Laws: Rigidity And Dynamics Eliezer Rabinovici, 2024-09-10 Laws are they a human invention or are they independent and indifferent to our existence Are they there to be discovered dictated and enforced Are they absolute and rigid or do they evolve Are they applicable in some cases and irrelevant in others A group of multidisciplinary fellows and world leading mentors from all habitable continents met at the Nanyang Technological University Singapore and the IAS University of Birmingham UK to share and challenge their opinions on the subject The results of their deliberations are to be found in the chapters of this book The existence dynamics and flexibility of laws are analyzed in the arts economy engineering history philosophy and science The role of law in real life applications such as the historic transformations of laws in South Africa the construction of dynamic cities within the law potential insurmountable obstacles to building quantum computers as well as charting the best route to low or even zero carbon emissions are addressed by the fellows and mentors The meetings were held within the framework of the Inter Continental Academia of the University Based Institutes of Advanced Studies The concept is also described in this book

Out There Russell Ferguson, Martha Gever, Trinh T. Minh-Ha, Cornel West, 1992-02-11 Out There addresses the theme of cultural marginalization the process whereby various groups are excluded from access to and participation in the dominant culture It engages fundamental issues raised by attempts to define such concepts as mainstream minority and other and opens up new ways of thinking about culture and representation All of the texts deal with questions of representation in the broadest sense encompassing not just the visual but also the social and psychological aspects of cultural identity Included are important theoretical writings by Homi Bhabha Helene Cixous Gilles Deleuze and Felix Guattari and Monique Wittig Their work is juxtaposed with essays on more overtly personal themes often autobiographical by Gloria Anzaldua Bell Hooks and Richard Rodriguez among others This rich anthology brings together voices from many different marginalized groups groups that are often isolated from each other as well as from the dominant culture It joins issues of gender race sexual preference and class in one forum but without imposing a false unity on the diverse cultures represented Each piece in the book subtly changes the way every other piece is read While several essays focus on specific issues in art such as John Yau s piece on Wilfredo Lam in the Museum of Modern Art or James Clifford s on collecting art others draw from debates in literature film and critical theory to provide a much broader context than is usually found in work aimed at an art audience Topics range from the functions of language to the role of public art in the city from gay pornography to the meanings of black hair styles Out There also includes essays by Rosalyn Deutsche Richard Dyer Kobena Mercer Edward Said Gayatri Spivak Gerald Vizenor and Simon Watney as well as by the editors Copublished with the New Museum of Contemporary Art New York Distributed by The MIT Press Making Cultural Cities in Asia June Wang, Tim Oakes, Yang Yang, 2015-12-22 This book examines the vast and largely uncharted world of cultural creative city making in Asia It explores the establishment of policy models and practices against the backdrop of a globalizing world and considers the dynamic relationship between powerful actors and resources that impact Asian cities Making Cultural Cities in Asia approaches this dynamic process through the lens of assemblage how the policy models of cultural creative cities have been extracted from the flow of ideas and how re invented versions have been assembled territorialized and exported This approach reveals a spectrum between globally circulating ideals on the one hand and the place based contexts and contingencies on the other At one end of the spectrum this book features chapters on policy mobility in particular the political construction of the web of communication and the restructuring or rescaling of the state At the other end chapters examine the increasingly fragmented social forces their changing roles in the process and their negotiations alignments and resistances This book will be of interest to researchers and policy makers concerned with cultural and urban studies creative industries and Asian studies Funding of the arts and heritage Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Culture, Media and Sport Committee, 2011-03-30 Funding of the arts and Heritage Third report of session 2010 11 Vol 2 Evidence
