Akhnaton A Play In Three Acts:

Akhnaton Agatha Christie,1973 Set in 1350 BC the legend of Akhnaton tells of the Pharaoh's attempt to convince his nation to abandon their old pagan god Amon and to turn to the worship of a new deity the monotheistic sun god Aton Introduced to the legend by Howard Carter discoverer of Tutankhamun's tomb when she met him in Luxor in 1931 Agatha Christie became fascinated by both the story and the society in which it took place Her painstaking researches led to this retelling of the story in the form of a highly readable and dramatic two hour play Akhnaton was written by Agatha Christie in 1937 when her interest in Egyptology from her travels with her archaeologist husband was at its height Amazon.com The Monarch and the (Non)-Human in Literature and Cinema Nizar Zouidi,2023-12-27 This collection studies the representations of the character of the monarch in literature and cinema Being a person an institution a character archetype and a narrative role the characters of the monarch and other royal or regal characters oscillate between humanity and the non human As such they are hybrid forms of existence and subjectivity The authors of this collection explore this hybridity across large spectra of genres historical periods and cultural contexts Some of the most prolific and widely read scholars analyze the archetype of the monarch on the page the stage and the screen They cover large swathes of intersecting creative and interpretive territories including ancient epic and religious poetry Arthurian legends British Renaissance and modern drama British horror films and Hollywood crime and sports films This collection also features interviews with six prominent comic book writers and artists who discuss the influence of classical royal archetypes on their works Empires of Antiquities Billie Melman,2020 Empires of Antiquities is a history of the rediscovery of the imperial civilizations of the ancient Near East in a modern imperial order that evolved between the outbreak of the First World War and the decolonization of the British Empire in the 1950s It explores the ways in which near eastern antiquity was redefined and experienced becoming the subject of imperial regulation modes of enquiry and international and national politics Billie Melman follows a series of globally publicized spectacular archaeological discoveries in Iraq Egypt and Palestine which made antiquity material visible and accessible as never before She demonstrates that the new definition and uses of antiquity and their relations to modernity were inseparable from the emergence of the post war international imperial order transnational collaboration and crises the aspirations of national groups and collisions between them and the British mandates This study uniquely combines a history of the internationalization of archaeology and the rise of a new regime of antiquities under the oversight of the League of Nations and its institutions a history of British attitudes to and passion for near eastern antiquity and on the ground colonial policies and mechanisms as well as nationalist claims on the past It points at the centrality of the new mandate system Drawing on an unusually wide range of materials collected in archives in six countries as well as on material and visual evidence this volume weaves together imperial international and national histories and the history of archaeological discovery which it connects to imperial modernity Akhenaten Dominic Montserrat,2014-05-01

The pharaoh Akhenaten who ruled Egypt in the mid fourteenth century BCE has been the subject of more speculation than any other character in Egyptian history This provocative new biography examines both the real Akhenaten and the myths that have been created around him It scrutinises the history of the pharaoh and his reign which has been continually written in Eurocentric terms inapplicable to ancient Egypt and the archaeology of Akhenaten's capital city Amarna It goes on to explore the pharaoh's extraordinary cultural afterlife and the way he has been invoked to validate everything from psychoanalysis to racial equality to Fascism
