Art papou ,2000 Art and Performance in Oceania Barry Craig,Bernie Kernot,Christopher Anderson,1999-12-01
The Fifth International Symposium of the Pacific Arts Association titled Art Performance and Society called for papers in sessions dealing with Production and Performance Social and Cultural Context The Record and the Remainder and The Mission of Museums In all some sixty papers were presented twenty four of which have been included in this book The first two topics elicited several papers that explored the creative process including the description and analysis of performance and the taxonomy of objects used the transmission of cultural knowledge and the identity and work of individual artists The second two topics provided the opportunity for papers on some significant early museum collectors and collections various methods of documenting cultural material such as photography how cultural material has been and can be exhibited and the role of museums and cultural centers in Pacific Island countries L'art des Papous et des Austronésiens de Nouvelle-Guinée Alain Nicolas,2000 Apr s une pr sentation des collections du mus e des Arts africains oc aniens et am rindiens de Marseille et un aper u historique de la M lan sie et plus sp cifiquement de la Nouvelle Guin e cet ouvrage propose une introduction l univers complexe des Papous travers ses trois principales sources d inspiration les anc tres la femme et la guerre Expositon Marseille d but 2000 Ya Gotta Have Art! Zachary Morfogen,2006 His memoir is engaging energetic and fast paced a whirlwind trip though the arts with many of today s most well known cultural and business leaders The World of Tribal Arts ,1997 The Brush and the Pen Dario Gamboni,2011 French symbolist artist Odilon Redon 1840 1916 seemed to thrive at the intersection of literature and art Known as the painter writer he drew on the works of Poe Baudelaire Flaubert and Mallarm for his subject matter And yet he concluded that visual art has nothing to do with literature Examining this apparent contradiction The Brush and the Pen transforms the way we understand Redon s career and brings to life the interaction between writers and artists in fin de si cle Paris Dario Gamboni tracks Redon s evolution from collaboration with the writers of symbolism and decadence to a defense of the autonomy of the visual arts He argues that Redon s conversion was the symptom of a mounting crisis in the relationship between artists and writers provoked at the turn of the century by the growing power of art criticism that foreshadowed the modernist separation of the arts into intractable fields In addition to being a distinguished study of this provocative artist The Brush and the Pen offers a critical reappraisal of the interaction of art writing criticism and government institutions in late nineteenth century France Catalog of the Robert Goldwater Library, the Metropolitan Museum of Art Robert Goldwater Library,1982 Savage Tales Linda Goddard,2019-09-03 An original study of Gauguin s writings unfolding their central role in his artistic practice and negotiation of colonial identity As a French artist who lived in Polynesia Paul Gauguin 1848 1903 occupies a crucial position in histories of European primitivism This is the first book devoted to his wide ranging literary output which included journalism travel writing art criticism and essays on aesthetics religion and politics It analyzes his original manuscripts some of which are richly illustrated reinstating them as an integral component of his art The seemingly haphazard collage like structure of Gauguin s manuscripts enabled him to evoke the primitive culture that he celebrated while rejecting the style of establishment critics Gauguin s writing was also a strategy for articulating a position on the margins of both the colonial and the indigenous communities in Polynesia he sought to protect Polynesian society from civilization but remained implicated in the imperialist culture that he denounced This critical analysis of his writings significantly enriches our understanding of the complexities of artistic encounters in the French colonial context Publisher s description

From the South Seas Michael Gunn,William Teel,2006 From New Guinea to New Zealand Easter Island to Hawaii the Pacific region known as Oceania has long excited the Western imagination but its traditional sculptures pots and paintings have only recently been studied and appreciated as fine art While much about these works and the cultures that produced them remains mysterious we do know that most items were created for use in daily life rather than as products for the art market Nonetheless their beauty and craftsmanship elevate the best of them to objects of contemplation and wonder This catalogue presents some 80 Oceanic works of art each illustrated with its form and function described Michael Gunn s introduction places the works in context Christraud Geary discusses provenance and contextual photographs throughout show many of the objects in situ aiding in a growing understanding of these intriguing but still elusive works and adding to the scholarship on and interest in Oceania

Kamoro Art Jan Pouwer,2003 This book celebrates the long neglected art of the Kamoro a people living along the southwest coast of Papua Traditional Kamoro culture was characterized by an almost uninterrupted series of feasts and ceremonies Some of these feasts are still celebrated today Woodcarvings made in a distinct style play an essential part in the proceedings For the first time a selection of major pieces from the collection of the Rijksmuseum voor Volkenkunde augmented by rare objects from other museums in The Netherlands has been brought together Many of the objects some collected as early as 1828 are unique Recently collected woodcarvings show the versatility of the Kamoro in continuing the tradition while adding innovation changes to their repertoire This book edited by Dirk Smidt includes a substantial essay by Jan Pouwer on major ceremonial feasts and contributions by other experts in the field including Todd Harple Karen Jacobs Methodius Mamapuku and Hein A van der Schoot
