From Far East to Asia Pacific Brian P. Farrell,S.R. Joey Long,David Ulbrich,2022-07-18 The years 1900 to 1954 marked the transformation from an exotic colonized Far East to a more autonomous prominent Asia Pacific This anthology examines the grand strategies of great powers as they vied for influence and ultimately hegemony in the region At the turn of the twentieth century the main contestants included the venerable British Empire and the aspiring Japan and United States The unwieldy leviathan of China the European imperial holdings in Southeast Asia and the expanses of the western Pacific emerged as battlegrounds in literal and geopolitical terms Other less powerful nations such as India Burma Australia and French Indochina also exercised agency in crafting grand strategies to further their interests and in their interactions with those great powers Among the many factors affecting all nations invested in the Asia Pacific were such traditional elements as economics military power and diplomacy as well as fluid traits like ideology culture and personality The era saw the decline of British and European influence in the Asia Pacific the rise and fall of Japanese imperialism the emergence of American primacy the ongoing struggle for independence in Southeast Asia and China s resurrection as a contender for hegemony Great powers shifted and so too did their grand strategies Japanese Documentary Film Markus

Nornes,2003 Among Asian countries where until recently documentary filmmaking was largely the domain of central governments Japan was exceptional for the vigor of its nonfiction film industry And yet for all its aesthetic historical and political interest the Japanese documentary remains little known and largely unstudied outside of Japan This is the first English language study of the subject an enlightening close look at the first fifty years of documentary film theory and practice in Japan Beginning with films made by foreigners in the nineteenth century and concluding with the first two films made after Japan s surrender in 1945 Abe Mark Nornes moves from a prehistory of the documentary through innovations of the proletarian film movement to the hardening of style and conventions that started with the Manchurian Incident films and continued through the Pacific War Nornes draws on a wide variety of archival sources including Japanese studio records secret police reports government memos letters military tribunal testimonies and more to chart shifts in documentary style against developments in the history of modern Japan Shōwa Japan: 1926-1941 Stephen S.
