Nomadic New Women Renée M. Silverman, Esther Sánchez-Pardo, 2024-11-08 Nomadic New Women Exile and Border Crossing between Spain and the Americas Early to Mid Twentieth Century examines how gender and sexuality border crossing and exile intersect in women's intellectual and artistic practices during the volatile historical period of the first half of the twentieth century in and around Spain and the Americas. Each of the twelve chapters in this highly interdisciplinary volume analyzes the combined impact of gender and sexual identity and the traversing of particular national and world regional boundaries on creative work. Together and separately the contributors push the limits of past and present research on exile and migration displacement and nomadism to reveal how the complex interrelationships among gender, sexuality and cultural production come under intense pressure by the crossing of borders.

Individual chapters discuss the relationship with Hollywood cinema, the stars of the Golden Age, the role of foreign authors in the founding of Mexican cinema, tensions in the industry in the 1960s, national and international reception of contemporary film and film makers.
