Alain Resnais The Role Of Imagination:

Alain Resnais James Monaco,1978      Alain Resnais James Monaco,1979 Studies the remarkable work of Resnais whose films include La Guerre est Fini Stavisky and Last Year at Marienban      How to Read a Film James Monaco,2000 Explores the medium of film as both art and craft sensibility and science tradition and technology      Rape and Representation Lynn A. Higgins,1993-07-15 Rape does not have to happen The fact that it does and in the United States a rape is reported every six minutes indicates that we live in a rape prone culture where rape or the threat of rape functions as a tool for enforcing sexual difference and hierarchy Rape and Representation explores how cultural forms construct and reenforce social attitudes and behaviors that perpetuate sexual violence The essays proceed from the observation that literature not only reflects but also contributes to what a society believes about itself Fourteen essays by authors in the fields of English American and African American German African Brazilian Classical and French literatures and film present a wide range of texts from different historical periods and cultures Contributors demythologize patriarchal representation in literature and art in order to show how it makes rape seem natural and inevitable Contributors include the editors John J Winkler Patricia Klindiest Joplin Susan Winnett Ellen Rooney Copp lia Kahn Eileen Julien Marta Peixoto Kathryn Gravdal Carla Freccero Nellie V McKay Nancy A Jones and Froma I Zeitlin Their work raises pressing and often difficult questions for feminist criticism      The Concise Routledge Encyclopedia of the Documentary Film Ian Aitken,2013 This reference work explores the history of the documentary film It discusses individual films and filmmakers examines national and regional filmmaking traditions elaborates on production companies organizations festivals and institutions explores themes issues and representations and describes various styles techniques and technical issues      Twenty-One Landmark European Films 1939-1999 Bert Cardullo,2015-04-01 The essays in this insightful film analysis text show cover twenty one of the best European films made between the coming of World War II and the end of the twentieth century showing what makes each of them outstanding These essays are clear and readable that is sophisticated and meaty yet not overly technical or jargon heavy They will make perfect introductions to their respective films as well as important contributions to the field of film studies in general Written with university students in mind these essays cover some of the central films treated and central issues raised in today s cinema courses and provide students with practical models to help them improve their own writing and analytical skills A list of questions for discussion is included to trigger further thinking among film buffs and to help educators prepare for class The book is aimed at students teachers and cinephiles with an interest in European cinema in particular and cinema studies in general as well as at those educated readers with an interest in the practice of film analysis and criticism The only competition comes from Stanley Kauffmann s relatively brief Ten Great Films 136 pp 2012 The current work offers twenty one illustrated essays Kauffmann s book contains no images and focuses on Europe The countries represented are France Italy England Hungary Belgium Sweden Scotland Denmark Russia Spain Germany Scotland and

Finland Twenty One Landmark European Films 1939 1999 overlaps with Kauffmann's book only in the case of L'avventura though the two approach this film from vastly different angles Moreover the book provides a complete critical apparatus notes bibliographies credits and filmographies whereas Kauffmann's has none This book could be one of the primary texts for courses in film analysis to accompany a work like Timothy Corrigan's A Short Guide to Writing about Film 8th edition 2011 It would also be a suitable supplementary or secondary text in such courses as Introduction to Film or Film Appreciation Western European Cinema History of Film or Global Cinema and Film Directors or Film Style and Imagination

Encyclopedia of the Documentary Film 3-Volume Set Ian Aitken, 2013-10-18 The Encyclopedia of the Documentary Film is a fully international reference work on the history of the documentary film from the Lumi re brothers Workers Leaving the Lumi re Factory 1885 to Michael Moore's Fahrenheit 911 2004 This Encyclopedia provides a resource that critically analyzes that history in all its aspects Not only does this Encyclopedia examine individual films and the careers of individual film makers it also provides overview articles of national and regional documentary film history It explains concepts and themes in the study of documentary film the techniques used in making films and the institutions that support their production appreciation and preservation The Trauma Question Roger Luckhurst, 2013-06-17 In this book Roger Luckhurst both introduces and advances the fields of cultural memory and trauma studies tracing the ways in which ideas of trauma have become a major element in contemporary Western conceptions of the self The Trauma Question outlines the origins of the concept of trauma across psychiatric legal and cultural political sources from the 1860s to the coining of Post Traumatic Stress Disorder in 1980 It further explores the nature and extent of trauma culture from 1980 to the present drawing upon a range of cultural practices from literature memoirs and confessional journalism through to photography and film The study covers a diverse range of cultural works including writers such as Toni Morrison Stephen King and W G Sebald artists Tracey Emin Christian Boltanski and Tracey Moffatt and film makers David Lynch and Atom Egoyan The Trauma Question offers a significant and fascinating step forward for those seeking a greater understanding of the controversial and ever expanding field of trauma research Ovid on Screen Martin M. Winkler, 2020-01-30 The first study of Ovid especially his Metamorphoses as inherently visual literature explaining his pervasive importance in our visual media Encyclopedia of Contemporary French Culture Alexandra Hughes, Alex Hughes, Keith A Reader, Keith Reader, 2002-03-11 More than 700 alphabetically organized entries by an international team of contributors provide a fascinating survey of French culture post 1945 Entries include advertising Beur cinema Coco Chanel decolonization critique feminine football francophone press gay activism Seuil youth culture Entries range from short factual biographical pieces to longer overview articles All are extensively cross referenced and longer entries are facts fronted so important information is clear at a glance It includes a thematic contents list extensive index and suggestions for further reading The Encyclopedia will provide hours of enjoyable browsing for all francophiles and essential cultural context for students of French Modern History Comparative European

