Comprehension and Written Expression Year 4 Alan Horsfield, 2013 Excel Comprehension and Written Expression Year 4 is essential for any student wishing to improve their comprehension skills. It allows students to practice skills such as finding facts, making references, isolating relevant information, understanding questions and paragraphs, and using tables of contents, indexes, maps, and graphs to find information. The extracts are from a wide variety of genres to allow students to gain confidence in reading different materials. When the student completes the exercises in this book, she/he will have worked through a number of question types from a variety of text types. Rather than give a range of question types based on each passage, the focus in this book will be on developing the student's skill with a particular question type. The book is structured so that if there is a weakness, then the student can concentrate on that particular weakness and become competent without working through passages that may not contribute to the student's progress. In this book, your child will find over 60 graded units of stimulating exercises and extracts, a wide variety of questions including true or false, multiple choice, short answer, and sentence completion, extracts from many different literary and factual text types, a lift out answer section.

Albert's Birthday Surprise Mary-Louise Hussey, 2018-03-22 Albert Mole is the headteacher of the village school in Alphabetville where each of the cheeky little animal inhabitants are named around the letters of the alphabet and have important jobs to do around the village. Albert is to say the least very put out when all of his so-called best friends find trivial excuses for turning down his birthday party invitation. Oh, bother, he says grumpily, I might as well stay in bed all day for my birthday. Well, does he or may be he gets an unexpected surprise or two, shall we find out. Albert's Birthday Leslie Tryon, 2014-05-20 Albert the indomitable hardworking dedicated duck who has appeared in seven previous books by Leslie Tryon has been a busy duck indeed. He has built an alphabet for the school playground. Albert's Alphabet directed the school play. Albert's Play organized a school field trip. Albert's Field Trip and coached the Pleasant Valley baseball team. Albert's Ballgame. He has helped with the big Thanksgiving celebration. Albert's Thanksgiving gathered the kids together to meet a special visitor on Christmas Eve. Albert's Christmas and solved the mystery of the missing pumpkins. Albert's Halloween. And now it's time for Albert to be celebrated in return. It's his birthday and Patsy Pig has organized his surprise party as only she can, right down to the last detail. But will the one detail she forgets ruin the whole affair? Once again, Leslie Tryon brings us Albert and the Pleasant Valley gang in a story full of warmth and humor, accompanied by her marvelously detailed artwork.

Ruth Asawa and the Artist-Mother at Midcentury Jordan Troeller, 2025-07-01 How a group of artist mothers in postwar San Francisco refused the centuries old belief that a woman could not make art while also raising children For most of modern history to be an artist and a mother was to embody a contradiction in terms This awful dichotomy as painter Alice Neel put it pitted artmaking against caretaking and argued that the best art was made at the expense of family and futurity But in San Francisco in the 1950s and 1960s a group of artists gathered around Ruth Asawa 1926 2013 began to reject this dominant narrative In Ruth Asawa and the Artist Mother at Midcentury Jordan Troeller analyzes this remarkable moment Insisting that their labor as mothers fueled their labor as artists these women redefined key aesthetic concerns of their era including autonomy medium specificity and originality Delving into the archive where the traces of motherhood have not yet been erased from official history Troeller reveals Ruth Asawa s personal and professional dialogue with several other artist mothers including Merry Renk Imogen Cunningham and Sally Woodbridge For these women motherhood was not an essentialized identity but rather a means to reimagine the terms of artmaking outside of the patriarchal policing of reproduction This project unfolded in three broad areas which also structure the book s chapters domesticity and decoration metaphors for creativity and maternal labor in the public sphere especially in the public schools Drawing on queer theory and feminist writings Troeller argues that in belatedly accounting for the figure of the artist mother art history must reckon with an emergent paradigm of artmaking one predicated on reciprocity caretaking and futurity      Stomp Off, Let's Go Ricky Riccardi, 2025-01-06 In Stomp Off Let's Go author Ricky Riccardi offers a fresh take on the most widely discussed period of Louis Armstrong's life Tracing the trumpeter's meteoric rise to fame from childhood in New Orleans all the way to Chicago where he changed the course of music with the Hot Five and Hot Seven recordings Riccardi foregrounds the voices of Armstrong and his contemporaries to explore Armstrong's path and relationships more intimately in turn providing essential insights into how Armstrong rose to become one of America's most beloved icons      Uncle Valentine and Other Stories Willa Cather, 1973-01-01 The seven stories in this volume were written during the ascending and perhaps most triumphant years of Willa Cather's career the period during which she published nine books including My Antonia A Lost Lady and Death Comes for the Archbishop For the most part ironic in tone these stories are as Bernice Slote observes bound by the geometrics of urban life streets and offices workers and firms the business world of New York and Pittsburgh the cities which by 1929 Willa Cather had known well for over thirty years In her introduction Slote discusses their biographical elements connections with earlier and later work and the intricate patterns that lie below the lucid shimmering surface of Willa Cather's prose      Fifteen Percent Pregnant Tony Hardy, 2011 Tony Hardy is 43 and trying to become a dad for the first time He is typical of those self absorbed 40 somethings who live in the cashed up inner suburbs Delaying fatherhood wasn't a conscious act for Tony Neither was getting older When his girlfriend miscarries twice in five months he is forced to grow up They commit to IVF and Tony is forced to reflect on his non-existent relationship with his father and whether he truly wants to be a dad He is stuck He is a man in the foetal position hoping to make a foetus Fifteen Percent Pregnant is an honest confronting and funny book about a man's reflections on all things while watching the girl he loves be pushed prodded and hypnotised through IVF Tony critiques childhood sex career tarot cards a woman's pain tolerance versus his own pregnancy money funerals and true love      Billboard, 1962-02-24 In its 114th year Billboard remains the world's premier weekly music publication and a diverse digital events brand content and data licensing platform Billboard publishes the most trusted charts and offers unrivaled reporting about the latest music video gaming media digital and mobile entertainment issues and trends      Business and Law Essel Ray Dillavou, Lloyd E.
