from Armour and Weapons in the Middle Ages The study of brasses has become of redoubled interest since the Great War inasmuch as many examples on the Continent disappeared during the War years In number these memorials were never very great and could not bear comparison with those in the British Isles to day there fore more than ever England s proud position of being the home of sepulchral brasses and the only country where they may be studied in their full development is unchallenge able The fact only needs to be stated to ensure that every patriotic child of Britain who sees a brass in danger of injury or destruction will make an effort to preserve it About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands
