Art In The Social Order The Making Of The Modern Conception Of Art:

Art in the Social Order Preben Mortensen, 1997 For the first time a historical examination of the origin of our ideas of art are related to questions in contemporary art theory Mortensen shows that our conception of art emerged in the eighteenth century as part of new ideas of edification and of the presentation of the self He examines the complex social and cultural context in which our ideas of art emerge in the eighteenth century In a context of social political and cultural changes knowledge about art and the display of taste come to indicate social distinctions and replace older notions of birth and rank Mortensen connects these historical developments to contemporary discussions about the relationship between high art and popular art Art in the Social Order Preben Mortensen, 1997-01-01 Seeks to replace the dominant approaches to the question of the nature of art in contemporary English speaking analytic philosophy with a historicist approach that emphasizes localized cultural historical narratives The Invention of Art Larry Shiner, 2001-09 Larry Shiner challenges our conventional understandings of art and asks us to reconsider its history entirely arguing that the category of fine art is a modern invention and that the lines drawn between art and craft emerged only as the result of key European social transformations during the long eighteenth century Publisher's description Art Wars Rachel N. Klein, 2020-06-19 A study of three controversies that illuminate the changing cultural role of art exhibition in the nineteenth century From the antebellum era through the Gilded Age New York City's leading art institutions were lightning rods for conflict In the decades before the Civil War art promoters believed that aesthetic taste could foster national unity and assuage urban conflicts by the 1880s such hopes had faded and the taste for art assumed more personal connotations associated with consumption and domestic decoration Art Wars chronicles three protracted public battles that marked this transformation The first battle began in 1849 and resulted in the downfall of the American Art Union the most popular and influential art institution in North America at mid century The second erupted in 1880 over the Metropolitan Museum's massive collection of Cypriot antiquities which had been plundered and sold to its trustees by the man who became the museum's first paid director The third escalated in the mid 1880s and forced the Metropolitan Museum to open its doors on Sunday the only day when working people were able to attend In chronicling these disputes Rachel N Klein considers cultural fissures that ran much deeper than the specific complaints that landed protagonists in court New York's major nineteenth century art institutions came under intense scrutiny not only because Americans invested them with moral and civic consequences but also because they were part and parcel of explosive processes associated with the rise of industrial capitalism Elite New Yorkers spearheaded the creation of the Art Union and the Metropolitan but those institutions became enmeshed in popular struggles related to slavery immigration race industrial production and the rights of working people Art Wars examines popular engagement with New York's art institutions and illuminates the changing cultural role of art exhibition over the course of the nineteenth century Fictional Characters, Real Problems Garry Hagberg, 2016 These new essays explore central aspects of the ethical content of literature character its formation and its role in moral discernment poetic vision in the context of ethical understanding self identity and self understanding literature s role in moral growth and change and the historical background of the ethical dimension of literature

Between Transcendence and Historicism Brian K. Etter, 2006-06-01 Between Transcendence and Historicism explores Hegel s aesthetics within the larger context of the tradition of theoretical reflection to emphasize its unique ability to account for traditional artistic practice Arguing that the concept of the ethical is central to Hegel s philosophy of art Brian K Etter examines the poverty of modernist aesthetic theories in contrast to the affirmation by Hegel of the necessity of art He focuses on the individual arts in greater detail than is normally done for Hegel s aesthetics and considers how the dual constitution of the ethical nature of art can be justified both within Hegel s own philosophical system and in terms of its relevance to the dilemmas of modern social life Etter concludes that the arts have a responsibility to represent the goodness of existence the ideal and the ethical life in dignifying the metaxological realm through their beauty

