Arrows Of Desire The Films Of Michael Powell And Emeric Pressburger:

Arrows of Desire Ian Christie, 1994 Michael Powell and Emeric Pressburger formed one of the greatest creative partnerships in the history of British cinema. Their films were often controversial. Churchill tried to suppress the release of The Life and Death of Colonel Blimp. Later The Red Shoes and The Tales of Hoffman startled and enchanted cinema audiences with their use of colour, form and music. However, in the last ten years, the magic, poetry and passion of their work has been acknowledged around the world and they are firmly in the pantheon of film masters. This book is a comprehensive analysis of their films and is a useful guide to their work. Calgary's Grand Story Donald B. Smith, 2005 Calgary was a boomtown of 50 000 people in 1912, the year the Lougheed Building and the adjacent Grand Theatre were built. Through the great days of Vaudeville and classic cinema through the Depression, two world wars and the oil and gas boom, the Lougheed and the Grand were cornerstones of downtown Calgary. As the city grew up around them, questions about their future arose. Complemented by over 140 historical images, Calgary's Grand Story is a fascinating tribute to the Lougheed and the Grand and celebrates their unrivalled position in the city's political, economic and cultural history. Arrows of Desire Ian Christie, 1985 Comprehensive analysis of the Powell and Pressburger films. Baroness Orczy's The Scarlet Pimpernel Sally Dugan, 2016-04-15 Since its publication in 1905, The Scarlet Pimpernel has experienced global success not only as a novel but in theatrical and film adaptations. Sally Dugan charts the history of Baroness Orczy's elusive hero from the novel's origins through its continuing afterlife, including postmodern appropriations of the myth. Drawing on archival research in Britain, the United States and Australia, her study shows for the first time how Orczy's nationalistic superhero was originally conceived as an anarchist plotting against Tsarist Russia rather than a counter-revolutionary Englishman. Dugan explores the unique blend of anarchy, myth and magic that emerged from the story's astonishing and complex beginnings and analyses the enduring elements of the legend. To his creator, the Pimpernel was not simply a swashbuckling hero but an English gentleman spreading English values among benighted savages. Dugan investigates the mystery of why this imperialist crusader has not only survived the decline of the meta-narratives surrounding his birth but also continues to enthrall a multinational audience. Offering readers insights into the Pimpernel's appearances in print, in film and on the stage, Dugan provides a nuanced picture of the trope of the Scarlet Pimpernel and an explanation of the phenomenon's durability.

Eisenstein Rediscovered Ian Christie, Professor Richard Taylor, Richard Taylor, 2005-06-28 Offers important new perspectives for reinterpreting Russian culture of the Soviet period, presenting an unparalleled diversity of views and methodologies together with two newly discovered texts by Eisenstein. Envisaging Death Michele Aaron, 2014-07-18 Envisaging Death Visual Culture and Dying enters the expanding field of Death Studies and connects some of its key interpretive frameworks such as issues of internment, practice, trauma or end of life care to visual culture and more than that to visual culture's socio-political, geographic and aesthetic specificities. Where the prevailing picture of death within this field is as a Western experience framed by its denial on one side and its sensationalism on the other this collection confronts the specifics of death's marginalisation its experience as local rather than universal and the precise relationship between the context and the cultural mediation of death Who and where you are which part of the world you live in whether you are famous or wealthy subject to natural catastrophe civil unrest or high tech healthcare has enormous influence on how your death is marked imaged and imagined As such this book addresses the socio cultural factors permeating and styling the visual and inevitably material treatment of death and dying in a broad array of personal and national settings Advanced society has been characterised by an increased distancing of death from the everyday and its distortion or invisibility within the public sphere The essays collected here return some shape and context and geo politics to the treatment of death and dying within contemporary culture and specifically within contemporary visual culture which provides an ever more dominating forum for society's depiction of and dealings with death Charting important new interdisciplinary terrain scholars and practitioners from a wide range of fields address an assortment of cultural mediations of real fictional or fictionalised death They navigate in different ways the fraught policed but always relative distance between the living and the dead which characterises these mediations a distance which works inevitably to reassure and re secure those supposedly untouched by death and dying Envisaging Death whether through discussion of the cemetery landscape the still or moving image the therapeutic or educational art practice addresses how such a distance is reinforced It also crucially explores countless cases of and increasing possibilities for the disruption of this distance With the various crises of current times be they economic environmental or regional such possibilities for this disruption and the altered dynamics of human connection that they represent can only gain in significance

BRITISH WAR FILMS, 1939 - 45 S. P. Mackenzie, 2001-01-01 The cinema was the most popular form of entertainment during the Second World War Film was a critically important medium for influencing opinion Films such as In Which We Serve and One of Our Aircraft is Missing shaped the British people's perceptions of the conflict British War Films 1939-45 is an account of the feature films produced during the war rather than government documentaries and official propaganda making the book an important index of British morale and values at a time of desperate national crisis

