Collecting Practices in the Modern Arab World Sonja Mejcher-Atassi,John Pedro Schwartz,2016-05-23 Collecting has a long tradition in the Middle East but the museum as a public institution is relatively new Today there are national museums for antiquities in most Arab countries While in some cases the political and social climate has hindered the foundation of museums with existing collections even destroyed at times the recent museum boom in the Gulf States is again changing the outlook This unique book is the first to explore collecting practices in archives and museums in the modern Arab world featuring case studies of collecting practices in countries ranging from Egypt and Lebanon to Palestine Jordan Iraq and the Gulf and providing a theoretical and methodological basis for future research The authors are also concerned with investigating the relationship between past and present since collecting practices tell us a great deal not only about the past but also about the ways we approach the past and present conceptions of our identities Collections can be textual as well as in the stories memories or events selected recalled and retold in the pages of a text As interest in memory studies as well as popular and visual culture grows in the Arab World so collecting practices are at the heart of any critical approach to the past and the present in that region The book will be of great interest not only to scholars and students of the modern Arab world but also to professionals in museums and collections in the region as well as around the world The Art Collector's

Handbook Ms Mary Rozell,2014-06-28 With the rapid and unprecedented global expansion of the art market new collectors are emerging every day When buying art whether for pure enjoyment for investment or some other motive few art collectors consider the practical and financial implications of owning and maintaining art and many do not have a plan for how they might eventually dispose of it This book probing a number of resources and incorporating advice from top experts in the field offers guidance on collection management and care and serves as an important reference guide for collectors and those charged with managing collections Interpreting Objects and Collections Susan Pearce,2012-10-12 This volume brings together for the first time the most significant papers on the interpretation of objects and collections and examines how people relate to material culture and why they collect things The first section of the book discusses the interpretation of objects setting the philosophical and historical context of object interpretation Papers are included which discuss objects variously as historical documents functioning material and as semiotic texts as well as those which examine the politics of objects and the methodology of object study The second section on the interpretation of collections looks at the study of collections in their historical and conceptual context Many topics are covered such as the study of collecting to structure individual identity its affect on time and space and the construction of gender There are also papers discussing collection and ideology collection and social action and the methodology of collection study This unique anthology of articles and extracts will be of inestimable value to all students and professionals involved in the interpretation of objects and collections

Collecting the New Bruce Altshuler, 2013-10-24 Collecting the New is the first book on the questions and challenges that museums face in acquiring and preserving contemporary art Because such art has not yet withstood the test of time it defies the traditional understanding of the art museum as an institution that collects and displays works of long established aesthetic and historical value By acquiring such art museums gamble on the future In addition new technologies and alternative conceptions of the artwork have created special problems of conservation while social political and aesthetic changes have generated new categories of works to be collected Following Bruce Altshuler's introduction on the European and American history of museum collecting of art by living artists the book comprises newly commissioned essays by twelve distinguished curators representing a wide range of museums First considered are general issues including the acquisition process and collecting by universal survey museums and museums that focus on modern and contemporary art Following are groups of essays that address collecting in particular media including prints and drawings new digital media and film and video and national and ethnic specific collecting contemporary art from Asia Africa and Latin America and African American art The closing essay examines the conservation problems created by contemporary works for example what is to be done when deterioration is the artist's intent The contributors are Christophe Cherix Vishakha N Desai Steve Dietz Howard N Fox Chrissie Iles and Henriette Huldish Pamela McClusky Gabriel P rez Barreiro Lowery Stokes Sims Robert Storr Jeffrey Weiss and Glenn Wharton

British Models of Art Collecting and the American Response Dr Inge Reist, 2014-10-28 This collection of fourteen essays by distinguished art and cultural historians examine points of similarity and difference in British and American art collecting Half the essays examine the trends that dominated the British art collecting scene of the nineteenth century Others focus on American collectors using biographical sketches and case studies to demonstrate how collectors in the United States embellished the British model to develop their own often philanthropic approach to art collecting

