Art And Anthropology Directions In Theory And Research:

Changing Perspectives in Anthropology of Art Valda Blundell, 2000-08-11 Rather than reflecting ideas originating elsewhere in the social world the book maintains that art contributes to the way in which the social world is structured experienced and reproduced

The Anthropology of Art Howard Morphy, Morgan Perkins, 2009-02-04 This anthology provides a single volume overview of the essential theoretical debates in the anthropology of art Drawing together significant work in the field from the second half of the twentieth century it enables readers to appreciate the art of different cultures at different times Advances a cross cultural concept of art that moves beyond traditional distinctions between Western and non Western art Provides the basis for the appreciation of art of different cultures and times Enhances readers appreciation of the aesthetics of art and of the important role it plays in human society

International Handbook of Research in Arts Education Liora Bresler, 2007-09-04 Providing a distillation of knowledge in the various disciplines of arts education dance drama music literature and poetry and visual arts the Handbook synthesizes existing research literature helps define the past and contributes to shaping the substantive and methodological future of the respective and integrated disciplines of arts education While research can at times seem distant from practice the Handbook aims to maintain connection with the lived practice of art and of education capturing the vibrancy and best thinking in the field of theory and practice The Handbook is organized into 13 sections each centering on a major area or issue in arts education research These areas include History of arts education curriculum evaluation cultural centers appreciation composition informal learning child culture creativity the body spirituality and technology The individual chapters address cross cultural research related to the central theme of the section from the perspectives of the particular arts discipline Interludes provide reflective thoughts on the theme

