Artful Teapot:

The Artful Teapot Garth Clark, 2001-10-01 Based on its universal appeal and everyday use tea has inspired the creation of exquisite objects of art above all the spouted steaming engine of hospitality the teapot In fact the teapot has drawn widespread attention from the world's leading designers and artists for centuries because it is what French sculptor Arman calls one of the key objects of our time This delightful book celebrates the chameleon like form of the teapot and how it is considered not only an icon for hospitality but also an inventive vehicle for artistic expression The Artful Teapot features in full lavish color more than 200 enchanting teapots representing its 500 year history of enjoyment and use Readers will find captivating examples from Yixing the birthplace of the teapot as well as such famous producers as Meissen Minton Wedgwood and others Here are artful teapots that balance form surface and function in search of beauty revolutionary teapots seeking fascinatingly but fruitlessly to improve on this most perfect invention teapots inspired by natural forms teapots made from surprising materials like dollar bills glass beads and soda cans teapots used as a format for politics or propaganda teapots using animals or people as their subject and last but not least the teapot created purely for art's sake pots removed from function where tea evaporates and imagination replaces the fragrant leaf as content Plus fascinating text written by Garth Clark the preeminent scholar of modern ceramics provides an appealing discussion of these objects of art that is as provocative playful and profound as the teapots themselves Teapots featured in this book form the basis for an exhibition that opened in November 2001 at the American Craft Museum in New York City which is traveling until 2004 visiting six other American museums First comprehensive guide featuring the artistic beauty of teapots through five centuries of use

Tea and Tourism Lee Jolliffe, 2007-01-23 The global production marketing and consumption of tea present a resource for tea related tourism Tea and Tourism Tourists Traditions and Transformations profiles tea cultures and examines the social political and developmental contexts of using related traditions for touristic purposes This volume views tourism related to tea from differing disciplinary perspectives and from marketing planning entrepreneurial and developmental viewpoints The book examines the transformation of indigenous and imported tea traditions into experiences for tourists Profiling these tea experiences from around the world including the United Kingdom Sri Lanka India China Taiwan Kenya and Canada the volume reveals the ways in which tea's heritage is adapted for tourism consumption This is the first definitive work on tea tourism Global tea tourism trends are identified while case examples provide fresh perspectives on the ongoing transformation of tea for tourism purposes

Creating the Artful Home Karen Zukowski, 2006 Creating the Artful Home the Aesthetic Movement and Its Influence on Home Decor covers the history of a movement that emphasized art for art's sake and the influence it had on home decor The Aesthetic Movement in America lasted just a few decades 1870 1900 and served mainly as a bridge between the high Victorian sensibility and the radical shift to the Arts and Crafts style The movement germinated among artists who used opulent color decorative patterning and lavish materials simply for the aesthetic effects they could evoke It was commonly held that a home that expressed an artful harmonious soul would instill high aesthetic and moral merit in its inhabitants The Aesthetic Movement in America helped to popularize the idea that everyone should be able to enjoy beautiful well made homes and furnishings not just the very wealthy Artful homes could be composed from brilliant antique store finds discriminating department store purchases and gems hand made by the ladies of the house It was the moment when people embraced the idea that only a beautiful home could be a happy home Karen Zukowski delves into the movement s establishment evolution and main characters and shows how today s homes can incorporate Aesthetic principles Through suggestion rather than statement sensuality massive use of symbols and synaesthetic effects that is correspondence between words colors and music How influential designers such as Clarence Cook and Charles Eastlake popularized the idea that beautiful homes with tasteful furnishings could be available to practically everyone How today s designers manufacturers and retailers deploy the very same stylistic markers of the Aesthetic Movement rich color layered pattern and texture mixtures of historical motifs Imagery Bob Nugent,2007-10-01 In 1985 winemaker Joe Benziger and Sonoma artist Bob Nugent struck on the idea of putting original art on special releases of Imagery Estate wines The goal was straight forward commission the world s modern art luminaries to create works for reproduction onto wine labels Two decades and 160 labels later they have assembled a staggering collection of contemporary art from the likes of Sol Lewitt Terry Winters Nancy Graves John Baldessari Judy Pfaff and Bob Arneson This book highlights 133 works of art the best of the Imagery collection The images are big and lush and accompanied by biographical sketches of the artists careers as well as a short description of their individual ideas and methods The pictorial index shows the works in their label form from 1985 to the most recent vintages These images are evocations of wine s multi faceted ability to inspire us Joyce J.
