National Identities and Post-Americanist Narratives Donald E. Pease,1994 National narratives create imaginary relations within imagined communities called national peoples But in the American narrative alongside the nexus of belonging established for the national community the national narrative has represented other peoples women blacks foreigners the homeless from whom the property of nationness has been removed altogether and upon whose differences from them the national people depended for the construction of their norms Dismantling this opposition has become the task of post national Post Americanist narratives bent on changing the assumptions that found the national identity This volume originally published as a special issue of boundary 2 focuses on the process of assembling and dismantling the American national narrative sketching its inception and demolition The contributors examine various cultural political and historical sources colonial literature mass movements epidemics of disease mass spectacle transnational corporations super weapons popular magazines literary texts out of which this narrative was constructed and propose different understandings of nationality and identity following in its wake Contributors Jonathan Arac Lauren Berlant Robert J Corber Elizabeth Freeman Kathryn V Lingberg Jack Matthews Alan Nadel Patrick O Donnell Daniel O Hara Donald E Pease Ross Posnock John Carlos Rowe Rob Wilson

Culture, Technology, and the Creation of America's National Parks Richard A. Grusin,2004-04-22 Richard Grusin s innovative study investigates how the establishment of national parks participated in the production of American national identity after the Civil War The creation of America s national parks is usually seen as an uncomplicated act of environmental preservation Grusin argues instead that parks must be understood as complex cultural technologies for the reproduction of nature as landscape art He explores the origins of America s three major parks Yosemite Yellowstone and Grand Canyon in relation to other forms of landscape representation including photography mapping travel writing and fiction

The Civil War and American Art Eleanor Jones Harvey,Smithsonian American Art Museum,2012-12-03 Collects the best artwork created before during and following the Civil War in the years between 1859 and 1876 along with extensive quotations from men and women alive during the war years and text by literary figures including Emily Dickinson Mark Twain and Walt Whitman 15 000 first printing The Grove Encyclopedia of American Art Joan M.
