Military and Society in 21st Century Europe Jürgen Kuhlmann, Jean Callaghan, 2000 After the Cold War came to an end European countries in both East and West faced the common question of how their military organizations and those of their neighbors would respond to shifts in international relations affecting their economies their perception of globalized threats and cross national security management It is undisputed for example that in well developed democratic societies the challenge to the legitimacy of the military in society the decreasing subjective apprehension of threat and growing opposition to systems of universal conscription have been linked to gains in wealth and living standards This volume seeks by empirically measuring social indicators to assess the current state of civil military relations in a number of countries in Eastern Europe Bulgaria Czech Republic Hungary Romania Russia as well as the state of relations in several of their Western European counterparts France Germany Italy the Netherlands The country studies describe and analyze the differing positions of the military in their specific national settings

Military and Society in 21st Century Europe Jürgen Kuhlmann, 2017-09-04 This compendium on Europe's military situation is written by leading analysts of military studies representing every major nation of Europe Also included are three overview chapters that set the tone for this volume These chapters Martin Shaw on the evolution of a common risk society Christopher Dandeker on the military in democratic societies and Wilfried von Bredow on the re nationalization of military strategy provide an introduction to the work Although the Cold War is now two decades removed from Europe the challenges of transition to new defense systems and institutional structures still confront those who plan the future for military establishments The country studies as well as the final analysis of the trends and probable future developments in Europe should be required reading throughout the national security structure for politicians and decision makers seeking to understand the dilemmas facing European militaries and the societies they defend The chapters cover a wide range of nations Jean Callaghan Christo Domoztov and Valery Ratchcev examine the Bulgarian armed forces after the 1997 elections and Marie Vlachova and Stefan Sarvas review civil military relations in the Czech Republic Janos Szabo studies the defense sector in Hungary Adriana Stanescu sees Romania as a case of delayed modernization Vladimir Rukavishnikov studies the military in post communist Russia Paul Klein and J rgen Kuhlmann review the German armed forces in the context of a peace dividend Bernard Boene and Didier Danet consider France and the post draft situation Marina Nuciari and Giuseppe Caforio consider the Italian military in a democratic context Jan van der Meulen and his colleagues look upon the Netherlands military as a case study in post modernization The final contribution summarizes lessons learned in assessing the contemporary civil military complex Armed Forces and Society in Western Europe ,1965 Armed Forces and Society Natalie Mychajlyszyn,2002 Handbook of the Sociology of the Military Giuseppe Caforio,Marina Nuciari,2018-05-19 This new edition of the volume is presented on the wave of the success which had its first edition 2003 It is entirely updated to the current situation of the disciplines covered and expanded with particular regard to the new missions that have become the main challenge for the armed forces in these first decades of the new millennium with new insights to technological development toward so called cyborg warriors new forms of leadership and changes in soldier s identity and organisational culture It is compiled of documents coming from various researchers at universities around the world as well as military officers devoted to the sector of study Covered in this volume is a historical excursus of studies prior to contemporary research interpretive models and theoretical approaches developed specifically for this topic civic military relations including issues surrounding democratic control of the armed forces military culture professional training conditions and problems of minorities in the armed forces an examination of the structural change within the military over the years including new duties and functions following the Cold War The Armed Forces and Society in Postcommunist Europe Timothy Edmunds,Anthony Forster,Andrew Cottey,2002 Armed Forces and Society in Western Europe Morris Janowitz,1965 Armed Services and Society Martin Edmonds,1988 An examination of the methods by which the main by which the inter relationships of armed services and society may be explored and explained It identifies the chief variables assesses current theories and proposes an overarching theory which can explain changes and be used for prediction Armed forces and society Jacques van Doorn,France)> World Congress of Sociology,Working Group on Armed Forces and Society,2018-11-05 No detailed description available for Armed forces and society Armed Forces in Law Enforcement Operations? - The German and European Perspective Kim Eduard Lioe,2010-11-25 At the center of this study lies the allocation of responsibilities and the division of labor between the armed forces and the mission of the police as well as other security forces in Europe The mission of these forces defines the demarcation line between the spheres of internal and external security by assigning the former to the police and the latter to the armed forces The focal idea is the evaluation of the feasibility of a strict separation as maintained in Germany in a European context practical difficulties in its application and potential ways to overcome such difficulties This comprises in particular a comparison of the German Way with other European states and the corresponding methods chosen against the background of joint operations abroad Soldiers and Societies in Postcommunist Europe A. Forster,T. Edmunds,2003-09-08 This major comparative study examines the development of military society relations in central and eastern Europe since the collapse of communism
