The Japanese Filmography Stuart Galbraith IV, 1996-01-01 This encyclopedic reference work treats a near century's worth of Japanese films released in the United States in theaters or on video and the important actors, directors, producers, and technical personnel involved in them. For people, each entry provides birth date, education, death (when appropriate), a brief biography, and a filmography. The movies are arranged by original U.S. release titles and include cast and production credits, studio, Japanese and U.S. distributor, sound format, running time in both the U.S. and Japanese versions, release dates in both countries, alternate titles, and rating when appropriate of U.S. release. TLA Film and Video Guide 2000-2001 David Bleiler, 2025-09-23 The TLA Film Video Guide is the absolutely indispensable guide for the true lover of cinema. By focusing on independent and international films and avoiding much of the made-for-TV, made-for-cable, made-for-video dreck, this guide offers more comprehensive coverage of the films the reader may actually want to see. It also features Over 9,500 films reviewed, Five comprehensive indexes by star, director, theme, genre, and country of origin, Over 450 photos, A listing of all the major film awards, A comprehensive selection of International Cinema from over 50 countries, From one of the finest names in video retailing and a growing rental chain comes the latest edition of the film video guide, now expanded to include titles available on DVD that's perfect for everyone whose taste ranges from Pulp Fiction to Pink Flamingos, from Life is Beautiful to Valley of the Dolls.

The Toho Studios Story Stuart Galbraith IV, 2008-05-16 Since its inception in 1933, Toho Co. Ltd., Japan's most famous movie production company and distributor, has produced and/or distributed some of the most notable films ever to come out of Asia, including Seven Samurai, Godzilla, When a Woman Ascends the Stairs, Kwaidan, Woman in the Dunes, Ran, Shall We Dance, Ringo, and Spirited Away. While the western world often defines Toho by its iconic classics, which include the Godzilla franchise and many of the greatest films of the legendary director Akira Kurosawa and actor Toshiro Mifune, these pictures represent but a tiny fraction of Toho's rich history. The Toho Studios Story: A History and Complete Filmography provides a complete picture of every Toho feature the Japanese studio produced and released, as well as foreign films that it distributed during its first 75 years. Presented chronologically, each entry in the filmography includes where applicable the original Japanese title, a direct translation of that title, the film's international U.S. release, and alternate titles, production credits including each film's producers, director, screenwriters, cinematographers, art directors, and composers, among others, casts with character names, production companies, technical specs, running times, and release dates, U.S. release data including distributor, whether the film was released subtitled or dubbed, and alternate versions, domestic and international awards, and plot synopses.
