Challenges of Modern Educational Strategies Through the Prism of the Teacher Jerneja Herzog, The scientific monograph entitled Challenges of Modern Educational Strategies Through the Prism of the Teacher explores contemporary trends in education and beyond. It highlights the teacher's crucial role in the educational process offering an insightful in depth and scholarly analysis. While concerns about the future of teaching in an era dominated by artificial intelligence are valid, this work reaffirms that teachers remain indispensable. Raising public awareness of this issue is essential and perhaps over time teachers will reclaim their rightful social significance. Let this monograph serve as a first step in that direction.

Resources in Education, 1999-04 Teachers Who Teach Teachers Tom Russell, Fred Korthagen, 2013-09-13 This is a reflection on the education of teachers written by teacher educators who discuss features of their work and the challenges facing teacher education in the 1990s. The book invites the reader to attempt similar analyses of personal practice and development in their own teaching. The book deals with the personal development of both new and experienced teacher educators illustrating how strongly teacher educators are influenced by their visions and by the challenge to prove themselves in the university setting. In addition, the book examines the ways in which teacher educators have acted to promote their own professional development and study their own practices including writing as a tool for reflection, a life history approach to self study as well as a study of educative relationships with others and the analysis of a personal return to the classroom. Finally, it takes a broader look at the professional development of teacher educators and offers a challenge to all teacher educators to consider the tension between rigour and relevance. Educational Research Document
