Art In History:

Art History and Its Institutions Elizabeth Mansfield, 2002 What is art history The answer depends on who asks the question Museum staff academics art critics collectors dealers and artists themselves all stake competing claims to the aims methods and history of art history Dependent on and sustained by different and often competing institutions art history remains a multi faceted field of study Art History and Its Institutions focuses on the professional and institutional formation of art history showing how the discourses that shaped its creation continue to define the field today Grouped into three sections articles examine the sites where art history is taught and studied the role of institutions in conferring legitimacy the relationship between modernism and art history and the systems that define and control it From museums and universities to law courts and photography studios the contributors explore a range of different institutions revealing the complexity of their interaction and their impact on the discipline of art history BOOK JACKET The Routledge Companion to Digital

Humanities and Art History Kathryn Brown, 2020-04-15 The Routledge Companion to Digital Humanities and Art History offers a broad survey of cutting edge intersections between digital technologies and the study of art history museum practices and cultural heritage The volume focuses not only on new computational tools that have been developed for the study of artworks and their histories but also debates the disciplinary opportunities and challenges that have emerged in response to the use of digital resources and methodologies Chapters cover a wide range of technical and conceptual themes that define the current state of the field and outline strategies for future development This book offers a timely perspective on trans disciplinary developments that are reshaping art historical research conservation and teaching This book will be of interest to scholars in art history historical theory method and historiography and research methods in education Art History and Visual Studies in Europe Matthew Rampley, Thierry Lenain, Hubert Locher, 2012-06-22 This book undertakes a critical survey of art history across Europe examining the recent conceptual and methodological concerns informing the discipline as well as the political social and ideological factors that have shaped its development in specific national contexts

Intersections of Contemporary Art, Anthropology and Art History in South Asia Sasanka Perera, Dev Nath Pathak, 2019-02-23 Taking South Asia as its focus this wide ranging collection probes the general reluctance of the cultural anthropology to engage with contemporary visual art and artists including painting sculpture performance art and installation Through case studies engaged equally in anthropology and visual studies contributors examine art and artistic production in India Sri Lanka Pakistan Bangladesh and Nepal to bring the social and political complexities of artistic practice to the fore Demonstrating the potential of the visual as a means to understand a society its values and its politics this volume ranges across discourses of anthropology sociology biography memory art history and contemporary practices of visual art Ultimately Intersections of Contemporary Art Anthropology and Art History in South Asia simultaneously expands and challenges the disciplinary foci of two fields it demonstrates to art criticism and art history the necessity of anthropological and sociological methodologies and theories while at the same time challenging the iconophobia of social sciences

Women Writing Art History in the Nineteenth Century Hilary Fraser, 2014-09-04 This book examines women's art writing in the nineteenth century challenging the idea of art history as a masculine intellectual field

George A. Kubler and the Shape of Art History Thomas F. Reese, 2023-04-04 An illuminating intellectual biography of a pioneering and singular figure in American art history Art historian George A Kubler 1912-1996 was a foundational scholar of ancient American art and archaeology as well as Spanish and Portuguese architecture During over five decades at Yale University he published seventeen books that included innovative monographs major works of synthesis and an influential theoretical treatise In this biography Thomas F Reese analyzes the early formation broad career and writings of Kubler casting nuanced light on the origins and development of his thinking Notable in Reese's discussion and contextualization of Kubler's writings is a revealing history and analysis of his Shape of Time a book so influential to students scholars artists and curious readers in multiple disciplines that it has been continuously in print since 1962 Reese reveals how pivotal its ideas were in Kubler's own thinking rather than focusing on problems of form as an ordering principle he increasingly came to sequence works by how they communicate meaning The author demonstrates how Kubler who professed to have little interest in theory devoted himself to the craft of art history discovering and charting the rules that guided the propagation of structure and significance through time

Panofsky and the Foundations of Art History Michael Ann Holly, 1984 No one has been more influential in the contemporary practice of art history than Erwin Panofsky yet many of his early seminal papers remain virtually unknown to art historians As a result Michael Ann Holly maintains art historians today do not have access to the full range of methodological considerations and possibilities that Panofsky's thought offers and they often remain unaware of the significant role art history played in the development of modern humanistic thought Placing Panofsky's theoretical work first in the context of the major historical paradigms generated by Hegel Burckhardt and Dilthey Holly shows how these paradigms themselves became the grounds for creative controversy among Panofsky's predecessors Riegl W Ifflin Warburg and Dvork among others She also discusses how Panofsky's struggle with the terms and concepts of neo Kantianism produced in his work remarkable parallels with the philosophy of Ernst Cassirer Finally she evaluates Panofsky's better known and later iconological studies by reading them against the earlier essays and by comparing his earlier ideas with the vision that has inspired recent work in the philosophy of history semiotics and the philosophy of science

Art History Dana Arnold, 2020 Art history encompasses the study of the history and development of painting sculpture and the other visual arts Here Dana Arnold introduces the issues debates and artefacts that make up the discipline She explores how we write present read and look at art and the impact this has on our understanding of art history