The Gothic Other Ruth Bienstock Anolik, Douglas L. Howard, 2014-09-26 Literary use of the Gothic is marked by an anxious encounter with otherness with the dark and mysterious unknown From its earliest manifestations in the turbulent eighteenth century this seemingly escapist mode has provided for authors a useful ground upon which to safely confront very real fears and horrors The essays here examine texts in which Gothic fear is relocated onto the figure of the racial and social Other the Other who replaces the supernatural ghost or grotesque monster as the code for mystery and danger ultimately becoming as horrifying threatening and unknowable as the typical Gothic manifestation The range of essays reveals that writers from many canons and cultures are attracted to the Gothic as a ready medium for expression of racial and social anxieties The essays are grouped into sections that focus on such topics as race religion class and centers of power Destination London Tim Bergfelder, Christian Cargnelli, 2008 The legacy of emigr s in the British film industry from the silent film era until after the Second World War has been largely neglected in the scholarly literature Destination London is the first book to redress this imbalance Focusing on areas such as exile genre technological transfer professional training and education cross cultural exchange and representation it begins by mapping the reasons for this neglect before examining the contributions made to British cinema by emigr directors actors screenwriters cinematographers set designers and composers It goes on to assess the cultural and economic contexts of transnational industry collaborations in the 1920s artistic cosmopolitanism in the 1930s and anti Nazi propaganda in the 1940s British Culture of the Post-War Alastair Davies, Alan Sinfield, 2013-04-15 From Angus Wilson to Pat Barker and Salman Rushdie British Culture of the Post War is an ideal starting point for those studying cultural developments in Britain of recent years Chapters on individual people and art forms give a clear and concise overview of the progression of different genres They also discuss the wider issues of Britain s relationship with America and Europe and the idea of Britishness Each section is introduced with a short discussion of the major historical events of the period Read as a whole British Culture of the Postwar will give students a comprehensive introduction to this turbulent and exciting period and a greater understanding of the cultural production arising from it The New Filmgoer's Guide to God Tim Cawkwell, 2014-05-28 Tim Cawkwell s knowledge and experience of the cinema has been poured into his writings about it Originally published in 2004 this new edition sees some substantial revisions some previous material has been dropped and a lot of new material has been added especially on more recent films The whole text has been very significantly reshaped with the addition of images to support Tim s writing Dozens of films are referred to in this book which finds new insights into the variety of religious narratives that different countries have produced Those receiving more in depth consideration include such masterpieces as The Passion of Joan of Arc Rome Open City Diary of a Country Priest Winter Light The Gospel According to St Matthew Three Colours Red O Brother Where Art Thou Night Of The Hunter The Funeral The Samurai A Man Escaped In The Fog The Word Babette s Feast Silent Light Andrei Roublev The Colour of Pomegranates Mother and Son It s a Wonderful Life The Searchers Hail Mary The Banishment Dead Man Walking Tree of Life Into Great Silence A Canterbury Tale and Philomena The aim of this new edition is both to explore the way religious narrative has produced a number of masterpieces from such major film makers as Bresson Dreyer Rossellini Tarkovsky and Kie lowski but also to reflect on the way the core ideas of Christianity such as salvation martyrdom and redemption continue to surface in films Tim also explores the way that a cultural shift towards doubt about the value of religion and even hostility towards Christianity itself has revealed itself in films Tim describes the way the different denominational contexts of Christianity such as Catholicism Lutheranism and Orthodoxy differentiate films coming out of those contexts and considerably enrich the whole picture The book pays particular attention to the way films are conceived and created with a view to illuminating their virtues as a visual medium It is written in a sinewy but clear style and commends itself to anyone interested in the history of the cinema and in cultural changes since the Second World War

British Fantasy Cinema Carolyn Rickards, 2024-09-30 Provides a fresh perspective on British fantasy film Combines a methodological approach of textual analysis critical discourse and production histories to expand current knowledge and appreciation of British fantasy film Promotes new avenues for film studies by investigating a comprehensive range of British film titles previously disputed or overlooked in existing academic scholarship Informs a more general understanding which is focused on contemporary fantasy but contributes to a broader historical assessment of the fantastic within British cinema In the period since 2001 cinema has witnessed a notable influx in fantasy film Many constitute adaptations from British fantasy literature often created and produced in the UK and showcase domestic talent both in front and behind the screen This includes massive box office hits such as the Harry Potter series 2001 2011 through to smaller scale and independent endeavours like Nanny McPhee 2005 MirrorMask 2005 and Franklyn 2008 However such films have received minimal critical attention as British fantasy films The reasons for this absence are manifold leaving many films contested ignored and omitted from established canons This book re addresses prevailing scholarship on the fantasy genre national film production and representation on screen providing readers with a revised appraisal of the contemporary film landscape It delivers a fresh perspective across a broad range of films which all embrace the fantastic within British cinema Between Opera and

Cinema Jeongwon Joe, Rose Theresa, 2002 First Published in 2002 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Cross-channel Perspectives Leila Wimmer, 2009 This book is the first ever full length study of the reception of British cinema in post war France challenging François Truffaut's infamous dismissal of British cinema as a contradiction in terms a comment which has been and still is widely reproduced yet has until now remained critically unexplored A historical account the book gathers together well known episodes such as Cahiers du cinéma in the 1950s and critics André Bazin François Truffaut Jean Luc Godard along with original new material and thus throws new light on a topic which given the influential nature of French film criticism and cinephilia continues to be at the core of film culture The Modern Hercules

Alastair J.L. Blanshard, Emma Stafford, 2020-11-09 The Modern Hercules explores the reception of the ancient Greek hero Herakles the Roman Hercules in western culture from the nineteenth century to the present day Each chapter considers a particular work or theme in detail exploring this complex hero's transformations of identity and significance in a wide range of modern media including literature visual arts and film The volume is one of four to be published in the Metaforms series examining the extraordinarily persistent figuring of Herakles Hercules in western culture drawing together scholars from a range of disciplines to offer a unique insight into the hero's perennial appeal Flaming Classics Alexander
