career Phillips also explores Lean's lesser studied films such as The Passionate Friends 1949 Hobson's Choice 1954 and Summertime 1955 The result is an in depth examination of the director in cultural historical and cinematic contexts Lean's approach to filmmaking was far different than that of many of his contemporaries He chose his films carefully and as a result directed only sixteen films in a period of more than forty years Those films however have become some of the landmarks of motion picture history Lean is best known for his epics but Phillips also focuses on Lean's successful adaptations of famous works of literature including retellings of plays such as Brief Encounter 1945 and novels such as Great Expectations 1946 Oliver Twist 1948 and A Passage to India 1984 From expansive studies of war and strife to some of literature's greatest high comedies and domestic dramas Lean imbued all of his films with his unique creative vision Few directors can match Lean's ability to combine narrative sweep and psychological detail and Phillips goes beyond Lean's epics to reveal this unifying characteristic in the director's body of work Beyond the Epic is a vital assessment of a great director's artistic process and his place in the film industry

The Foreign Film Renaissance on American Screens, 1946-1973 Tino Balio, 2010-11-05 Largely shut out of American theaters since the 1920s foreign films such as Open City Bicycle Thief Rashomon The Seventh Seal Breathless La Dolce Vita and L'Avventura played after World War II in a growing number of art houses around the country and created a small but influential art film market devoted to the acquisition distribution and exhibition of foreign language and English language films produced abroad Nurtured by successive waves of imports from Italy Great Britain France Sweden Japan and the Soviet Bloc the renaissance was kick started by independent distributors working out of New York by the 1960s however the market had been subsumed by Hollywood From Roberto Rossellini's Open City in 1946 to Bernardo Bertolucci's Last Tango in Paris in 1973 Tino Balio tracks the critical reception in the press of such filmmakers as François Truffaut Jean Luc Godard Federico Fellini Michelangelo Antonioni Tony Richardson Ingmar Bergman Akira Kurosawa Luis Buñuel Satyajit Ray and Milos Forman Their releases paled in comparison to Hollywood fare at the box office but their impact on American film culture was enormous The reception accorded to art house cinema attacked motion picture censorship promoted the director as auteur and celebrated film as an international art Championing the cause was the new cinephile generation which was mostly made up of college students under thirty The fashion for foreign films depended in part on their frankness about sex When Hollywood abolished the Production Code in the late 1960s American made films began to treat adult themes with maturity and candor In this new environment foreign films lost their cachet and the art film market went into decline
