

CHORDS PERFORMED AS ARPEGGIOS

Chord Arpeggio Played as

The image illustrates the concept of chords performed as arpeggios. It features three measures of music in 4/4 time, spanning a grand staff (treble and bass clefs).

- Chord: The first measure shows a triad of notes (C4, E4, G4) in the treble clef and a triad of notes (F3, A3, C4) in the bass clef, both held as whole notes.
- Arpeggio: The second measure shows the same notes from the first measure, but they are written as eighth notes, indicating they are to be played sequentially rather than simultaneously. A yellow vertical bar highlights this section.
- Played as: The third measure shows the notes from the arpeggio section written as a sequence of eighth notes, demonstrating how the chord is actually performed. A red arrow points from the arpeggiated notes in the second measure to this sequence.

Alien Guitar Lessons for the Intermediate & Advanced Guitarist Denis Taafe, 2008 Ornamentation in Baroque and Post-baroque Music Frederick Neumann, 1983-12-21

Ornaments play an enormous role in the music of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries and ambiguities in their notation as well as their frequent omission in the score have left doubt as to how composers intended them to be interpreted Frederick Neumann himself a violinist and conductor questions the validity of the rigid principles applied to their performance In this controversial work available for the first time in paperback he argues that strict constraints are inconsistent with the freedom enjoyed by musicians of the period The author takes an entirely new look at ornamentation and particularly that of J S Bach He draws on extensive research in England France Germany Italy and the United States to show that prevailing interpretations are based on inadequate evidence These restrictive interpretations have been far reaching in their effect on style By questioning them this work continues to stimulate a reorientation in our understanding of Baroque and post Baroque music
