Arkansas A Guide To The State American Guide Series:

The WPA Guide to Arkansas Federal Writers' Project, 2013-09-21 During the 1930s in the United States the Works Progress Administration developed the Federal Writers Project to support writers and artists while making a national effort to document the country's shared history and culture The American Guide series consists of individual guides to each of the states Little known authors many of whom would later become celebrated literary figures were commissioned to write these important books John Steinbeck Saul Bellow Zora Neale Hurston and Ralph Ellison are among the more than 6 000 writers editors historians and researchers who documented this celebration of local histories Photographs drawings driving tours detailed descriptions of towns and rich cultural details exhibit each state's unique flavor Published in 1941 the WPA Guide to Arkansas splendidly exhibits the varied environment of the Natural State From the densely forested land in the Ozark Mountains and Arkansas Timberlands to the Mississippi River and the Arkansas Delta the guide to the Land of Opportunity provides several photographs of history on and driving tours through the state's grand geography American Guides Wendy Griswold, 2016-08-26 In the midst of the Great Depression Americans were nearly universally literate and they were hungry for the written word With an eye to this market and as a response to unemployment Roosevelt's Works Progress Administration created the Federal Writers Project They produced the Project's American Guides an impressively produced series that set out not only to direct travelers on which routes to take and what to see throughout the country but also to celebrate the distinctive characteristics of each individual state The series unintentionally diversified American literary culture's cast of characters promoting women minority and rural writers while it also institutionalized the innovative idea that American culture comes in state shaped boxes Guide to America; a Treasury of Information about Its States, Cities, Parks, and Historical Points of Interest, 1947 Arkansas Writers' Program.
