Booth,1998 Robert Booth started his career in Montevideo Uruguay as a ticket agent with Pan American World Airways A brief stint as a travel agent in Punta del Este Montevideo followed after which he joined Braniff Airways in Montevideo in 1951 He spent 23 years with that airline in a variety of positions which took him to Los Angeles Panama Columbia Dallas Lima a final two year stint in Dallas He left Braniff in 1974 to acquire an advertising agency in Peru It specialized in airline accounts consulting In 1977 he was hired as Acting General Manager for AeroPeru which took him back to the United States as General Manager North America In 1978 he joined Air Florida first as a consultant then as senior vice president marketing until 1983 when he left to form his own company In 1984 he accepted the position of Chief Operating Officer for Northeastern International in 1985 was one of the founders chief executive officer of Challenge Air International which failed in 1987 He his son daughter in law then organized Aviation Management Services a Miami based aviation consultancy specializing in Latin American Caribbean aviation The company has performed more than 150 assignments in Latin America including the privatization of half a dozen Latin American airlines It also produces a monthly newsletter Aviation Latin America Caribbean has organized the highly popular annual International Airline CEO Conference which is now in its sixth successful year He likes to say that if he had to do it all over again he would not change a thing If I had been rich I would pay good money to do exactly what I have done Airways ,2003 Subject Guide to Books in Print ,2001 Aviation News ,2006-07 Flypast ,2005 Hoy ,1953 Flying the Colorful Skies of Braniff International Airlines Cristine Cashay,2013-07-04 Many civilians often wonder what it would be like to work as an airline pilot or flight attendant Even crew members of other airlines might imagine how different it could have been flying for Braniff during its glory days Flying the Colorful Skies of Braniff International Airlines is a collection of first hand accounts of those of us who did fly for Braniff back when flying was safe and fun before skyjackings and terrorism changed the world forever We had great flights with wonderful passengers as well as scary trips and many funny instances throughout our careers People from all walks of life were on our planes from celebrities to military servicemen from sports legends to college kids we saw it all So lower your seat backs grab a cocktail and come fly with us Splash of Colors John J. Nance,1984 Controlled Crash Eldon Brown,2009-10 Pilots like to say that every safe landing is really just a controlled crash In this witty and entertaining memoir of his airline career Eldon Brown whisks us back to the heyday of the airline industry when it was fun to fly and salesmanship was a creative art During his decades in cargo management with airlines like Japan and Northwest Brown crosses paths with a surprising array of life forms wily entrepreneurs stowaway cockroaches and yes a drunken bear Along the way there are challenges to be met with pluck and imagination For example he conducts reconnaissance missions when his 007 persona springs to the fore He arranges flights for fauna like eels ostriches tuna and the Dallas Cowboys He also has to learn to accommodate his relaxed American style to the rigidity of a Japanese managerial culture to stay true to American values in places where less rigorous ethical standards are the norm and to deal with such worrisome passengers as a tipsy senator Dr Timothy Leary and an escaped mental patient Through it all Brown s common sense and sly humor prevail making this book a fi ne and fun read