Studies and Cultural Studies      Rape in Art Cinema Dominique Russell, 2010-03-25 A unique collection of essays exploring the treatment of rape in the art cinema genre this is an interdisciplinary groundbreaking study      New Novel, New Wave, New Politics Lynn A. Higgins, 1998-03-01 Until now writings on the celebrated movements in literature and film that emerged in France in the mid 1950s the New Novel and New Wave have concentrated on their formal innovations not on their engagement with history or politics New Novel New Wave New Politics overturns this traditional approach Lynn A Higgins argues that the New Novelists e g Alain Robbe Grillet Claude Simon Marguerite Duras and New Wave filmmakers e g Claude Chabrol Francois Truffaut Jean Luc Godard Alain Resnais engage in a kind of historiography They enact the conflicts the double binds of postwar history and representation Higgins claims that what art historian Serge Guilbaut has said of American Abstract Expressionism is equally true of the New Novel and New Wave that its aesthetic innovations provided a way for avant garde artists to preserve their sense of social commitment while eschewing the art of propaganda and illustration It was in a sense a political apoliticism Higgins shows how the New Novel and New Wave are related developments While their individual styles and themes remain distinctive she writes they share an ecriture that can be described as alternately or interconnectedly filmic and novelistic New Wave filmmakers borrowed novelistic devices and made frequent literary allusions while the vision of the novelists is distinctly cinematic A lively account that takes us to the crossroads where culture and politics meet New Novel New Wave New Politics dramatically revises our view of a whole generation of important influential artists      The Transparent Illusion Rebecca M. Pauly, 1993 This unique study interprets forty major French films their texts and intertexts analyzing them both as windows on their subject projections of the imagination and as frames or mirrors reflecting the cultural contexts that produced them They are grouped in three major categories foregrounding their relationship to history literature or the filmmaking process itself in ascending order of opacity and modernity This much needed work offers not only comparative cultural perspectives on French text and film but also a better understanding of the poetics of image and ideology      The French Cinema Book Michael Temple, Michael Witt, 2019-07-25 This thoroughly revised and expanded edition of a key textbook offers an innovative and accessible account of the richness and diversity of French film history and culture from the 1890s to the present day The contributors who include leading historians and film scholars provide an indispensable introduction to key topics and debates in French film history Each chronological section addresses seven key themes people business technology forms representations spectators and debates providing an essential overview of the cinema industry the people who worked in it including technicians and actors as well as directors and the culture of cinema going in France from the beginnings of cinema to the contemporary period      Alain Resnais Emma Wilson, 2019-01-04 Alain Resnais director of Hiroshima mon amour 1959 and L'Année dernière à Marienbad 1961 has transformed the representation of memory fantasy and desire in modern cinema This illuminating introduction to his work extending from his earliest documentaries to the musical films of the last decade traces the evolving patterns of his filmmaking its changing reflections on mortality guilt chance and human doubt Exploring questions of the time image of trauma of the senses this volume sets Resnais films in the context of important current debates in film theory and provides a concise account of critical discussions of his work in France and beyond Yet it also offers a highly personal and detailed engagement with individual images and scenes in Resnais films A passionate and partial defence of Resnais work old and new this volume stands apart in its attention to the more tangible and moving pleasures of his films their pathos rigour and visual beauty

Palimpsestic Memory Max Silverman, 2013-02-01 The interconnections between histories and memories of the Holocaust colonialism and extreme violence in post war French and Francophone fiction and film provide the central focus of this book It proposes a new model of palimpsestic memory which the author defines as the condensation of different spatio temporal traces to describe these interconnections and defines the poetics and the politics of this composite form In doing so it is argued that a poetics dependent on tropes and techniques such as metaphor allegory and montage establishes connections across space and time which oblige us to perceive cultural memory not in terms of its singular attachment to a particular event or bound to specific ethno cultural or national communities but as a dynamic process of transfer between different moments of racialized violence and between different cultural communities The structure of the book allows for both the theoretical elaboration of this paradigm for cultural memory and individual case studies of novels and films

Framing Pictures Steven Jacobs, 2012-08-27 Steven Jacobs book provides a unique critical intervention into a relatively new area of scholarship the multidisciplinary topic of film and the visual arts

International Dictionary of Films and Filmmakers: Directors Nicholas Thomas, James Vinson, Samantha Cook, 1990 Each entry contains information lists of cast and crew a select bibliography and an essay by a specialist in the field Many include a still shot
