The Art of Making Sense Virginia French Allen, Lionel Ruby, 1985 The Art of Making Sense Lionel Ruby, Robert E. Yarber, 1974-01-01 Making sense of art history The Open University, This 5 hour free course explored the power of images in contemporary art from the 1980s onwards and what the artists might have been trying to say Making Sense Ralf Hertel, 2021-07-26 Fiction is fascinating All it provides us with is black letters on white pages yet while we read we do not have the impression that we are merely perceiving abstract characters Instead we see the protagonists before our inner eye and hear their voices Descriptions of sumptuous meals make our mouths water we feel physically repelled by depictions of violence or are aroused by the erotic details of sexual conquests We submerge ourselves in the fictional world that no longer stays on the paper but comes to life in our imagination Reading turns into an out of the body experience or rather an in another body experience for we perceive the portrayed world not only through the protagonist's eyes but also through his ears nose tongue and skin In other words we move through the literary text as if through a virtual reality How does literature achieve this trick How does it turn mere letters into vividly experienced worlds This study argues that techniques of sensuous writing contribute decisively to bringing the text to life in the reader's imagination In detailed interpretations of British novels of the 1980s and 1990s by writers such as John Berger John Banville Salman Rushdie Jeanette Winterson or J M Coetzee it uncovers literary strategies for turning the sensuous experience into words and for conveying it to the reader demonstrating how we make sense in and of literature Both readers interested in the contemporary novel and in the sensuousness of the reading experience will profit from this innovative study that not only analyses the interest of contemporary authors in the senses but also pin points literary entry points for the sensuous force of reading Seeking Meaning and Making Sense John Haldane, 2017-03-06 Collection of short essays that range across philosophy politics general culture morality science religion and art focusing on questions of meaning value and understanding Making Sense, Making Worlds Nicholas Onuf, 2013-05-07 Nicholas Onuf is a leading scholar in international relations and introduced constructivism to international relations coining the term constructivism in his book World of Our Making 1989 He was featured as one of twelve scholars featured in Iver B Neumann and Ole W ver eds The Future of International Relations Masters in the Making 1996 and featured in Martin Griffiths Steven C Roach and M Scott Solomon Fifty Key Thinkers in International Relations 2nd ed 2009 This powerful collection of essays clarifies Onuf's approach to international relations and makes a decisive contribution to the debates in IR concerning theory It embeds the theoretical project in the wider horizon of how we understand ourselves and the world Onuf updates earlier themes and his general constructivist approach and develops some newer lines of research such as the work on metaphors and the re grounding in much more Aristotle than before A complement to the author's groundbreaking book of 1989 World of Our Making this tightly argued book draws extensively from philosophy and social theory to advance constructivism in International Relations Making Sense Making
