Lawrence R. Schehr

Alcibiades At The Door Gay Discourses In French Literature:

Alcibiades at the Door Lawrence R. Schehr, 1995 Focusing on works by Rene Crevel Jean Paul Sartre Roland Barthes and Herve Guibert this book studies how the figures of homosexuality function at the limits of narrative as part of the deep structure of narrative and at the border between public and private discourse The first three chapters follow the difference between inside and outside between public and private between what is known and what can only be surmised The homosexual Rene Crevel who is both inside Surrealism and outside it forces us to reread the marginalized figure of homosexuality in Surrealism Crevel is discussed in light of his most important work Mon corps et moi a sustained effort to negotiate the problems of public and private personae Long before concentrating on Jean Genet Jean Paul Sartre often turned to the subject of homosexuality in his writings of the 1930s and 1940s The figures and forms of homosexuality in Sartre's work are shown to relate to a phenomenology of perception to a persistence of the relation between vision and knowledge and to a set of narrative plays that put Sartre's own relation to homosexuality in a new light The last of these three chapters focuses on Roland Barthes with a retrospective glance at Andre Gide through an examination of their travel and confessional writings Discourses of homosexuality are related to discourse about social power dominant structures and a model of colonialism The final chapter examines the AIDS related works of Herve Guibert which are both a meditation on and an exploration of AIDS that most public of private phenomena It also examines the changing relation between public and private between the outside world and Guibert's inner world and between the singularity of literary writing and the nomothetic nature of the public document all of which change in a world and in an individual affected by AIDS

In Love with a Handsome Sailor Richard M. Berrong, 2003-01-01 Writing at first anonymously and later under the pen name Pierre Loti French author Julien Viaud 1850-1923 produced a series of fictions that sympathetically portrayed male same sex desire and its accompanying societal conflicts Due to the constraints of the time Viaud had to develop various strategies for discussing his subject covertly his success in doing so is demonstrated by the great critical and commercial success he enjoyed during his lifetime which included his election to the French Academy at age forty one Richard Berrong presents a gay reading of the novels and novellas of Julien Viaud chronologically tracing his development of a distinct homosexual identity and the strategies that he employed to discuss it in a way that would not be obvious to the general public In so doing Berrong asserts that Viaud's development of a homosexual identity undermined and realigned dominant constructions of masculinity presented the need for gay community and elaborated the role of literature for gay men The first book length gay reading of Viaud's corpus this work will make an important contribution not only to the study of Viaud but also to the study of gay and lesbian history culture and literature

French Gay Modernism Lawrence R. Schehr, 2004 The first four decades of the twentieth century saw male homosexuality appear in French literature with increasing frequency and boldness Departing from earlier more muted presentations Andr Gide Marcel Proust Jean Cocteau Ren Crevel Francis Carco and a host of less famous writers all created overtly gay characters are gave them increasingly numerous and significant roles Far from being simply shunned or marginalized a number of these works were instead accepted as canonical Lawrence Schehr's French Gay Modernism is the only study devoted to the analyzing these representations of male homosexuality in early twentieth century French literature Schehr explains how earlier representations of homosexuality encoded rather than conspicuous served as a basis for later writers to treat homosexual behavior as sets of relationships rather than as secrets or scandals The prominence of authors such as Proust and Gide also helped other writers take up homosexual relationships in their work often by adopting the same representational strategies Schehr doesn't limit his study to high literary culture however He devotes considerable attention to popular writers whose homosexual characters encounter contempt scorn and worse and whose portrayals of homosexual couples and society were at once more open and more at risk

