Albert Gleizes For Against The Twentie:

Albert Gleizes Peter Brooke,2001-01-01 Gleizes was also one of the few French painters of the 1920s to recognise nonrepresentational painting as the logical development of Cubism His work as a painter is accompanied by an immense body of theoretical work addressing the question posed so starkly by Duchamp and Picabia why should we paint What is the justification for the work of art Over his life he touches on many spheres of human activity religious political and cultural history physics and the philosophy of work Art and Social Change Klare Scarborough,Susan Dixon,2015-10 The scholarly essays in this book focus on the theme of art and social change in Western art from the Renaissance to about 1950 The edited volume includes contributions by scholars with a range of professional backgrounds and affiliations Their essays address some aspect of the theme and engage with one or more artworks in the collection of La Salle University Art Museum Topics include religious iconography portraiture landscape journal illustrations and Modernist abstraction These essays on the collection add to the body of scholarship which situates works of art in contexts that help reveal and explain changes in social political or cultural values The book is lavishly illustrated with 104 color illustrations Cubism and Its Histories David Cottington,2004 Cubism was the most influential artistic movement that emerged in the twentieth century Yet just what cubism was or stood for at the time of its emergence is still in dispute while the explanations offered for its importance for twentieth century art and its legacy for the present are bewildering in their variety This fascinating book offers a way beyond this confusion a narrative of its beginnings consolidation and dissemination that takes into account not only what the style and the movement signified at the time of its emergence but also the principal writings through which cubism's significance for modernism has been established Visually stunning with over 100 illustrations this is an essential work for all students and teachers of modern art history The Routledge Companion to Irish Art Fionna Barber,Fintan Cullen,2025-04-30 This companion contains new and innovative writing on Irish art and its history from c 1800 to the present day This book critically engages with Irish art in a period linked to key events in Irish history beginning with the Acts of Union between Britain and Ireland 1800-01 and the significant social and cultural changes that resulted The book also provides a precedent for a focus on the significance of art in relation to other subsequent key historical events such as the early twentieth century struggles for independence or the role of political conflict in Northern Ireland from the late 1960s onwards and its aftermath Key themes covered include tradition and innovation upheavals of history place location and artistic formations Irish art and the wider world and embodiment and identity The book expands the critical discourse around Irish art over this period both within Ireland and beyond and encourages the potential for future scholarship in fields and periods not covered This book will be of interest to scholars and students working in art history Irish studies and colonial studies André Bazin's Film Theory Angela Dalle Vacche,2020 Through metaphors and allusions to art science and religion Andr Bazin's writings on the cinema explore a simple yet profound question what is a human For the famous French film critic a human is simultaneously

a rational animal and an irrational being Bazin's idea of the cinema is a mind machine where the ethical implications have priority over aesthetic issues And in its ability to function as an art form for the masses cinema is the only medium that can address an audience at the individual and community levels simultaneously the audience sees the same film but each individual relates to the narrative in a different way In principle cinema can unsettle our routines in productive ways and expand our sense of belonging to a much larger picture By arguing that this dissident Catholic's worldview is anti anthropocentric Angela Dalle Vacche concludes that Andr Bazin's idea of the cinema recapitulates the histories of biological evolution and modern technology inside our consciousness Through the projection of recorded traces of the world onto a brain like screen the cinema can open viewers up to self interrogation and empathy towards Otherness Bazin was neither a spiritualist nor an animist or a pantheist yet his film theory leads also to ideas of a more cosmological persuasion through editing and camera movement cinema explores our belonging to a vast universe that extends from the microbes of the microscope to the stars of the telescope Such ideas of connectedness coupled with Bazin's well known emphasis of realism form the foundation for his film theory's embrace of Italian neorealism Choosing to avoid a quantitative naturalism based on accumulation of details Bazin's theory instead promotes the kind of cinema that celebrates perceptual displacement the objectification of human behavior and one's own critical self awareness

Léonce Rosenberg's Cubism Giovanni Casini, 2023-08-31 The history of modernism has generally been written as a story of artists and their creations alongside the collectors gallerists and curators who supported them This is especially true of Cubism where the received narrative centers on a tightly circumscribed group of artists and agents connected to the dealer Daniel Henry Kahnweiler Léonce Rosenberg's Cubism shakes up the canon revealing its artificial nature and pointing to a different more inclusive understanding of the development of Cubism Kahnweiler's Cubism was narrowly focused In contrast Giovanni Casini shows us the influential art dealer Léonce Rosenberg bought virtually any piece that could be labeled Cubist and proposed a radically different understanding of the movement At Rosenberg's Galerie L'Effort Moderne in Paris artists such as Joseph Csaky Auguste Herbin Jean Metzinger Diego Rivera Gino Severini and Georges Valmier were accorded the same treatment as Pablo Picasso or Georges Braque In this book Casini considers Rosenberg's contribution to the history of Cubism reflecting on the ways in which artistic movements are manufactured and interpretive paradigms adopted Deftly weaving biography with a scholarly analysis built on extensive archival research Léonce Rosenberg's Cubism is a fresh look at the history of interwar modernism and the definitive study of a figure who has been unjustly sidelined in the history of art It will be compulsory reading for scholars of Cubism and Modernism

Georgia O'Keeffe, A Private Friendship, Part I Nancy Hopkin Reily, 2014-12-01 The time is 1887 From any window in Georgia O'Keeffe's Sun Prairie Wisconsin birthplace home she only saw the Wisconsin prairie with its traces of roads veering around the flat marshlands and a vast sky that lifted her soul At twelve years of age Georgia had a defining moment when she declared I want to be an artist Years later from her east facing window in Canyon

