Artful Creation:

Creation's Beauty as Revelation L. Clifton Edwards, 2014-03-05 With an interdisciplinary approach Edwards utilizes literature aesthetics world religions and continental philosophy as avenues into the theology of natural beauty This is an epistemological look at our aesthetically charged knowing of God through nature Emphasizing our embodied experience of the world Edwards examines the phenomenon of perceptual beauty while questioning traditional notions of God's metaphysical beauty Drawing upon Michael Polanyi's philosophy of science Edwards explores the human aesthetic and religious interface with the natural world This philosophical approach is then linked to the poetic Polanyi's tacit knowledge and Jean Luc Marion's saturated phenomena give support to Wordsworth's pregnant vision of the natural world This approach culminates in a re-envisioning of John Ruskin's typology of natural beauty Ruskin's vision of the world can be adapted toward an understanding of natural revelation Edwards brings this Romantic theology back across the Atlantic in dialogue with American nature writers and the uniquely American experience of wilderness and frontier

The Value of Arts for Business Giovanni Schiuma, 2011-05-19 The traditional view of the relationship between business and the arts is very much a one-way affair organisations may endorse fund or publicise the arts but the arts have nothing to offer from a business perspective The Value of Arts for Business challenges this view by showing how the arts in the form of Arts based Initiatives ABIs can be used to enhance value creation capacity and boost business performance The book introduces and explains three models that show how organisations can successfully implement and manage ABIs Firstly the Arts Value Matrix enables managers to see how organisational value drivers are affected by ABIs Secondly the Arts Benefits Constellation shows how to assess the benefits of using ABIs Finally the Arts Value Map shows how ABIs can be integrated and aligned with organisational strategy and operations These models lay the foundations for a new research area exploring the links between arts and business

Artful Creation Lotte Darsø, 2004 This is about social innovation and organisational transformation through the Arts It presents live artists working in business settings as catalysts for change The book primarily proposes two approaches for Arts in Business 1 The Arts applied as an instrument for teambuilding communication training leadership development problem solving and innovation 2 The Arts integrated as a strategic process of organisational transformation The message of the book is not to promote a new magical instrument a new quick fix for business It is an attempt to show the great potential of Artful Creation and at the same time point out that the birth of a new paradigm offers promising prospects for the future of business and society The book offers ground breaking ideas new methods inspiration and concrete recommendations

Major, Richard Peregoy, 2023-04-10 Honing Self Awareness of Faculty and Future Business Leaders emphasizes self awareness and management of emotions as a strong differentiator for generating student engagement well being and performance in complex and ambiguous societal and economic VUCA environments Handbook of Management and Creativity Chris Bilton, Stephen Cummings, 2014-01-01 In many organisations creativity is so often seen as the preserve of a small number of people with artistic temperaments but in my experience all sorts of people have creative abilities which can be used to the benefit of a creative organisation The task of a manager is to find ways of exploiting this This Handbook provides the reader with insights to help them and others to promote the kind of creativity that adds real value Greg Dyke Chair British Film Institute Chair Football Association Chancellor University of York UK and Director General of the BBC 2000 2004 Creativity and the Contemporary Economy Niina Koivunen, Alf Rehn, 2009 Creativity has become a central concept in trying to understand the contemporary economy It is a universally accepted strategic asset and a key issue in developing economic policy But at the same time this lauding of the creative economy raises many questions What can creativity really do for us What challenges does it pose for the management and organization of companies And in an age when everyone tries to be creative what does the concept even mean This book deals with these issues and is an engagement with the manifold ways in which creativity emerges as energy and functions as an organizing principle in modern organizations The book presents a wide variety of approaches to understanding one of the most critical and exciting issues in modern management with sections dedicated to the organization of innovation and creativity leadership and management in creative endeavors as well as creativity and organization change

Handbook of Philosophy of Management Cristina Neesham, Markus Reihlen, Dennis Schoeneborn, 2022-12-01 The Handbook of Philosophy of Management addresses the philosophical foundations of management in theory and practice It covers established branches of philosophy such as aesthetics epistemology moral philosophy political and social philosophy philosophy of education philosophy of practice and philosophy of science The Handbook's broad scope maps out the field and provides a forum where philosophy can be meaningfully applied to the study of management in all its forms The original peer reviewed research published here sheds new light on the complexities of management theory and practice beyond what hitherto has been possible with the sole application of the social sciences As philosophy provides a meta framework for moving beyond paradigm fragmentation within management research and education this allows researchers and practitioners to find harmony and discord in the perspectives revealed by a philosophical lens Compositional Strategy of the Book of Judges Gregory Wong, 2006-10-01 This volume represents an inductive literary rhetorical analysis of the book of Judges to determine whether recent synchronic approaches that read the book as an integrated whole are indeed justified As possible rhetorical links connecting Judges prologue 1 1 2 5 epilogue 17 1 21 25 and central section 2 6 16 31 are examined in detail and the implications of such links carefully considered the author concludes that contrary to the consensus view that sees the central section of Judges as a part of Deuteronomistic History and the prologue and epilogue as later additions the book in its current form may have been a unified composition of a single creative author If so not only does this have significant implications for the validity of the Deuteronomistic History Hypothesis a new possibility also emerges which sees the interpretive key to the book as residing in the prologue and epilogue rather than the central section

Grounded in the Body, in Time and Place, in Scripture Jill Firth, Denise Cooper-Clarke, 2021-02-01 In my bibliographies there are no women in the evangelical tradition and no Australian women scholars This unique volume addresses this gap with eighteen biblically rich and academically rigorous chapters by established and emerging Australian women scholars in the evangelical tradition The authors consider our relationship with the land and Indigenous peoples neighborhood embodiment disability abortion leadership work architecture the media Song of Songs and domestic violence and Jeremiah and weaponized rape and demonstrate recent methodologies such as a social identity reading of Exodus sensory readings of Psalms and John's Gospel and discipleship readings of Mary and Martha and the woman at the well A contemporary Kriol psalm and stories of pioneering Australian women theological students and teachers complete the volume

Valuable for students and teachers across Bible theology ministry and practice subjects this book is an essential inclusion in any theological library