Songs of Experience Martin Jay, 2005-01-10 Few words in both everyday parlance and theoretical discourse have been as rhapsodically defended or as fervently resisted as experience Yet to date there have been no comprehensive studies of how the concept of experience has evolved over time and why so many thinkers in so many different traditions have been compelled to understand it Songs of Experience is a remarkable history of Western ideas about the nature of human experience written by one of our best known intellectual historians With its sweeping historical reach and lucid comparative analysis qualities that have made Martin Jay s previous books so distinctive and so successful Songs of Experience explores Western discourse from the sixteenth century to the present asking why the concept of experience has been such a magnet for controversy Resisting any single overarching narrative Jay discovers themes and patterns that transcend individuals and particular schools of thought and illuminate the entire spectrum of intellectual history As he explores the manifold contexts for understanding experience epistemological religious aesthetic political and historical Jay engages an exceptionally broad range of European and American traditions and thinkers from the American pragmatists and British Marxist humanists to the Frankfurt School and the French poststructuralists and he delves into the thought of individual philosophers as well including Montaigne Bacon Locke Hume and Kant Oakeshott Collingwood and Ankersmit Provocative engaging erudite this key work will be an essential source for anyone who joins the ongoing debate about the material linguistic cultural and theoretical meaning of experience in modern cultures The Aesthetic in Kant James Kirwan,2006-02-22 Kant's Critique of the Power of Judgment is widely held to be the seminal work of modern aesthetics In recent years it has been the focus of intense interest and debate not only in philosophy but also in literary theory and all disciplines concerned with the aesthetic The Aesthetic in Kant is a new reading of Kant's problematic text It draws upon the great volume of recent philosophical work on this classic text and on the context of eighteenth century aesthetics Kant's work is used as a basis on which to construct a radical alternative to the antinomy of taste the basic problem of the aesthetic In Kant's account is a theory of the aesthetic that far from establishing its disinterested nature instead makes it symptomatic of what Kant himself describes as the ineradicable human tendency to entertain fantastic desires When Art Disrupts Religion Philip Salim Francis,Randall Herbert Balmer,2017 When Art Disrupts Religion lays bare the power of encounters with the arts to unsettle and overturn deeply ingrained religious beliefs and practices Grounded in the accounts of more than 80 Evangelicals who experienced such a sea change of religious identity the book bridges the gap between aesthetic theory and lived religion while exploring the interrelationship of religion and art in the modern West Tracing Global Democracy Vladimir Biti,2016-01-15 Focused on the recently hotly debated topic at the crossroads of various human and social sciences this book investigates the emergence of the cosmopolitan idea of literature and its impact on the reconfiguration of the European and non European political spaces The birthplace of this idea is its designers traumatic experience as induced by the disconcerting condition of their abode The thesis is that the eighteenth and nineteenth century's cosmopolitan projects that grow out of such deep frustrations trace the twentieth century's global democracy This hidden origin of cosmopolitan projects dismantles the usual European representation of modernization as universal progress as myopic Rather than being a generous action of prominent subjects such as Voltaire Kant and Goethe or Bakhtin Derrida and Deleuze cosmopolitanism is an enforced reaction of the instances dispossessed by injury that search for the ways of healing it Yet as soon as their remedy establishes itself as the ground for universal reconciliation it risks suppressing other's trauma i.e turns from politics into a police Articulating the author's position in the recent debates on the structure of democracy the epilogue suggests an alternative strategy Writing for Immortality Anne E. Boyd,2010-01-01 Before the Civil War American writers such as Catharine Maria Sedgwick and Harriet Beecher Stowe had established authorship as a respectable profession for women But though they had written some of the most popular and influential novels of the century they accepted the taboo against female writers regarding themselves as educators and businesswomen During and after the Civil War some women writers began to challenge this view seeing themselves as artists writing for themselves and for posterity Writing for Immortality studies the lives and works of four prominent members of the first generation of American women who strived for recognition as serious literary artists Louisa May Alcott Elizabeth Stuart Phelps Elizabeth Stoddard and Constance Fenimore Woolson Combining literary criticism and cultural history Anne E Boyd examines how these authors negotiated the masculine connotation of artist imagining a space for themselves in the literary pantheon Redrawing the boundaries between male and female literary spheres and between American and British literary traditions Boyd shows how these writers rejected the didacticism of the previous generation of women writers and instead drew their inspiration from the most prominent literary writers of their day Emerson James Barrett Browning and Eliot Placing the works and experiences of Alcott Phelps Stoddard and Woolson within contemporary discussions about genius and the American artist Boyd reaches a sobering conclusion Although these women were encouraged by the democratic ideals implicit in such concepts they were equally discouraged by lingering prejudices about their applicability to women

Terror and Triumph Anthony B. Pinn, 2022-07-26 Given the unique history of African Americans and their diverse religious flowering in Black Christianity the Nation of Islam voodoo and others what is the heart and soul of African American religious life As a leader in both Black religious studies and theology Anthony Pinn has probed the dynamism and variety of African American religious expressions In this work based on the Edward Cadbury Lectures at the University of Birmingham England he searches out the basic structure of Black religion tracing the Black religious spirit in its many historical manifestations Pinn finds in the terrors of enslavement of Black bodies and subsequent oppressions the primal experience to which the Black religious impulse provides a perennial and cumulative response Oppressions entailed the denial of personhood and creation of an object the negro Slave auctions punishments and later lynchings created an existential dread but also evoked a quest a search for complex subjectivity or authentic personhood that still fuels Black religion today In this 20th anniversary edition of Pinn's groundbreaking work the author offers a new reflection on the argument in retrospect and invites a panel of five contemporary scholars to examine what it means for current and future scholarship Contributors include Keri Day Sylvester Johnson Anthony G Reddie Calvin Warren and Carol Wayne White
