Excerpt from The Admiral's Daughter Spring had come to the West Country a joyous spring laden with soft airs and odours of distant flowering lands and filling the hearts of men with a restless delight It seemed impossible not to be happy with a blue sky flecked by little clouds running down to meet a blue sea the hedgerows gleaming with blackthorn and the pink tips of the beeches shining in the sun The Dublin University Magazine ,1874 Airs and Graces Erica James,1999

Ellen has been living on her own in a picturesque cottage in Cheshire since her husband abandoned her for life in Provence Struggling to make ends meet and having married once for love she's now determined that second time round it'll be for money The Living Age ,1912 Dublin University Magazine a Literary and Political Journal ,1874 A Singer's Guide to the Songs of Joaquín Rodrigo Suzanne Rhodes Draayer,1999

Now in Paper An authoritative and indispensable guide to Joaquín Rodrigo's vast catalog of vocal works A Singer's Guide provides word for word translations idiomatic translations and IPA transcriptions of all eighty seven songs Other details given are background information range length and other relevant facts Biographies of Rodrigo and his wife Victoria Kamhi are also included as well as information gleaned from in depth interviews and correspondence with Cecilia Rodrigo the only child of Victoria and Joaquín Rodrigo Much of this information has never before been available to the public Paperback edition with CD available May 2003 Airs and Graces John Williams Brotherton,2013-02 University Magazine ,1874 The Proverbial Eugene O'Neill Wolfgang Mieder,1995-11-20

Proverbial language figures prominently in the works of Eugene O'Neill 1883-1953 the recipient of four Pulitzer prizes and a Nobel laureateship for literature This book is a directory to the proverbs proverbial expressions and proverbial comparisons in O'Neill's 50 dramas and numerous letters articles diaries and notebooks Very little attention has been given to any aspect of O'Neill's language to say nothing of the virtual disregard of him as a wielder of proverbial diction This collection of 2 059 examples of O'Neill's proverbial usage is a first step towards remedying that situation and provides a foundation for future scholarship The introduction shows how O'Neill used proverbs as a structural element of his dramas and places his proverbial usage in the context of international proverb scholarship offers examples and generalizations about his manipulation of proverbs and suggests fruitful areas of further investigation The heart of the book is a key word index to the proverbial texts that identifies the locations of the proverbial examples in the canon of O'Neill's works and facilitates comparisons of similar locutions Each proverbial construction is dated so that the reader can immediately see the chronological range of the texts For those interested in the history of particular proverbs citations of standard proverb dictionaries are appended to most of the texts Two appendices show the frequency with which proverbs appear and their distribution among the various dramas Littell's Living Age ,1880 Riding ,1959 Cash on Delivery Haydn Wood,Sir Seymour Hicks,1917 New Monthly Magazine and Humorist ,1826
