The Art Instinct Denis Dutton, 2009 The Dinka have a connoisseurs appreciation of the patterns and colours of the markings on their cattle The Japanese tea ceremony is regarded as a performance art Some cultures produce carving but no drawing others specialize in poetry Yet despite the rich variety of artistic expression to be found across many cultures we all share a deep sense of aesthetic pleasure The need to create art of some form is found in every human society In The Art Instinct Denis Dutton explores the idea that this need has an evolutionary basis how the feelings that we all share when we see a wonderful landscape or a beautiful sunset evolved as a useful adaptation in our hunter gather ancestors and have been passed on to us today manifest in our artistic natures Why do people indulge in displaying their artistic skills How can we understand artistic genius Why do we value art and what is it for These questions have long been asked by scholars in the humanities and in literature but this is the first book to consider the biological basis of this deep human need This sparking and intelligent book looks at these deep and fundamental questions and combines the science of evolutionary psychology with aesthetics to shed new light on longstanding questions about the nature of art

The Signifying Eye Candace Waid, 2013-07-01 A bold book built of close readings striking in its range and depth The Signifying Eye shows Faulkner's art take shape in sweeping arcs of social labor and aesthetic history Beginning with long unpublished works his childhood sketches and his hand drawn and hand illustrated play The Marionettes and early novels Mosquitoes and Sartoris working through many major works The Sound and the Fury As I Lay Dying Sanctuary Light in August and Absalom Absalom and including more popular fictions The Wild Palms and The Unvanquished and late novels notably Intruder in the Dust and The Town The Signifying Eye reveals Faulkner's visual obsessions with artistic creation as his work is read next to Wharton Cather Toomer and in a tour de force intervention Willem de Kooning After coloring in southern literature as a reverse slave narrative Waid's Eye locates Faulkner's fiction as the feminist hinge in a crucial parable of art that seeks abstraction through the burial of the race defined mother Race is seen through gender and sexuality while social fall is exposed in Waid's phrase as a coloring of class. Locating visual language that constitutes a pictorial vocabulary, The Signifying Eye delights in literacy as the oral meets the written and the abstract opens as a site to see narrative. Steeped in history, this book locates a heightened reality that goes beyond representation to bring Faulkner's novels, stories, and drawings into visible form through Whistler, Beardsley, Gorky, and de Kooning. Visionary and revisionist, Waid has painted the proverbial big picture, changing the fundamental way that both the making of modernism and the avant-garde will be seen. A Friends Fund publication.