Models of Collaboration in Nineteenth-Century French Literature Seth Whidden, 2016-04-15 Contributing to the current lively discussion of collaboration in French letters this collection raises fundamental questions about the limits and definition of authorship in the context of the nineteenth century's explosion of collaborative ventures While the model of the stable single author that prevailed during the Romantic period dominates the beginning of the century the authority of the speaking subject is increasingly in crisis through the century's political and social upheavals Chapters consider the breakdown of authorial presence across different constructions of authorship including the numerous cenacles of the Romantic period collaborative ventures in poetry through the practice of the Tombeaux and as seen in the Album zutique the interplay of text and image through illustrations for literary works the collective ventures of literary journals and multi author prose works by authors such as the Goncourt brothers and Erckmann Chatrian Interdisciplinary in scope these essays form a cohesive investigation of collaboration that extends beyond literature to include journalism and the relationships and tensions between literature and the arts The volume will interest scholars of nineteenth century French literature and more generally any scholar interested in what is at stake in redefining the role of the French author AIDS in French Culture David Caron,2001-10-02 The deluge of metaphors triggered in 1981 in France by the first public reports of what would turn out to be the AIDS epidemic spread with far greater speed and efficiency than the virus itself To understand why it took France so long to react to the AIDS crisis AIDS in French Culture analyzes the intersections of three discourses the literary the medical and the political and traces the origin of French attitudes about AIDS back to nineteenth century anxieties about nationhood masculinity and sexuality Routledge International Encyclopedia of Queer Culture David A. Gerstner,2006 The Encyclopedia introduces both scholars and general readers to the cultural political scientific juridical and historical practices of international queer culture Queer French Denis M. Provencher,2016-05-23 In this book Denis M Provencher examines the tensions between Anglo American and French articulations of homosexuality and sexual citizenship in the context of contemporary French popular culture and first person narratives In the light of recent political events and the perceived hegemonic role of US forces throughout the world an examination of the French resistance to globalization and Americanization is timely in this context He argues that contemporary French gay and lesbian cultures rely on long standing French narratives that resist US models of gay experience He maintains that French gay experiences are mitigated through gay French language that draws on several canonical voices including Jean Genet and Jean Paul Sartre and various universalistic discourses Drawing on material from a diverse array of media Queer French draws out the importance of a French gay linguistic and semiotic tradition that emerges in contemporary textual practices and discourses as they relate to sexual citizenship in 20th and 21st century France It will appeal to an interdisciplinary readership in gender and sexuality studies cultural studies linguistics media and communication studies and French studies Colonialism and Homosexuality Robert Aldrich,2008-01-28 Colonialism and Homosexuality is a thorough investigation of the connections of homosexuality and imperialism from the late 1800s the era of new imperialism until the era of decolonization Robert Aldrich reconstructs the context of a number of liaisons including those of famous men such as Cecil Rhodes E M Forster or Andr Gide and the historical situations which produced both the Europeans and their non Western lovers Colonial lands which in the late nineteenth and early twentieth century included most of Africa South and Southeast Asia and the islands of the Pacific and Indian Oceans and the Caribbean provided a haven for many Europeans whose sexual inclinations did not fit neatly into the constraints of European society Each of the case studies is a micro history of a particular colonial situation a sexual encounter and its wider implications for cultural and political life Students both of colonial history and of gender and queer studies will find this an informative read Homintern Gregory Woods,2017-11-21 A landmark account of gay and lesbian creative networks and the seismic changes they brought to twentieth century culture In a hugely ambitious study which crosses continents languages and almost a century Gregory Woods identifies the ways in which homosexuality has helped shape Western culture Extending from the trials of Oscar Wilde to the gay liberation era this book examines a period in which increased visibility made acceptance of homosexuality one of the measures of modernity Woods shines a revealing light on the diverse informal networks of gay people in the arts and other creative fields Uneasily called the Homintern an echo of Lenin s Comintern by those suspicious of an international homosexual conspiracy such networks connected gay writers actors artists musicians dancers filmmakers politicians and spies While providing some defense against dominant heterosexual exclusion the grouping brought solidarity celebrated talent and in doing so invigorated the majority culture Woods introduces an enormous cast of gifted and extraordinary characters most of them operating with surprising openness but also explores such issues as artistic influence the coping strategies of minorities the hypocrisies of conservatism and the effects of positive and negative discrimination Traveling from Harlem in the 1910s to 1920s Paris 1930s Berlin 1950s New York and beyond this sharply observed warm spirited book presents a surpassing portrait of twentieth century gay culture and the men and women who both redefined themselves and changed history The Future of Cultural Studies Jan

Baetens, José Lambert, 2000 Novels of the Contemporary Extreme Alain-Philippe Durand, Naomi Mandel, 2006-06-08 This book investigates a new form of fiction that is currently emerging in contemporary literature across the globe Novels of the contemporary extreme from North and South America from Europe and the Middle East are set in a world both similar to and different from our own a hyper real often apocalyptic world progressively invaded by popular culture permeated with technology and dominated by destruction While their writing is commonly classified as hip or underground literature authors of contemporary extreme novels have often been the center of public controversy and scandal they and their work become international bestsellers This collection of essays identifies and describes this international phenomenon investigating the appeal of these novels styles and themes the reasons behind their success and the fierce debates they provoked Talking Bodies Vol. II Bodie A. Ashton, Amy Bonsall, Jonathan Hay, 2020-05-07 This volume brings together scholars from across disciplines and continents in order to continue to analyse query and deconstruct the complexities of bodily existence in the modern world Comprising nine essays by leading and emerging scholars and spanning issues ranging from literature history sociology medicine law and justice and beyond Talking Bodies vol II is a timely and prescient addition to the vital discussion of what bodies are how we perceive them and what they mean As the essays of this volume demonstrate it is imperative to question numerous established presumptions about both the manner by which our bodies perform their identities and the processes by which their ownership can be impinged upon Spaces of Belonging Elizabeth H. Jones, 2007-01-01 Questions of space place and identity have become increasingly prominent throughout the arts and humanities in recent times This study begins by investigating the reasons for this growth in interest and analyses the underlying assumptions on which interdisciplinary discussions about space are often based After tracing back the history of contact between Geography and