Texas she observed the Texas Panhandle sky with its focus points on the plains and a great canyon of earth history colors streaking across the flat land Georgia's love of the vast colorful prairie plains and sky again gave definition to her life when she discovered Ghost Ranch north of Abiquiu New Mexico She fell prey to its charms which were not long removed from the echoes of the Wild West These views of prairie plains and sky became Georgia's muses as she embarked on her step by step path with her role models Alon Bement Arthur Jerome Dow and Wassily Kandinsky In this two part biography of which this is Part I covering the period 1887-1945 Nancy Hopkins Reily walks the Sun Prairie Land as if in Georgia's day as a prologue to her family's friendship with Georgia in the 1940s and 1950s Reily chronicles Georgia's defining days within the arenas of landscape culture people and the history surrounding each a discourse level that Georgia would easily recognize Grace Crowley's Contribution to Australian Modernism and Geometric Abstraction Dianne Ottley, 2010-02-19 Grace Crowley has been recognized as a product of European modernism and was one of the leading innovators of geometric abstraction in Australia Having studied in Paris in the 1920s with one of the leading art teachers writers and theorists Andr   Lhote she returned to Australia having mastered the complex mathematics and geometry of the golden section and dynamic symmetry that had become a framework for modernism Through her teaching of these compositional techniques at the most progressive modern art school in Sydney in the 1930s she became a crucial influence on the group of artists now recognized as the historical forerunners to American colour field painting introduced to Australia in the 1960s and Australian abstraction Through her close friendship with Anne Dangar who played a critical role in the success of Albert Gleizes' utopian art colony in rural France Crowley maintained contact with mainstream European modernism and links to the Abstraction Creation Group in Paris During the 1940s and 1950s Crowley worked with fellow artist Ralph Balson and together they developed their own style of geometric abstract art which reflected the spiritual dimensions of Kandinsky and Mondrian Although undervalued in her own time the sincerity and uncompromising quality of her work that transcends national boundaries makes her one of the most important Australian women artists of her generation Sport and the European Avant-Garde (1900-1945), 2022-02-07 What has been the significance of sport for the European avant garde in the first half of the 20th century From an international and interdisciplinary perspective we show the extent to which avant garde art and culture was shaped by the dynamic encounter with modern sports Our focus lies on avant garde artists groups movements and institutions across Europe including Cubism Futurism Vorticism Purism Expressionism Dada the Bauhaus Constructivism in Central and Eastern Europe thereby unfolding the diversity of avant garde responses to modern sports The book in front of you includes fascinating readings in the fields of aesthetics visual cultures cultural history and politics and highlights why specific kinds of sport such as cycling boxing and football became important for avant garde movements and artists Against the Modern World Mark J. Sedgwick, 2009 Against the Modern World is the first history of Traditionalism an important yet surprisingly little known twentieth century anti modern movement Comprising a number of often secret but sometimes very influential religious groups in the West and in the Islamic world it affected mainstream and radical politics in Europe and the development of the field of religious studies in the United States touching the lives of many individuals French writer Rene Guenon rejected modernity as a dark age and sought to reconstruct the Perennial Philosophy the central truths behind all the major world religions Guenon stressed the urgent need for the West's remaining spiritual and intellectual elite to find personal and collective salvation in the surviving vestiges of ancient religious traditions A number of disenchanted intellectuals responded to his call In Europe America and the Islamic world Traditionalists founded institutes Sufi brotherhoods Masonic lodges and secret societies Some attempted unsuccessfully to guide Fascism and Nazism along Traditionalist lines others later participated in political terror in Italy Traditionalist ideas were the ideological cement for the alliance of anti democratic forces in post Soviet Russia and in the Islamic world entered the debate about the relationship between Islam and modernity Although its appeal in the West was ultimately limited Traditionalism has wielded enormous influence in religious studies through the work of such Traditionalists as Ananda Coomaraswamy Huston Smith Mircea Eliade and Seyyed Hossein Nasr

Pioneers of the Global Art Market Christel H. Force, Kathryn Brown, 2022-05-19 By the turn of the 20th century Paris was the capital of the art world While this is usually understood to mean that Paris was the center of art production and trading this book examines a phenomenon that has received little attention thus far Paris based dealers relied on an ever expanding international network of peers Many of the city's galleries capitalized on foreign collectors interest by expanding globally and proactively cultivating transnational alliances If the French capital drew artists from around the world from Cassatt to Picasso the contemporary art market was international in scope Art dealers deliberately tapped into a growing pool of discerning collectors in northern and eastern Europe the UK and the USA International trade was rendered not just desirable but necessary by the devastating effects of wars revolutions currency devaluation and market crashes which stalled collecting in Europe Pioneers of the Global Art Market assembles original scholarship based on a close inspection of and fresh perspective on extant dealer records It caters to an amplified curiosity concerning the emergence and workings of our unprecedented contemporary centric and global art market This anthology fills a significant gap in the expanding field of art market studies by addressing how initially contemporary art which is now known as historical modernism made its way into collections who validated what by promoting and selling it where and how It includes unpublished material concrete examples bibliographical and archival references and appeals to students academics curators educators dealers collectors artists and art lovers alike It celebrates the modern art dealer as transnational impresario the global reach of the modern art market and the impact of traders on the history of collecting and ultimately on the history of art