The Oxford Handbook of the Archaeology and Anthropology of Rock Art Bruno David, Ian J. McNiven, 2018 Rock art is one of the most visible and geographically widespread of cultural expressions and it spans much of the period of our species existence Rock art also provides rare and often unique insights into the minds and visually creative capacities of our ancestors and how selected rock outcrops with distinctive images were used to construct symbolic landscapes and shape worldviews Equally important rock art is often central to the expression of and engagement with spiritual entities and forces and in all these dimensions it signals the diversity of cultural practices across place and through time Over the past 150 years archaeologists have studied ancient arts on rock surfaces both out in the open and within caves and rock shelters and social anthropologists have revealed how people today use art in their daily lives The Oxford Handbook of the Archaeology and Anthropology of Rock Art showcases examples of such research from around the world and across a broad range of cultural contexts giving a sense of the art's regional variability its antiquity and how it is meaningful to people in the recent past and today including how we have ourselves tended to make sense of the art of others replete with our own preconceptions It reviews past present and emerging theoretical approaches to rock art investigation and presents new cutting edge methods of rock art analysis for the student and professional researcher alike Art History and Anthropology Peter Probst, Joseph Imorde, 2023-12-12 An in depth and nuanced look at the complex relationship between two dynamic fields of study While today we are experiencing a revival of world art and the so called global turn of art history encounters between art historians and anthropologists remain rare Even after a century and a half of interactions between these epistemologies a skeptical distance prevails with respect to the disciplinary other This volume is a timely exploration of the roots of this complex dialogue as it emerged worldwide in the colonial and early postcolonial periods between 1870 and 1970 Exploring case studies from Australia Austria Brazil France Germany and the United States this volume addresses connections and rejections between art historians and anthropologists often in the contested arena of primitive art It examines the roles of a range of figures including the art historian anthropologist Aby Warburg the modernist artist Tarsila do Amaral the curator impresario Leo Frobenius and museum directors such as Alfred Barr and Ren d Harnoncourt Entering the current debates on decolonizing the past this collection of essays prompts reflection on future relations between these two fields Alternative Art and Anthropology Arnd Schneider, 2017-02-23 While the importance of the relationship between anthropology and contemporary art has long been recognized the discussion has tended to be among scholars from North America Europe and Australia until now scholarship and experiences from other regions have been largely absent from mainstream debate Alternative Art and Anthropology Global Encounters rectifies this by offering a ground breaking new approach to the subject Entirely dedicated to perspectives from Asia Latin America and Africa the book advances our understanding of the connections between anthropology and contemporary art on a global scale Across ten chapters a range of anthropologists artists and curators from countries such as China Japan Indonesia Bhutan Nigeria Chile Ecuador and the Philippines discuss encounters between anthropology and contemporary art from their points of view presenting readers with new vantage points and perspectives Arnd Schneider a leading scholar in the field draws together the various threads to provide readers with a clear conceptual and theoretical narrative The first to map the relationship between anthropology and contemporary art from a global perspective this is a key text for students and academics in areas such as anthropology visual anthropology anthropology of art art history and curatorial studies Liang Shaoji's Silkworm Art Feixuan Xu, 2025-05-23 This book focuses on the work of Chinese contemporary artist Liang Shaoji and emphasises the contribution of multispecies ethnography to art criticism Over three decades Liang has worked with domestic silkworms to craft art that embodies the Daoism inspired ecological motif of ziran Are silkworms co authors or alienated fabricators in such creative practice Based on a multi sited ethnographic study conducted in China the book delves into Liang s artistic techniques involving close collaboration with silkworm farmers and biologists In doing so it makes a significant contribution to discussions of non human agency and labour The author unveils the intricate power dynamics between silkworms and their caretakers revealing multi sensory knowledge anthropomorphic kinship and moral dilemmas inherent in working with these insects This volume will be of particular interest to scholars working in the anthropology of art human animal studies and environmental humanities The Study of the Ancient Near East in the Twenty-first Century Jerrold S. Cooper, Glenn M. Schwartz, 1996 Sixteen essays from the Albright conference held at the Johns Hopkins University charting the course of ancient Near Eastern studies in the twenty first century This landmark volume is essential reading for both students and scholars Anthropology in Theory Henrietta L. Moore, Todd Sanders, 2014-01-28 This second edition of the widely praised Anthropology in Theory Issues in Epistemology features a variety of updates revisions and new readings in its comprehensive presentation of issues in the history of anthropological theory and epistemology over the past century Provides a comprehensive selection of 60 readings and an insightful overview of the evolution of anthropological theory Revised and updated to reflect an on going strength and diversity of the discipline in recent years with new readings pointing to innovative directions in the development of anthropological research Identifies crucial concepts that reflect the practice of engaging with theory particular ways of thinking analyzing and reflecting that are unique to anthropology Includes excerpts of seminal anthropological works key classic and contemporary debates in the discipline and cutting edge new theorizing Reveals broader debates in the social sciences including the relationship between society and culture language and cultural meanings structure and agency identities and technologies subjectivities and trans locality and meta theory ontology and epistemology The Trouble With Art Roger Sansi, Jonas Tinius, 2024-10-31 Art troubles anthropology Anthropologists have often taken a philistine sceptical position of distance towards art and aesthetics as a predominantly Western bourgeois institution But art not only as a Western institution generated its own philistine and iconoclastic revisions and undoings its anti art that have engaged anthropology into its theory and practice Anthropology is thus part of the trouble with art But trouble doesn't necessarily obfuscate it can also reveal and render visible fault lines and problems troubles can be assemblages of disparate and even contradictory parts that paradoxically do work together This volume proposes an anthropology that moves beyond philistinism and the contradictions between critical anthropologies of art and collaborative and experimental anthropologies with art American Anthropology in Micronesia Robert C. Kiste, Mac Marshall, 1999-01-01 American Anthropology in Micronesia An Assessment evaluates how anthropological research in the Trust Territory has affected the Micronesian people the U S colonial administration and the discipline of anthropology itself Contributors analyze the interplay between anthropology and history in particular how American colonialism affected anthropologists use of history and examine the research that has been conducted by American anthropologists in specific topical areas of socio cultural anthropology Although concentrating largely on disciplinary concerns the authors consider the connections between work done in the era of applied anthropology and that completed later when anthropology was pursued mainly for its own sake The focus then returns to applied concerns in more recent years and issues pertaining to the relevance of anthropology for the world of practical affairs It will be of essential interest to students and scholars of Pacific Islands studies and the history of anthropology Embodied Curriculum Theory and Research in Arts Education Susan W. Stinson, 2015-10-26 This collection of articles by Susan W Stinson organized thematically and chronologically by the author reveals the evolution of the field of arts education in general and dance education in particular through narrative and critical reflections by this unique scholar and a few co authors It also includes contextual insights not available elsewhere The author s pioneering embodied research work in arts and dance education continues to be relevant to researchers today The selected chapters and articles were predominantly previously published in a variety of journals conference proceedings and books between 1985 and the present Each section is preceded by an introduction and the author has written a post scriptum for each article to offer a commentary or response to the article from the current perspective Between Art and Anthropology Arnd Schneider, Christopher Wright, 2021-08-05 Between Art and Anthropology provides new and challenging arguments for considering contemporary art and anthropology in terms of fieldwork practice Artists and anthropologists share a set of common practices that raise similar ethical issues which the authors explore in depth for the first time The book presents a strong argument for encouraging artists and anthropologists to learn directly from each other s practices in the field It goes beyond the so called ethnographic turn of much contemporary art and the crisis of representation in anthropology in productively exploring the implications of the new anthropology of the senses and ethical issues for future art anthropology collaborations The contributors to this exciting volume consider the work of artists such as Joseph Beuys Suzanne Lacy Marcus Coates Cameron Jamie and Mohini Chandra With cutting edge essays from a range of key thinkers such as acclaimed art critic Lucy R Lippard and distinguished anthropologists George E Marcus and Steve Feld Between Art and Anthropology will be essential reading for students artists and scholars across a number of fields Resources in Education , 1997 Practical Theology Beyond the Empirical Turn Heather Walton, 2025-07-31 Practical Theology Beyond the Empirical Turn offers a sustained critical interrogation of the turn towards social research and methodologies in Practical Theology which has transformed the discipline over the past forty years It places the discipline s current research practices within the context of wider theoretical and methodological developments and the climate disaster The work maintains that current circumstances require a radical reassessment of the goals and processes of practical theological research and that artistic and creative methods must be part of this transformation Heather Walton embodies her understanding of the vocation of the discipline in reflective and creative modes of expression This work is essential reading for all those researching writing or teaching Practical Theology today
