Around The Roof Of The World:

Drinking Mare's Milk on the Roof of the World Tom Lutz, 2016-06-21 I am inordinately proud of my travels and at the same time embarrassed by my pride in them I feel alternately overflowing and empty replete with gratitude for my good fortune and abashed at the overentitled obsessive nature of my need to continue I feel sometimes like the most interesting man in the world sometimes like the most obtuse I am driven onward and yet even as I chart my next adventure I remain unsure why I should want to unclear why I need to And I do need to The road beckons me and always has But am I running toward something Running away Is there a difference from the foreword Tom Lutz is addicted to journeying Sometimes he stops at the end of the road sometimes he travels further In this richly packed portmanteau of traveler s tales we accompany him as he drives beyond the blacktop in Morocco to the Saharan dunes on the Algerian border and east of Ankara into the Hittite ruins of Bo azkale We ride alongside as he hitches across Uzbekistan and the high mountain passes of Kyrgyzstan into western China We catch up with him as he traverses the shores of a lake in Malawi and disappear with him into the disputed areas of the Ukraine and Moldova We follow his footsteps through the swamps of Sri Lanka the wilds of Azerbaijan the plains of Tibet the casinos of Tanzania the peasant hinterlands of Romania and Albania and the center of Swaziland where we join him in watching the king pick his next wife All along the way we witness his perplexity in trying to understand a compulsion to keep moving ever onward to the ends of the earth Around the Roof of the World Nicholas Shoumatoff, Nina Shoumatoff, 2000
