singing as she goes The room is deserted through the half closed blinds the glad sunshine is rushing turning to gold all on which its soft touch lingers and rendering the large dull handsome apartment almost comfortable Outside everything is bright and warm and genial as should be in the heart of summer within there is only gloom and Lilian clad in her mourning robes The contrast is dispiriting there life here death or at least the knowledge of it There joy here the signs and trappings of woe The black gown and funereal trimmings hardly harmonize with the girl s flower like face and the gay song that trembles on her lips But alas for how short a time does our first keen sorrow last Airy Fairy Lilian Margaret Wolfe

Hamilton,2015-03-24 large hearted and lovable There is a certain haughtiness about her that contrasts curiously but pleasantly with her youthful expression and laughing kissable mouth She is straight and lissome as a young ash tree her hands and feet are small and well shaped in a word she is chic from the crown of her fair head down to her little arched instep Just now perhaps as she hears the honest sound of her aunt s footstep in the hall a slight pout takes Airy Fairy Lilian; Margaret Wolfe Hungerford,2019-02-22 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work was reproduced from the original artifact and remains as true to the original work as possible Therefore you will see the original copyright references library stamps as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the world and other notations in the work This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work As a reproduction of a historical artifact this work may contain missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant ?Airy, Fairy Lilian.? were speaking of the Wise Man the Magician who lived in the dark cave on the side of the hill and could do the most wonderful things In fact they said there was hardly anything he couldn t do you had only to tell him what you wanted most and he could manage it for you Perhaps he could turn me into a nightingale thought Agatha I ll go and ask him anyway So while the maids were still talking she slipped out of the castle and through the wood and down the hill till she came to the dark cave Her long frock caught on the brambles as she went and her hands were a good deal scratched and once she tripped and fell But of course she did not mind anything of that kind because she was thinking all the time about the nightingale Agatha walked into the cave without knocking and found the Magician at home I dare say you know that all good Magicians have kind faces and long white beards This one was a good Magician so he had a kind face and a long white beard Agatha was not in the least afraid of him She told him at once why she had come Airy fairy Lilian Miss M.