Literary Studies from both disciplinary perspectives it goes on to discuss recent academic work in the field and seeks to forge a new conceptual framework through which contemporary discussions of space and literature can operate The book then moves on to a thorough application of the interdisciplinary model that it has established Having argued that the experience of contemporary space has rendered questions of home and belonging particularly pressing it undertakes detailed analysis of how these phenomena are articulated in a selection of recent French life writing texts The close text led readings reveal that whilst not often highlighted for their relevance to the analysis of space these works do in fact narrate the impact of some of the most significant cultural experiences of the twentieth century including the Holocaust and the AIDS crisis upon geo cultural senses of identity Home is shown to be a deeply problematic yet strongly desired element of the contemporary world The book concludes by addressing the underlying thesis that contemporary life writing might provide just the postmodern maps that could help not only literary scholars but also geographers better understand the world today Key names and concepts Serge Doubrovsky Herv Guibert Fredric Jameson Philippe Lejeune R gine Robin Autofiction Cultural Geography Interdisciplinarity Place and Identity Postmodernism Space Postmodern Space Literary Studies Twentieth Century Life Writing

Articulations of Difference Dominique D. Fisher, Lawrence R. Schehr, 1997 Drawn from insights of the past twenty years the essays reflect the renewed approach of gender and sexuality as they relate to homosexuality and its representation and they rely on models that differentiate between sexuality and gender and between natural inclinations and social constructs Despite the wide variety of subjects critical positions and authors backgrounds what these essays have in common is the willingness of the contributors to go beyond a set of rhetorics a set of limitations that were a defining moment in the struggle of gay liberation and its reflection in both creative and critical writing

Queer Exoticism Judith S. Kaufman, Tamara Powell, 2020-06-01 Queer Exoticism Examining the Queer Exotic Within joins the growing bibliography of queer postcolonial and queer race studies The authors assembled here examine the queer tendency to visit decidedly different and unusual subjects of desire in an effort partially at least to find oneself The identity quest that is inherent in the search for the exotic often results in something quite the opposite of foreign since it forms and articulates that which is ourselves Thus experiencing the exotic becomes a path to self knowledge not unlike the work of therapy wherein the examination of elements that appear at first peculiar or unfamiliar end up opening channels to self discovery In this way the gaze outward turns inward to exhibit an inner exoticism that at times is at once always and already inner and outer These essays also focus on various questions of imperialism race exoticism along with other aspects of the exotic Going beyond Said's sense of orientalism this volume examines the otherness of oneself and the notion of desire for the Other as something different from purely an act of domination and colonization thereby refusing perceptions of ascendancy Inasmuch as they represent various geographic and cultural groups the studies lend themselves to a variety of different methodologies and analytical approaches

Affaires de Famille Marie-Claire Barnet, Edward Welch, 2007 What are families like in contemporary France And what begins to emerge when we consider them from the point of view of recent theoretical perspectives faulty cohesion fake coherence carefully planned or subversive deconstruction loss of love confidence or credibility or even utter chaos and alarming confusion Which media revamp old stereotypes generate alternative reinterpretations and imply more ambiguous answers Uneasy contradictions and ambiguities emerge in this bilingual collection of approaches and genre studies The family plot seems to thicken as family ties appear to loosen Has the family been lost from sight or is it being reinvented in our collective imaginary This book proposes a new series of perspectives and questions on an old and familiar topic exploring the state and status of the family in contemporary literature culture critical and psychoanalytic theory and sociology Figuring the East Marie-Paule Ha,2000-01-01 Examines the ambiguous constructions of the Orient in the works of four major twentieth century French writers French Fiction in the Mitterrand Years Colin Davis,Elizabeth Fallaize,2000 The authors examine some of the most popular and some of the most challenging of texts that emerged during Francois Mitterrand s presidency They relate these texts to the dominant literary and cultural trends of the period
