

A ship with wings can change in size
But one thing is sure, a pilot's eyes,
Command a view that no box can,
That makes the techs an also ran.

They pass me trays of food and drink,
My mind drifts back and starts to think,
Of open cockpits rimmed by ice,
And those who flew and paid the price.

The people here don't seem to know
In fact they act like down below,
They take for granted ships that fly
And those who guide them through the sky.

So here's to you that keeps us all,
I know you're there and I won't fall,
A wing tip moves as if to say,
There's someone here, no need to pray.

So let them build their boxes new,
As tools to help, I'm sure that's true,
It's not my place to reason why,
But builders build and PILOTS FLY.

Now when I'm in my ship so frail,
And look above to watch your trail,
I'll wish you well my friend so high
And know inside it's still our sky.
