Alcohol Abuse And Black America:

Alcohol Abuse and Black America Frederick D. Harper, 1976 Attitudes of Older African American Women about Alcohol Abuse Bonnie F. Hatchett, 2002 This study explores how drinking status religiosity and religious affiliation are associated with beliefs about alcohol usage among African American women 55 years of age and older The relation between religion and attitudes and behaviours related to alcohol suggest that the church could be used as a vehicle for the dissemination of educational information about alcohol use and possible treatment options Alcohol and Other Drug Use is a Special Concern for African American Families and Communities, 1990 Alcohol Abuse and Black America Frederick D. Harper, 1976 Treatment of Black Alcoholics Frances Larry Brisbane, Maxine Womble, 1985 Here is a wealth of information on helping black alcoholics and their families Authorities discuss the policies programs and personnel that are needed to sensitively and effectively meet the treatment needs of black alcoholics In a clear and concise look at the devastating disease of alcoholism they focus on the physical psychological social economic and spiritual dimensions of the effects of the disease on blacks Each chapter responds to these concerns and provides treatment models recommendations and information about treating black alcoholics This is an informative and highly practical book for professionals in alcohol specific agencies mental health centers family services and child care agencies as well as for administrators of treatment programs students and those who allocate funds for services Substance Use Disorders in African American Communities Mark Sanders, 2016-04-08 This book is dedicated to the prevention treatment and recovery of African Americans with substance use disorders African Americans are disproportionately represented in the addictions criminal justice and child welfare systems It is clear that when their culturally specific needs are not met they are vulnerable to continuous relapse and the revolving door syndrome There has been little written that focuses exclusively on prevention treatment and recovery among African Americans This book was written to fill this gap It is an important contribution to the field of behavioral health providing a much needed treasure trove of important knowledge from specialists including physicians psychologists educators social workers addictions counselors public health specialists researchers the clergy as well as individuals in recovery This volume adds significantly to the knowledge base of practitioners and researchers whose work focuses on prevention treatment and recovery in African American communities This book was originally published as a special issue of Alcoholism Treatment Quarterly Women: Alcohol and Other Drugs Ruth C. Engs, 2007-02-01 This publication of Women Alcohol and other Drugs is a contribution by the Alcohol and Drug Problems Association ADPA to the understanding of and in response to gender differences in addictions Here is a tool for understanding and a guide for more effective treatment of women by the programs and professionals in the drug and alcohol treatment field Authored by women for the treatment of women this volume deals with all aspects of the field including research intervention treatment prevention and education at the community academic government public and private levels Alcohol Problems and Aging Edith Lisansky

United States. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, 1978 Special Report to the U.S. Congress on Alcohol & Health from the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare United States. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, 1978 Perspectives on Alcohol Abuse, 1988 Alcoholism and Women Marc Galanter, 2006-04-11 Solid plausible accurate and loaded with pertinent and highly referenced information regarding clinical and basic research in alcoholism among women and ethnic groups an essential text in the libraries of academicians teachers clinicians researchers and policy makers The quality and scope of the work are groundbreaking and it is convenient to have it all in one source American Journal of Psychiatry Volume 12 highlights the remarkable evolution of alcoholism research during the last few years focusing on gender in alcohol actions and consequences Rural Substance Abuse Elizabeth B. Robertson, 1999-04 Reviews what is known about drug alcohol abuse in rural settings to identify gaps in this knowledge base to suggest areas for further study The first 4 chapters establish the characteristics of rural settings the interpersonal social contexts that shape drug alcohol abuse patterns services There are chapters on the health social economic consequences of the abuse of drugs alcohol Also prevention treatment services access delivery issues information dissemination to improve these services Presents the special needs of rural Native American African American Hispanic American Recent Developments in Alcoholism Marc Galanter, 2006-01-02 From the President of the Research Society on Alcoholism On behalf of the Research Society on Alcoholism I am pleased to introduce this thirteenth volume of Recent Developments in Alcoholism about alcohol and violence Current concepts are presented in well organized sections that focus on epidemiology neurobiology psychology and family issues It is coming increasingly clear that age gender socioeconomic circumstances and genetics affect aggressive behavior and vulnerability to alcoholism This volume contains up to date discussions of these issues Indeed the information presented here will help all alcohol researchers to identify biological and social factors that contribute to the comorbidity of alcoholism and aggression The editors and associate editors should be congratulated for bringing together such important information This volume will be a valuable resource for investigators and therapists alike Ivan Diamond M D Ph D President Research Society on Alcoholism From the President of the American Society of Addiction Medicine The American Society of Addiction Medicine is honored to continue its sponsorship with the Research Society on Alcoholism of Recent Developments in Alcoholism The topic of alcohol and violence is a particularly timely one given the growing number of studies that are examining the relationship between the two These studies are consistent with the hypothesis that alcohol can increase aggression and contribute to both domestic and criminal violence Intoxicating blood levels of alcohol have been found to be especially prevalent in those injured in fights and assaults Rural Substance Abuse, 1997 Alcohol Resources, 1985 The American Experience with Alcohol G.M. Ames, L.A. Bennett, 2013-11-11 This volume is an important contribution to our understanding of culture and alcohol in the United States Its appearance is also a milestone in the history of alcohol studies in American anthropology Over the last six years the volume s editors initially along with Miriam Rodin have served as the coorganizers of the Alcohol and Drug Study Group of the American Anthropological Association AAA In this capacity they have organized sessions at the AAA and other meetings greatly strengthened the research network with a regular and informative newsletter and painstakingly promoted the publication of anthropological work on alcohol and drugs Appearing just as the responsibility for the Study Group is passed on to others this book is a fitting emblem of the care and energy with which its editors have built an institutional nexus for alcohol and drug anthropology in North America The contents of this volume offer a uniquely wide sampling of the diversity of cultural patterns that make up the American experience with alcohol The collective portrait the editors have assembled extends in several dimensions through time and history across such social differentiations as gender age grade and social class and through such major social institutions as the church and the family Clearly the dominant dimension of variation in the material that follows however is ethnicity The book offers us a sampler of unprecedented richness of the different experiences with alcohol of American ethnoreligious groups

Black Families In Crisis Alice F. Coner-Edwards, Jeanne Spurlock, 2014-06-17 First published in 1989 The idea for this volume grew out of discussions held by a group of Black psychiatrists based in Washington D C and the responses of a number of colleagues who attended a symposium Black Families in Crisis at Howard University Medical Center in November 1985 Alcohol Use Among U. S. Ethnic Minorities Danielle Spiegler, 1993-07 An African-centered Model of Prevention for African-American Youth at High Risk Lawford L. Goddard, 1993
