Art Of Literary Biography:

A Companion to Literary Biography Richard Bradford, 2018-11-28 An authoritative review of literary biography covering the seventeenth century to the twentieth century A Companion to Literary Biography offers a comprehensive account of literary biography spanning the history of the genre across three centuries The editor an esteemed literary biographer and noted expert in the field has encouraged contributors to explore the theoretical and methodological questions raised by the writing of biographies of writers The text examines how biographers have dealt with the lives of classic authors from Chaucer to contemporary figures such as Kingsley Amis The Companion brings a new perspective on how literary biography enables the reader to deal with the relationship between the writer and their work Literary biography is the most popular form of writing about writing yet it has been largely neglected in the academic community This volume bridges the gap between literary biography as a popular genre and its relevance for the academic study of literature This important work Allows the author of a biography to be treated as part of the process of interpretation and investigates biographical reading as an important aspect of criticism Examines the birth of literary biography at the close of the seventeenth century and considers its expansion through the eighteenth nineteenth and twentieth centuries Addresses the status and writing of literary biography from numerous perspectives and with regard to various sources methodologies and theories Reviews the ways in which literary biography has played a role in our perception of writers in the mainstream of the English canon from Chaucer to the present day Written for students at the undergraduate level through postgraduate and doctoral levels as well as academics A Companion to Literary Biography illustrates and accounts for the importance of the literary biography as a vital element of criticism and as an index to our perception of literary history

Art Into Life Frederick Robert Karl, 2005

The most important biographer of the twentieth century writes about his craft

Towards a Poetics of Literary

Biography Michael Benton, 2015-09-01 Drawing upon a wide range of biographies of literary subjects from Shakespeare and Wordsworth to William Golding and V S Naipaul this book develops a poetics of literary biography based on the triangular relationships of lives works and times and how narrative operates in holding them together Biography is seen as a hybrid genre in which historical and fictional elements are imaginatively combined It considers the roles of story telling factual data in the art of life writing and the literariness of its language It includes a case study of the biography of Ellen Terry discussion of the controversial relationship between a subject's life and works biographical criticism and through the issue of gender the social and cultural changes biographies reflect It frames a poetics on the basis of its strategy and tactics and demonstrates how the literal truth of verifiable data and the poetic truth of what is narrated are interdependent

Below the surface however Soviet children's literature and culture allowed its creators greater experimental and creative freedom than did the socialist realist culture for adults. This volume explores the importance of children's culture from literature to comics to theater to film in the formation of Soviet social identity and in connection with broader Russian culture history and society The Canada Law Journal, 1886 Biography and the Question of Literature in France Ann Jefferson, 2007-01-04 Containing critical readings of some major French authors in the light of the evolving relations between biography and literature this book offers a history of French literature over a 300 year period and also a discussion of biography its forms history and functions The Unitarian Review, 1884 Harper's New Monthly Magazine Henry Mills Alden, 1870 Harper's informs a diverse body of readers of cultural business political literary and scientific affairs The American Law Register, 1885 The Church Review, 1885 Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress. Cataloging Policy and Support Office, 2007 Essays in Arabic Literary Biography: 1850-1950 Roger Allen, Terri DeYoung, Joseph Edmund Lowry, Devin J. Stewart, 2009 The essays which discuss authors in a variety of literary genres and across the spectrum of the region concerned from Iraq in the East to Tunisia in the West provide clear evidence of the gradually changing roles of the indigenous and the imported which are an intrinsic feature of the movement known in Arabic as al bahada cultural revival and the way in which Arab litterateurs chose to respond to the inspiration that such changes inevitably engendered Biography Charles Knight, 1867 The English Cyclopaedia: Cyclopaedia of arts and sciences Charles Knight, 1861 The Living Age, 1884 Athenaeum and Literary Chronicle, 1838 The Art of Religion Maarten Delbeke, 2016-04-01 Bernini and Pallavicino the artist and the Jesuit cardinal are closely related figures at the papal courts of Urban VIII and Alexander VII at which Bernini was the principal artist. The analysis of Pallavicino's writings offers a new perspective on Bernini's art and artistry and allow us to understand the visual arts in papal Rome as a making manifest of the fundamental truths of faith. Pallavicino's views on art and its effects differ fundamentally from the perspective developed in Bernini's biographies offering a perspective on the tension between artist and patron work and message. In Pallavicino's writings the visual arts emerge as being intrinsically bound up with the very core of religion involving questions of idolatry mimesis and illusionism that would prove central to the aesthetic debates of the eighteenth century.
