H. MORRISON (Asst. Master, Brantfield Collegiate Institute.), 1886 The Idea of English in Japan Philip Seargeant, 2009-08-04 This book examines the ways in which English is conceptualised as a global language in Japan and considers how the resultant language ideologies drawn in part from universal discourses in part from context specific trends in social history inform the relationships that people in Japan have towards the language The book analyses the specific nature of the language s symbolic meaning in Japan and how this meaning is expressed and negotiated in society It also discusses how the ideologies of English that exist in Japan might have implications for the more general concept of English as a global language To this end it considers the question of what constitutes a global language and how if at all a balance can be struck between the universal and the historically contingent when it comes to formulating a theory of English within the world

Engaging Communities Through Civic Engagement in Art Museum Education Bobick, Bryna, DiCindio, Carissa, 2020-12-25 As art museum educators become more involved in curatorial decisions and creating opportunities for community voices to be represented in the galleries of the museum museum education is shifting from responding to works of art to developing authentic opportunities for engagement with their communities Current research focuses on museum education experiences and the wide reaching benefits of including these experiences into art education courses As more universities add art museum education to their curricula there is a need for a text to support the topic and offer examples of real world museum education experiences Engaging Communities Through Civic Engagement in Art Museum Education deepens knowledge on museum and art education and civic engagement and bridges the gap from theory to practice The chapters focus on various sectors of this research including diversity and inclusion in museum experiences engaging communities through new techniques and museum and university partnerships As such it includes coverage on timely topics that include programs and audience engagement with the LGBTQ refugee disability and senior communities socially responsive museum pedagogy and the use of student workers This book is ideal for museum educators museum directors curators professionals practitioners researchers academicians and students who are interested in updated knowledge and research in art education curriculum development and civic engagement
