Dunn, 1956 Teachers of Children who are Blind Alice Virginia Yeomans Scates, Earl Milton McWilliams, Earl William Anderson, Grace Stevens Wright, Jane Franseth, Maury Weldon Thompson, Robert Lado, Romaine Prior Mackie, Seerley Reid, Anita Carpenter, Anna M. Engel, Kenneth E. Brown, Lloyd M. Dunn, Annie Daugherty, 1955 Teachers of Children who are Deaf Romaine Prior Mackie, 1956 A Reader's Guide for Parents of Children with Mental, Physical, Or Emotional Disabilities Cory Moore, Kathryn Gorham Morton, Joni B. Mills, 1977 Art Teaching George Szekely, Julie Alsip Bucknam, 2013-06-17 This comprehensive up to date art methods text presents fundamental theories principles creative approaches and resources for art teaching in elementary through middle school Teaching Primary Art and Design Susan Ogier, 2017-06-05 Trainee and beginning teachers often find it hard to plan for and teach good art lessons as there is little guidance on subject knowledge and outstanding practice This key text will provide primary trainee teachers with subject knowledge expert advice and guidance along with practical solutions that are necessary to offer children the best possible experiences in art craft and design to ensure that they have access to a broad and balanced curriculum Through guidance and support it will enable them to develop an understanding of the principles and values that underpin high standards and high expectations and show good progress in the subject The Arts in Children's Lives Liora Bresler, C.M. Thompson, 2007-05-08 Seventeen authors whose work represents the best of contemporary research and theory on a constellation of issues concerning the role of the arts in children s lives and learning address critical issues of development context and curriculum from perspectives informed by work with children in formal and informal settings This anthology draws on various cultural and institutional context and traditional and contemporary practices from different parts of the world Early Childhood and Middle Childhood/art Standards (for Teachers of Students Ages 3-12). National Board for Professional Teaching Standards (U.S.), 2000 Art Subjects Howard Singerman, 2023-09-01 Nearly every artist under the age of fifty in the United States today has a Master of Fine Arts degree Howard Singerman s thoughtful study is the first to place that degree in its proper historical framework and ideological context Arguing that where artists are trained makes a difference in the forms and meanings they produce he shows how the university with its disciplined organization of knowledge and demand for language played a critical role in the production of modernism in the visual arts Now it is shaping what we call postmodernism like postmodernist art the graduate university stresses theory and research over manual skills and traditional techniques of representation Singerman who holds an M F A in sculpture as well as a Ph D in Visual and

Cultural Studies is interested in the question of the artist as a professional and what that word means for and about the fashioning of artists. He begins by examining the first campus based art schools in the 1870s and goes on to consider the structuring role of women art educators and women students, the shift from the fine arts to the visual arts, the fundamental grammar of art laid down in the schoolroom and the development of professional art training in the American university. Singerman's book reveals the ways we have conceived of art in the past hundred years and have institutionalized that conception as atelier activity, as craft, and finally as theory and performance. Nearly every artist under the age of fifty in the United States today has a Master of Fine Arts degree. Howard Singerman's thoughtful study is the first to place that degree in its proper historical framework and ideological context. Arguing that where art is taught is where it is made, Teaching Children's Literature Christine Leland, Mitzi Lewison, Jerome Charles Harste, 2013. Offers a fresh perspective on how to implement children's literature across the curriculum in ways that are both effective and purposeful. It invites multiple ways of engaging with literature that extend beyond the genre and elements approach and also addresses potential problems or issues that teachers may confront.

Hearings, Reports and Prints of the House Committee on Appropriations United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations, 1969. Art in Education D. Atkinson, 2002. Distinctive and unique in its approach, this book opens up art education to the broader field of social enquiry into practice, subjectivity and identity. It draws upon important developments in contemporary philosophy and the social sciences and applies this to the professional field of art in education. It opens new perspectives for teachers, teacher educators and student teachers. Linguistic tools for teachers of English: towards a bilingual education Ramiro Durán Martínez, Sonsoles Sánchez-Reyes Peñamaría, 2010. Play and Creativity in Art Teaching George Szekely, 2015-03-02. In Play and Creativity in Art Teaching, esteemed art educator George Szekely draws on his two classic volumes Encouraging Creativity in Art Lessons and From Play to Art to create a new book for new times. The central premise is that art teachers are not only a source of knowledge about art but also a catalyst for creating conditions that encourage students to use their own ideas for making art. By observing children at play and using props and situations familiar to them, teachers can build on children's energy and self-initiated discoveries to inspire school art that comes from the child's imagination. The foundation of this teaching approach is the belief that the essential goal of art teaching is to inspire children to behave like artists, that art comes from within themselves and not from the art teacher. Play and Creativity in Art Teaching offers plans for the study of children's play and for discovering creative art teaching as a way to bring play into the art room. While it does not offer a teaching formula or a single set of techniques to be followed, it demystifies art and shows how teachers can help children find art in familiar and ordinary places accessible to everyone. This book also speaks to parents and the important roles they can play in supporting school art programs and nourishing the creativity of their children.
