Art History, Aesthetics, Visual Studies Michael Ann Holly, Keith P. F. Moxey, 2002 Visual Culture Margarita Dikovitskaya, 2005 Drawing on interviews responses to questionnaires and oral histories by U S Partisan Canons Anna Brzyski, 2007-10-08 Case studies that counter the idea of a transcendent art canon by demonstrating that the content of any and every canon is historically and culturally specific Ancient Near Eastern Art in Context Jack Cheng, Marian H. Feldman, 2007 Through her published works and in the classroom Irene J Winter has served as a mentor for the latest generation of scholars of Mesopotamian visual culture The various contributions to this volume in her honor represent a cross section of the state of scholarship today Topics by the twenty authors include palatial and temple architecture royal sculpture gender in the ancient Near East and interdisciplinary studies that range from the fourth millennium BCE to modern ethnography and cover Sumer Assyria Babylonia Iran Syria Urartu and the Levant Reflections on Winter's scholarship and teaching accompany her bibliography The volume will be useful for scholars who are curious about how visual culture is being used to study the ancient Near East Poetics of the Iconotext Professor Liliane Louvel, 2013-05-28 Poetics of the Iconotext makes available for the first time in English the theories of the respected French text image specialist Professor Liliane Louvel A consolidation of the most significant theoretical materials of Louvel's two acclaimed books L'Œil du Texte Texte et image dans la littérature anglophone and Texte Image Images lire textes voir this newly conceived work introduces English readers to the most current thinking in French text image theory and visual studies Focusing on the full spectrum of text image relations from medieval illuminated manuscripts to digital books Louvel begins by introducing key terms and situating her work in the context of significant debates in text image studies Part II introduces Louvel's typology of pictorial saturation through which she establishes a continuum along which to measure the effect of the most figurative to the most literal images upon writerly and readerly textual spaces Part III adopts a phenomenological approach towards the reading viewing experience as expressed in conceptual categories that include the trace focal range synesthesia and rhythm and speed The result is a provocative interplay of the categorical and the subjective that invites readers to think at once more precisely and more inventively about texts images and the intersections between the two The Visual Culture Reader Nicholas Mirzoeff, 2002 The diverse essays collected here constitute an exploration of the emerging interdisciplinary field of visual culture and examine why modern and postmodern culture place such a premium on rendering experience in visual form Photography and Writing in Latin America Marcy E. Schwartz, Mary Beth Tierney-Tello, 2006-07-15 This is the first book to document the extensive collaboration between writers and photographers in Latin America from the Mexican Revolution through the twentieth century Figuring Out the Figurines of the Ancient Near East Stephanie Langin-Hooper, 2014-02-28 This volume contains 4 papers focusing on terracotta figurines of the ancient Near East that were delivered at one of three sessions of the Annual Meeting of the American Schools of Oriental Research in 2009 2010 and

2011 Iconographic Exegesis and Third Isaiah Izaak Jozias Hulster, 2009 Although scholars employ pictorial material in biblical exegesis the question of how images from the Ancient Near East can contribute to a better understanding of the Bible has been left unanswered This is the first monograph to outline a historical method for iconographic exegesis The methodological study includes both responses to important theoretical questions such as What is an image and What is culture and an interdisciplinary exploration of issues of history art history archaeology and cultural anthropology The three stage method proposed is embedded in hermeneutical and exegetical reflections The application of iconographical exegesis to the interpretation of metaphors is also considered In demonstrating the method and its application Izaak J de Hulster focuses on Third Isaiah and develops three iconographical exegetical studies on yad in Isaiah 56 5 light in Isaiah 60 and grape processing in Isaiah 63 W.J.T. Mitchell's Image Theory Krešimir Purgar, 2016-11-25 W J T Mitchell one of the founders of visual studies has been at the forefront of many disciplines such as iconology art history and media studies His concept of the pictorial turn is known worldwide for having set new philosophical paradigms in dealing with our vernacular visual world This book will help both students and seasoned scholars to understand key terms in visual studies pictorial turn metapictures literary iconology image text biopictures or living pictures among many others while systematically presenting the work of Mitchell as one of the discipline s founders and most prominent figures As a special feature the book includes three comprehensive authoritative and theoretically relevant interviews with Mitchell that focus on different stages of development of visual studies and critical iconology Proceedings of the 6th International Congress of the Archaeology of the Ancient Near East: Excavations, surveys and restorations : reports on recent field archaeology in the Near East Licia Romano, 2010 6th International Congress of the Archaeology of the Ancient Near East held in Rome on May 5th 10th 2008 www.6icaane.it Foreword Cities and the Shaping of Memory in the Ancient Near East Ömür Harmanşah, 2013-03-18 This book investigates the practice of constructing cities in the ancient Near East bringing together architecture and cultural history Art History and Visual Studies in Europe, 2012-06-22 Reflection on the history and practice of art history has long been a major topic of research and scholarship and this volume builds on this tradition by offering a critical survey of many of the major developments in the contemporary discipline such as the impact of digital technologies the rise of visual studies or new initiatives in conservation theory and practice Alongside these methodological issues this book addresses the mostly neglected question of the impact of national contexts on the development of the discipline Taking a wide range of case studies this book examines the impact of the specific national political institutional and ideological demands on the practice of art history The result is an account that both draws out common features and also highlights the differences and the plurality of practices that together constitute art history as a discipline The Oxford Handbook of Greek and Roman Art and Architecture Clemente Marconi, 2015 An innovative and up to date synopsis of the field of Greek and Roman Art and Architecture filling a genuine need in the literature A Companion to American

What Do Pictures Want? W. J. T. Mitchell, 2005-06-15 The author argues that we need to reckon with images not merely as inert objects that convey meaning but as animated beings with desires needs appetites and drives of their own He explores this idea and highlights his innovative and profoundly influential thinking on picture theory and the lives and loves of images

Diplomacy by Design Marian H. Feldman, 2006-05-15 During the fourteenth and thirteenth centuries BCE the kings of Egypt Babylonia Assyria and Hatti participated in a complex international community These two hundred years also witnessed the production of luxurious artworks made of gold ivory alabaster and faience objects that helped to foster good relations among the kingdoms In fact as Marian H Feldman makes clear here art and international relations during the Late Bronze Age formed an unprecedented symbiosis in concert with expanded travel and written communications across the Mediterranean And thus diplomacy was invigorated through the exchange of lavish art objects and luxury goods which shared a repertoire of imagery that modern scholars have called the first International Style in the history of art Previous studies have focused almost exclusively on stylistic attribution of these objects at the expense of social contextualization Feldman s Diplomacy by Design instead examines the profound connection between art produced during this period and its social and political contexts revealing inanimate objects as catalysts or even participants in human dynamics Feldman s fascinating study shows the ways in which the diplomatic circulation of these works actively mediated and strengthened political relations intercultural interactions and economic negotiations and she does so through diverse disciplinary frameworks including art history anthropology and social history Written by a specialist in ancient Near Eastern art and archaeology who has excavated and traveled extensively in this area of the world Diplomacy by Design considers anew the symbolic power of material culture and its centrality in the construction of human relations
