Alcoholism Chemical Dependency And The College Student:

Alcoholism/Chemical Dependency and the College Student Leighton Whitaker, Timothy Rivinus, 2014-02-25 Professionals who work with college students and college students themselves address the current epidemic of drug use on college campuses in this timely book In acknowledging that substance abuse problems proliferate during college and on into adult life when they then affect the next generation the outstanding group of contributors offers forthright and clear descriptions explanations and suggestions for helping students including examples of university services that have proven successful in dealing with student substance abuse This helpful book aims to reverse the trend of ambivalence and confusion of administrators and college counselors regarding the area of substance use disorder by providing practical intervention strategies

Alcoholism/Chemical Dependency and the College Student Timothy M. Rivinus, 1988 Professionals who work with college students and college students themselves address the current epidemic of drug use on college campuses in this timely book In acknowledging that substance abuse problems proliferate during college and on into adult life when they then affect the next generation the outstanding group of contributors offers forthright and clear descriptions explanations and suggestions for helping students including examples of university services that have proven successful in dealing with student substance abuse This helpful book aims to reverse the trend of ambivalence and confusion of administrators and college counselors regarding the area of substance use disorder by providing practical intervention strategies

Understanding and Treating Adolescent Substance Abuse Philip P. Muisener, 1994 Treating substance abuse in adolescents requires a creative integration of individual group and family therapy along with an understanding of addiction and recovery family dynamics and adolescent development This book incorporates all of these elements into its discussion Its thoroughness makes it a valuable addition to the literature in this relatively new clinical specialty Joseph K Nowinski Private Practice This is a hopeful book that promotes a comprehensive view of a complicated difficulty Virginia Child Protection Newsletter

Designing Alcohol and Other Drug Prevention Programs in Higher Education, 1997 Prevention Pipeline, 1989 An alcohol and drug awareness service Research and Intervention, 1994 Research and Intervention Gerardo M. Gonzalez, Vonnie V. Clement, 1997-07 Brings together the views of members of the higher education community on alcohol and other drug abuse prevention and research on the college campus Major articles are provided on four issues prevention theory intervention research environmental influences and assessment with reviews of the articles by practitioners in the field of substance abuse prevention These reviews include reactions and perspectives from a metropolitan college campus the historically black colleges and universities a public university and a private university References and sample surveys

Bibliography of Abstracts on Coexisting Substance Abuse and Mental Disorders, 1990 Alcoholism and the Family Cynthia B. Love, 1990 Substance Abuse on Campus P. Clayton Rivers, Elsie R. Shore, 1997-11-25 Substance abuse is one of higher education s worst problems not only in terms of financial but also human cost Drawing upon current theory and research this handbook arrives at practical solutions to these problems While there are divergent models of research and practice in substance abuse which have led to competing models of intervention treatment and prevention this book seeks to reconcile those differences It allows the reader to understand substance abuse from theoretical research perspectives and guides the reader from conceptualization to programming to intervention with the substance abusing student The book is divided into three parts The first deals with ways of conceptualizing substance abuse and the models which have been the basis for developing intervention strategies Theories of how substance abuse problems develop are discussed and some suggestions are given as to how these theories may guide prevention intervention and treatment The second part focuses on how one should establish policies and programming on campus and how these programming and policy decisions can help in prevention strategies The final part outlines how one can assess intervene and provide treatment for a substance abuser Included here is a chapter on self help groups and how they may be used in support of treatment and aftercare

Pain and Chemical Dependency Howard Smith M.D., Steven Passik, 2008-04-25 Both pain and addiction are tremendous public health problems Practitioners of every stripe say that they learned precious little about pain or addiction in their training and readily admit that instruction on the interface of pain and addiction is nonexistent The recent problem of prescription drug abuse has only served to highlight the fact that these two worlds need unification those who treat pain must be informed about the risks of controlled substances and those who treat addiction need to better and more fully understand their benefits Nowhere is the pooled knowledge of pain management and addiction medicine brought together to allow for a greater appreciation of the risks of addiction when treating people with pain and the pain problems of those with chemical dependency This major new volume brings this vast knowledge base together presenting an array of perspectives by the foremost thought leaders at the interface of pain and chemical dependency and is the most comprehensive resource on the subject to date There have been an increasing number of seminars devoted to this topic and a new society The International Society on Pain and Chemical Dependency has recently been formed and this volume is destined to become the classic text on this multidisciplinary subject It will appeal to anesthesiologists neurologists rehab physicians palliative care staff pain center physicians and psychologists