A Realist Theory of Art History Ian Verstegen, 2013-01-03 As the theoretical alignments within academia shift this book introduces a surprising variety of realism to abolish the old positivist theory dichotomy that has haunted Art History Demanding frankly the referential detachment of the objects under study the book proposes a stratified multi causal account of art history that addresses postmodern concerns while saving it from its errors of self refutation Building from the very basic distinction between intransitive being and transitive knowing objects can be affirmed as real while our knowledge of them is held to be fallible Several focused chapters address basic problems while introducing philosophical reflection into art history These include basic ontological distinctions between society and culture general and special history the discontinuity of cultural objects the importance of definition for special history scales facets and fiat objects as forms of historical structure the nature of evidence and proof historical truth and controversies Stressing Critical Realism as the stratified multi causal approach needed for productive research today in the academy this book creates the subject of the ontology of art history and sets aside a theoretical space for metaphysical reflection thus clarifying the usually muddy distinction between theory methodology and historiography in art history

Japanese Art - Transcultural Perspectives Melanie Trede,Christine Guth,Mio Wakita,2024-12-02 The transcultural approach to Japanese art history embraced by the contributors to this volume centers on the dynamic aesthetic artistic and conceptual negotiations across cultural temporal and spatial boundaries It not only acknowledges material objects people and technologies as agents but also intangible practices such as knowledge and concepts as vital agencies of interaction in transcultural processes With its premise on connectivity trans territoriality networks and their transformative potential this research destabilizes categorical configurations such as center vs periphery and high vs low calling into question the classical canon of Japanese art history

Art History as Cultural History Richard Woodfield,2014-04-08 This book focuses on Aby Warburg 1866 1929 one of the legendary figures of twentieth century cultural history His collection which is now housed in the Warburg Institute of the University of London bears witness to his idiosyncratic approach to a psychology of symbolism and explores the Nachleben of classical antiquity in its manifold cultural legacy This collection of essays offers the first translation of one of Warburg s key essays the Gombrich lecture described by Carlo Ginzburg as the richest and most penetrating interpretation of Warburg and original essays on Warburg s astrology his Mnemosyne project and his favourite topic of festivals Richard Woodfield is Research Professor in the Faculty of Art and Design at the Nottingham Trent University England He has edited E H Gombrich s Reflections on the History of Art 1987 Gombrich on Art and Psychology 1996 The Essential Gombrich 1996 and a volume on Riegl in the Critical Voices in Art Theory and Culture series He is also the General Editor of a new series of books for G B Arts International Aesthetics and the Arts Edited by Richard Woodfield Research Professor in the Faculty of Art and Design at Nottingham Trent University UK

Klonk,2025-03-18 Art History A critical introduction to its methods provides a lively and stimulating introduction to methodological debates within art history Offering a lucid account of approaches from Hegel to post colonialism the book provides a sense of art history s own history as a discipline from its emergence in the late eighteenth century to contemporary debates By explaining the underlying philosophical and political assumptions behind each method along with clear examples of how these are brought to bear on visual and historical analysis the authors show that an adherence to a certain method is in effect a commitment to a set of beliefs and values The book makes a strong case for the vitality of the discipline and its methodological centrality to new fields such as visual culture This book will be of enormous value to undergraduate and graduate students and also makes its own contributions to ongoing scholarly debates about theory and method Feminism And Art History Norma Broude,2018-02-23 A long needed corrective and alternative view of

Western art history these seventeen essays by respected scholars are arranged chronologically and cover every major period from the ancient Egyptian to the present While several of the essays deal with major women artists the book is essentially about Western art history and the extent to which it has been distorted in every period by sexual bias With 306 illustrations

Is Art History Global? James Elkins,2013-10-18 This is the third volume in The Art Seminar James Elkin s series of conversations on art and visual studies Is Art History Global stages an international conversation among art historians and critics on the subject of the practice and responsibility of global thinking within the discipline Participants range from Keith Moxey of Columbia University to Cao Yiqiang Ding Ning Cuautemoc Medina Oliver Debroise Renato Gonzalez Mello and other scholars The Architecture of Art History Mark Crinson,Richard J. Williams,2018-12-13 What is the place of architecture in the history of art Why has it been at times central to the discipline and at other times seemingly so marginal What is its place now Many disciplines have a stake in the history of architecture sociology anthropology human geography to name a few This book deals with perhaps the most influential tradition of all art history examining how the relation between the disciplines of art history and architectural history has waxed and waned over the last one hundred and fifty years In this highly original study Mark Crinson and Richard J Williams point to a decline in the importance attributed to the role of architecture in art history over the last century which has happened without crisis or self reflection The book explores the problem in relation to key art historical approaches from formalism to feminism to the social history of art and in key institutions from the Museum of Modern Art to the journal October Among the key thinkers explored are Banham Baxandall Giedion Panofsky Pevsner Pollock Riegl Rowe Steinberg Wittkower and W lfflin The book will provoke debate on the historiography and present state of the discipline of art history and it makes a powerful case for the reconsideration of architecture