Re-envisioning the Contemporary Art Canon Ruth E Iskin, 2016-12-08 Re envisioning the Contemporary Art Canon Perspectives in a Global World seeks to dissect and interrogate the nature of the present day art field which has experienced dramatic shifts in the past 50 years In discussions of the canon of art history the notion of inclusiveness both at the level of rhetoric and as a desired practice is on the rise and gradually replacing talk of exclusion which dominated critiques of the canon up until two decades ago The art field has dramatically if insufficiently changed in the half century since the first protests and critiques of the exclusion of others from the art canon With increased globalization and shifting geopolitics the art field is expanding beyond its Euro American focus as is particularly evident in the large scale international biennales now held all over the globe Are canons and counter canons still relevant Can they be re envisioned rather than merely revised Following an introduction that discusses these issues thirteen newly commissioned essays present case studies of consecration in the contemporary art field and three commissioned discussions present diverse positions on issues of the canon and consecration processes today This volume will be of interest to instructors and students of contemporary art art history and museum and curatorial studies

The Making of a Modern Art World Pedith Pui Chan, 2017-03-06 The Making of A Modern Art World explores the artistic institutions and discursive practices prevailing in Republican Shanghai aiming to reconstruct the operational logic and the stratified hierarchy of Shanghai's art world Using guohua as the point of entry this book interrogates the discourse both of guohua itself and the wider discourse of Chinese modernism in the visual arts In the light of the sociological definition of art world this book contextualizes guohua through focusing on the modes of production and consumption of painting in Shanghai examining newly adopted modern artistic practices namely art associations periodicals art colleges exhibitions and the art market

New York Magazine, 1980-12-29 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea

Modern Art on Display K. Porter Aichele, 2016-05-19 Modern Art on Display The Legacies of Six Collectors is structured as a sequence of case studies that pair collectors of modern art with artists they particularly favored Duncan Phillips and Augustus Vincent Tack Albert Barnes and Chaim Soutine Albert Eugene Gallatin and Juan Gris Lillie Bliss and Paul C zanne Etta Cone and Henri Matisse G David Thompson and Paul Klee The case studies are linked by a thematic focus on the integral relationship between the collectors acquired knowledge about the work they amassed and their innovative display models This focus brings a new perspective to the history of collecting and interpreting modern art in America for nearly half a century 1915 1960 By examining the books the collectors themselves read and analyzing archival photographs of their displays the author makes a case for the historical significance of how the collectors presented the art they acquired before their collections were institutionalized

