The Cambridge Introduction to French Literature Brian Nelson,2015-06-05 In this highly accessible introduction Brian Nelson provides an overview of French literature its themes and forms traditions and transformations from the Middle Ages to the present Major writers including Francophone authors writing from areas other than France are discussed chronologically in the context of their times to provide a sense of the development of the French literary tradition and the strengths of some of the most influential writers within it Nelson offers close readings of exemplary passages from key works presented in English translation and with the original French The exploration of the work of important writers including Villon Racine Moli re Voltaire Balzac Flaubert Zola Proust Sartre and Beckett highlights the richness and diversity of French literature The French Review James Frederick Mason,Hélène Harvitt,1985 Reading Apollinaire's Alcools Willard Bohn,2016-10-27 Reviewing the previous scholarship for seventeen of the most important poems in Alcools this book provides a detailed analysis of each work and includes a state of the art survey of current Apollinaire criticism Besides acquainting readers with the existing scholarship the book considers all the interpretations that have been proposed and indicates profitable directions to pursue Each poem is subjected to a rigorous line by line analysis that engages in a succession of dialogues with previous critics The studies themselves are arranged in roughly chronological order beginning with the Rh nanes in 1901 1902 and concluding with Zone in 1912 Although each chapter is basically conceived as an independent unit readers are able to follow the evolution of Apollinaire s aesthetics from his first mature creations through his subsequent experiments with fantastic hermetic visionary and cubist poetry At the same time they witness Apollinaire s personal evolution from his infatuation with Annie Playden through a period of deep depression his love affair with Marie Laurencin and the aftermath of that relationship Race and Racism in Continental Philosophy Robert Bernasconi,2003-06-18 The 15 original essays in Race and Racism in Continental Philosophy explore the resources that continental philosophy brings to debates about contemporary race theory and investigate the racism of some of Europe s most important thinkers Attention is devoted to the influence of the work of W E B Du Bois Jean Paul Sartre Richard Wright and Frantz Fanon Questions about race in European philosophy especially in the work of Nietzsche Heidegger L vi Strauss and Arendt are also considered This volume provides an indispensable critical introduction to new perspectives on thinking about race and racism 1913 Jean-Michel Rabaté,2008-04-15 This innovative book puts modernist literature in its cultural intellectual and global context within the framework of the year 1913 Broadens the analysis of canonical texts and artistic events by showing their cultural and global parallels Examines a number of simultaneous artistic literary and political endeavours including those of Yeats Pound Joyce Du Bois and Stravinsky Explores Pound s Personae next to Apollinaire s Alcools and Rilke s Spanish Trilogy Edith Wharton s The Custom of the Country next to Proust s Swann s Way The British Library General Catalogue of Printed Books 1976 to 1982 British Library,1983 Choice ,1976 British Book News ,1975 Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress,1978 Francis Ponge Ian Higgins,1979 There are three reasons why this book the first on Ponge published in Britain is neither chronological nor generic First the volumes Ponge has published gather texts covering a wide period Second as Ponge points out poetry and theory are often inseparable in his work Third the suppositions and aims underlying Ponge s work have remained consistent from earliest days The particular forms their expression has taken have evolved and different aspects have at different times been uppermost yet Ponge s texts often contain echoes of or references to earlier texts and no one manner has ever supplanted any other For concision as well as coherence this is a synthetic thematic study taking technique as a theme in this respect indicating developments or variations under the different thematic heads preceded by a brief narrative sketch of Ponge s life and work
