Asymmetric Ecologies in Europe and South America around 1800 Susanne Schlünder,Rolando M. Carrasco,2022-08-01 This volume proposes new ways of understanding the historical semantics of the relationship between humans and nature in South America in the eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries The authors in this volume use the notion of asymmetry to discuss the representations of and forms of knowledge about nature circulating in and about colonial and postcolonial South

America They argue that the production of knowledge about the American natural space widened the power gap between the Europeans colonizers and the local population This gap therefore rests on what we call asymmetric ecologies Eurocentric epistemic orders excluded forms of indigenous mestizo and Creole knowledge about nature By looking at literary as well as non literary sources such as natural histories travel narratives encyclopaedias or medical writing the essays in this volume trace the origins of new theoretical paradigms ecocriticism biopolitics transarea studies etc and examine the regional cultural identity and epistemic conflicts that undercut the Eurocentric narrative of enlightened modernity Joseph Brodsky and Modern Russian Culture, 2024-09-23 This volume is a major contribution to the study of the life work and standing of Joseph Brodsky 1987 Nobel Prize Laureate and the best known Russian poet of the second half of the twentieth century This is the most significant book devoted to him in the last 25 years and features work by many of the leading experts on him both in Russia and the West Every one of the chapters makes a real contribution to different aspects of Brodsky the growth of interest in his work his world view and political position and the unique aspects of his poetics Taken together the sixteen chapters offer a rounded interpretation of his significance for Russian culture today European Studies in Asia Georg Wiessala, 2014-03-21 As countries across Asia continue to rise and become more assertive global powers the role that Higher Education has played and continues to play in this process is an issue of growing pertinence Furthermore understanding the relationship between Europe and Asia fostered by historical and contemporary knowledge transfer including Higher Education is crucial to analysing and encouraging the progress of both regional integration and inter regional cooperation With a specific focus on international Higher Education European Studies in Asia investigates knowledge transfer and channels of learning between Europe and Asia from historical contemporary and teaching perspectives The book examines a selection of significant historical precedents of intellectual dialogue between the two regions and in turn explores contemporary cross regional discourses both inside and outside of the official frameworks of the European Union EU and the Asia Europe Meetings ASEM Drawing on extensive case studies based on many of his own teaching experiences Georg Wiessala addresses key questions such as the nature and construction of the European Studies in Asia curriculum aspects of values co constructed learning and adult pedagogy in the discipline of European Studies in Asia the politics of Asian host cultures the internationalization of Asian Higher Education and the experiences and expectations of tertiary sector students of this subject in Asia Australia and New Zealand In doing so the author articulates a range of outcomes for the further development of Higher Education cooperation agendas between Asia and Europe in the discipline of European Studies and in related fields such as International Relations This case study led book makes an original and novel contribution to our understanding of European Studies in Asia As such it will be of great interest to students and scholars of Asian Education Comparative Education European Studies and International Relations We are All Africans Here Kristín Loftsdóttir, 2021-12-10 Europe is often described as flooded by migrants or by Muslim others with Western African men especially portrayed as a security risk At the same time the intensified mobility of privileged people in the Global North is celebrated as creating an increasingly cosmopolitan world This book looks critically at racialization of mobility in Europe anchoring the discussion in the aspiration of precarious migrants from Niger in Belgium and Italy The book contextualizes their experiences within the ongoing securitization of mobility in their home country and the persistent denial of racism and colonialism that seeks to portray the innocence of Europe