Women and the Art and Science of Collecting in Eighteenth-Century Europe Arlene Leis, Kacie L. Wills, 2020-08-31 Through both longer essays and shorter case studies this book examines the relationship of European women from various countries and backgrounds to collecting in order to explore the social practices and material and visual cultures of collecting in eighteenth century Europe It recovers their lives and examines their interests their methodologies and their collections and objects some of which have rarely been studied before The book also considers women s role as producers that is creators of objects that were collected Detailed examination of the artefacts both visually and in relation to their historical contexts exposes new ways of thinking about collecting in relation to the arts and sciences in eighteenth century Europe The book is interdisciplinary in its makeup and brings together scholars from a wide range of fields It will be of interest to those working in art history material and visual culture history of collecting history of science literary studies women s studies gender studies and art conservation American Photo ,1995-03 Institution & Innovation ,2020-12-07 Usually the term innovation is used in connection with artists and authors themes and techniques What we see in most studies about innovation is that its problematic aspects are related to problems in literary or artistic history and that scholars try to solve those problems in work oriented research Some scholars however especially emperical sociologists claim that problems with respect to innovation cannot be solved without analyzing the cultural area where those problems arise The major question that this book discusses concerns the role of art committees literary art and film critics art collectors museum directors academic writers and other gatekeepers with regard to different forms of art in the interbellum period as well as after World War II The Emergence of the Korean Art Collector and the Korean Art Market Charlotte Horlyck,2024-08-29 Articulating the shifting interests in Korean art and offering new ways of conceiving the biases that initiated and impacted its collecting this book traces the rise of the modern Korean art market from its formative period in the 1870s through to its peak and subsequent decline in the 1930s The discussion centres on the collecting of Kory celadon ceramics as they formed the focal point of commercial exchanges of Korean artefacts and explores how their acquisition and ownership formed part of the complex power relationship that played out between the Koreans Japanese Americans and Europeans Drawing on a wide range of primary sources the volume analyses collectors acquisition practices arguing that their fascination with ceramics from the Kory kingdom 918 1392 was shaped not only by the aesthetic appeal of the objects but also by biased perceptions of the Korean peninsula its history and people The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history social history cultural history Korean studies collection studies museum studies Korean history and Asian studies The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license Twenty-first-century Perspectives on Nineteenth-century Art Petra ten-Doesschate Chu,Laurinda S. Dixon,2008 This book presents an interdisciplinary and inclusive view of nineteenth century art observed from the vantage point of the new twenty first century The areas of expertise represented by the thirty essays herein span the full range of nineteenth century studies and include discussions of such artistic styles as realism impressionism romanticism and art nouveau as well as early twentieth century movements that owe their formative influence to the nineteenth century Topics span the historical gamut from revivalism to the roots of modernism considering along the way such themes as the depiction of women Orientalism art criticism evolutionary theory political propaganda history painting landscape and national identity Aspects of art display public monuments and international exhibitions shed light on the roles of government and individuals in the dissemination of artistic styles and subject matter Unique in this collection is an emphasis on the marketing of art both in America and abroad which considers the important financial and commercial issues that continue to influence viewers beliefs and perceptions Most important this book demonstrates that the rich field of nineteenth century studies continues to inspire discovery and creativity Publisher description Art Collecting and Gifts to Museums Paul van der Grijp,2024-12-06 Art Collecting and Gifts to Museums questions why private collectors donate their collection or parts of it to museums and examines what the implications of this gifting process might be Presenting case studies from Europe North America East Asia and the South Pacific this book is concerned with both elite and popular collections and examines the act of donating art from the collector s point of view Demonstrating that art museums depend on donations from private collectors Paul van der Grijp emphasizes that it is crucial to understand the psychological sociological economic and educational motivations for gifting works of art to institutions Taken together the chapters argue that collectors donate to museums because the latter represent an imagined community to whom those collectors would like to bestow a sacred gift Private collectors are Van der Grijp maintains motivated to ensure the immortality of their collections and ultimately to preserve some memory of their own lives in the process Art Collecting and Gifts to Museums will be of interest to researchers and students engaged in the study of museums culture art anthropology history and sociology

Artists' Things Katie Scott,Hannah Williams,2024-01-09 Histories of artists personal possessions shed new light on the lives of their owners Artists are makers of things Yet it is a measure of the disembodied manner in which we generally think about artists that we rarely consider the everyday items they own This innovative book looks at objects that once belonged to artists revealing not only the fabric of the eighteenth century art world in France but also unfamiliar and sometimes unexpected insights into the individuals who populated it including Jean Antoine Watteau Fran ois Boucher Jean Baptiste Greuze and Elisabeth Vig e LeBrun From the curious to the mundane from the useful to the symbolic these items have one thing in common they have all been eclipsed from historical view Some of the objects still exist like Jean Honor Fragonard s color box and Jacques Louis David s table Others survive only in paintings such as JeanSim on Chardin s cistern in his Copper Drinking Fountain or in documents like Fran ois Lemoyne s sword the instrument of his suicide Several were literally lost including pastelist Jean Baptiste Perronneau s pencil case In this fascinating book the authors engage with fundamental historical debates about production consumption and sociability through the lens of material goods owned by artists The free online edition of this open access publication is at www.getty.edu/publications/artists_things and includes zoomable illustrations Free PDF and EPUB downloads of the book are also available
