Aboriginal Art Donna Leslie, 2008. Donna Leslie, a Post-doctoral Research Fellow at The University of Melbourne, sets out to demonstrate how Aboriginal art has questioned the assimilationist policies which prevailed in Australia from the 1930s to the 1970s. Her rigorous and sustained argument, supported by an impressive array of important visual images, reveals an extensive grasp of issues relating not only to the practice and history of art but also in fields of anthropology, ethnology and sociology. The book is a rare presentation of aspects of the history of Aboriginal art from an Aboriginal perspective and provides fresh ways of understanding Aboriginal experience. While the author acknowledges the problems faced by Aboriginal peoples, particularly those associated with the former policy of assimilation, her message is positive and encourages a deepening understanding of Aboriginal art, culture and peoples in the spirit of reconciliation. Moreover, she addresses the development of Aboriginal art in the modern Australian city as well as in the more traditional environment of the land.

Indigenous Celebrity Jennifer Adese, Robert Alexander Innes, 2021-04-09. Indigenous Celebrity speaks to the possibilities, challenges and consequences of popular forms of recognition, critically recasting the lens through which we understand Indigenous people's entanglements with celebrity. It presents a wide range of essays that explore the theoretical, material, social, cultural and political impacts of celebrity on and for Indigenous people. It questions and critiques the whiteman's concept of celebrity and the very juxtaposition of Indigenous and celebrity, and casts a critical lens on celebrity culture's impact on Indigenous people. Indigenous people who willingly engage with celebrity culture or are drawn up into it enter into a complex terrain of social relations informed by layered dimensions of colonialism, racism, sexism, homophobia, transphobia and classism. Yet this reductive framing of celebrity does not account for the ways that Indigenous people's own worldviews inform Indigenous engagement with celebrity culture or rather popular social and cultural forms of recognition. Indigenous Celebrity reorients conversations on Indigenous celebrity towards understanding how Indigenous people draw from nation-specific processes of respect and recognition while at the same time navigating external assumptions and expectations. This collection examines the relationship of Indigenous people to the concept of celebrity in past, present and ongoing contexts identifying commonalities tensions and possibilities Spinning the Dream Anna Haebich,2008-03-01 In Spinning the Dream multi award winning historian Anna Haebich re evaluates the experience of Assimilation in Australia providing a meticulously researched and masterfully written assessment of its implications for Australia s Indigenous and ethnic minorities and for immigration and refugee policy The Cultural Value of Trees Jeffrey Wall,2022-06-01 This volume focuses on the tree as a cultural and biological form and examines the concept of folk value and its implications for biocultural conservation Folk value refers to the value of the more than human living world to cultural cohesion and survival as opposed to individual well being This field of value comprising cosmological aesthetic eco erotic sentimental mnemonic value and much more serves as powerful motivation for the local performance of environmental care The motivation to maintain and conserve ecology for the purpose of cultural survival will be the central focus of this book as the conditions of the Anthropocene urgently require the identification understanding and support of enduring self perpetuating biocultural associations The geographical scope is broad with chapters discussing different tree species from the Americas and the Caribbean East Asia Eurasia and Australia and Africa By focusing on the tree one of the most reliably cross culturally valued and cross culturally recognized biological forms and one which invariably defines expansive landscapes this work illuminates how folk value binds the survival of more than human life forms with the survival of specific peoples in the era of biocultural loss the Anthropocene As such this collection of cross cultural cases of tree folk value represents a low hanging fruit for the larger project of exploring the power of cultural value of the more than human living world This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of conservation biodiversity biocultural studies and environmental anthropology Australian News Summary ,1946
