by the impossibility of adequately patrolling thousands of square miles by dog team boat and on foot so with his own money he bought an airplane Pioneer pilots Noel and Ralph Wien taught him how to fly it White then startled remote trappers and others by suddenly arriving from the sky In 1941 lack of backing from Juneau headquarters caused him to resign as a wildlife agent At Fairbanks Noel Wien made him Chief Pilot for Wien Airlines For the next two decades White flew as an Alaskan bush pilot admired for his flying skill and the superior service he provided residents who flew with him and who depended upon him for receiving mail and supplies He had countless friends one hundred arrived for his seventieth birthday party His integrity and principles were of the highest Decades after his death he is still spoken of with awe by the long time Alaskans
