Art Of Good Cooking:

Art of Good Cooking Paula Peck, 1966 Art Good Cooking Paula peck, 1966-12-01 The Thorough Good Cook George Augustus Sala, 1896 Paula Peck's Art of Good Cooking Paula Peck, 1966 Mastering the Art of French Cooking, Volume 1 Julia Child, Louisette Bertholle, Simone Beck, 2011-10-05 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER The definitive cookbook on French cuisine for American readers What a cookbook should be packed with sumptuous recipes detailed instructions and precise line drawings Some of the instructions look daunting but as Child herself says in the introduction If you can read you can cook Entertainment Weekly I only wish that I had written it myself James Beard Featuring 524 delicious recipes and over 100 instructive illustrations to guide readers every step of the way Mastering the Art of French Cooking offers something for everyone from seasoned experts to beginners who love good food and long to reproduce the savory delights of French cuisine Julia Child Simone Beck and Louisette Bertholle break down the classic foods of France into a logical sequence of themes and variations rather than presenting an endless and diffuse catalogue of dishes from historic Gallic masterpieces to the seemingly artless perfection of a dish of spring green peas Throughout the focus is on key recipes that form the backbone of French cookery and lend themselves to an infinite number of elaborations bound to increase anyone's culinary repertoire Julia has slowly but surely altered our way of thinking about food She has taken the fear out of the term haute cuisine She has increased gastronomic awareness a thousandfold by stressing the importance of good foundation and technique and she has elevated our consciousness to the refined pleasures of dining Thomas Keller The French Laundry The Thorough Good Cook George Augustus Sala, 2015-07-09 Excerpt from The Thorough Good Cook A Series of Chats on the Culinary Art and Nine Hundred Recipes Every one of the Recipes in this work has been carefully studied and tested from personal experience and compared with cognate formulas in the culinary manuals of such eminent authorities as Laguiere Beauvilliers Ude Careme Soyer Franeatelli Urbain Dubois Jules Gouffe Kettner Chandelier Napoleon's last chef at St Helena Garlin Suzanne and Durand together with the English experts Hunter Kitchiner Brand Simpson and Dolby A lady to whom I once mentioned that I had tried practically all the dishes which I have enumerated in the following pages observed with a smile half of incredulity and half of disdainful compassion that it was a wonder I had not died of apoplexy years ago and should such a contingency suggest itself to the minds of my readers I may respectfully inform them that my study of the Art of Cookery extends over a period of fifty five years and that ever since I was a boy I have been not only theoretically but practically a cook In a work of mine called Things I have Seen and People I have Known I incidentally remarked that my dear mother had all her children taught systematically to cook as an integral part of their education and that although from the circumstance of my having been a delicate child I was absolved from the ruder labours of roasting boiling and baking I was early initiated into the mysteries of preparing soups entrees sauces and sweets Further I may just hint that although I fully appreciate the attributes of a gourmet I certainly do not wish to claim the status of a gourmand About the Publisher Forgotten Books
