Ferme,2001-09-14 Researched with unusual sensitivity original in approach illuminating beyond its immediate geographical and theoretical referents and written in a style that is both carefully crafted and eminently accessible this is the work of a remarkably talented observer and scholar Jane Guyer editor of Money Matters Instability Values and Social Payments in the Modern History of West African Communities former president of the African Studies Association The world is currently quite aware of Sierra Leone and its predicament and it needs this well informed and beautifully written account of what makes the country so wonderful despite its woes Ferme's work is truly transcendent capturing magnificently well some of the most important aspects of an otherwise difficult ethnographic case It is a truthful and honest piece of work based on a deep grasp of the ethnographer's craft Paul Richards author of Fighting for the Rain Forest War Youth and Resources in Sierra Leone Ferme is a true master in the magic of things She gives the study of secrecy new impetus by examining its history relating that history not only to discourse but also to material conditions She brilliantly shows how for Sierra Leone societies the celebration of ambiguity has been a way to live with permanent danger from the long history of slavery through the present civil war Peter Geschiere author of The Modernity of Witchcraft Politics and the Occult in Postcolonial Africa The Underneath of Things is a model of patience detailed observation and elegant writing a theoretically creative study that is keen to track and to disentangle the webs and flows of everyday life Achille Mbembe author of On the Postcolony The Study of Dress History Lou Taylor, 2002-05-03 Over the past ten years the study of dress history has finally broken free of the shackles that have held it back and is now benefiting from new multidisciplinary approaches and practices which draw on material culture art history ethnography and cultural studies This book focuses on the development of these new methods to be found within the field of dress history and dress studies and assesses the current condition and future directions of the subject Salaula Karen Tranberg Hansen, 2000-08 When we donate our unwanted clothes to charity we rarely think about what will happen to them who will sort and sell them and finally who will revive and wear them In this fascinating look at the multibillion dollar secondhand clothing business Karen Tranberg Hansen takes us around the world from the West where clothing is donated through the salvage houses in North America and Europe where it is sorted and compressed to Africa in this case Zambia There it enters the dynamic world of Salaula a Bemba term that means to rummage through a pile Essential for the African economy the secondhand clothing business is wildly popular to the point of threatening the indigenous textile industry But Hansen shows wearing secondhand clothes is about much more than imitating Western styles It is about taking a garment and altering it to something entirely local something that adheres to current cultural norms of etiquette By unraveling how these garments become entangled in the economic political and cultural processes of contemporary Zambia Hansen also raises provocative questions about environmentalism charity recycling and thrift Design and Tradition in an India-West Africa Trade Textile Hazel Ann Lutz, 2003 Story Harold Scheub, 1998-10-01 What is the essence of story How does the storyteller convey meaning Leading scholar Harold Scheub tackles these questions and more demonstrating that the power of story lies in emotion While others have focused on the importance of structure in the art of story Scheub emphasizes emotion He shows how an expert storyteller uses structural elements image rhythm and narrative to shape a story's fundamental emotional content The storyteller uses traditional images repetition and linear narrative to move the audience past the story's surface of morals and ideas and make connections to their past present and future To guide the audience on this emotional journey is the storyteller's art The traditional stories from South African Xhosa and San cultures included in the book lend persuasive support to Scheub's These stories speak for themselves demonstrating that a skilled performer can stir emotions despite the obstacles of space time and culture
