Memories of Resistance and the Holocaust on Film Mercedes Camino,2018-06-09 This book investigates cinematic representations of the murder of European Jews and civilian opposition to Nazi occupation from the war up until the twenty first century The study exposes a chronology of the conflict s memorialization whose geo political alignments are demarcated by vectors of time and space or chronotopes using Mikhail Bakhtin s term Camino shows such chronotopes to be first defined by the main allies the USA USSR and UK and then subsequently expanding from the geographical and political centres of the occupation France the USSR and Poland Films from Western and Eastern Europe and the USA are treated as primary and secondary sources of the conflict These sources contribute to a sentient or emotional history that privileges affect and construct what Michel Foucault labels biopolitics These cinematic narratives which are often based on memoirs of resistance fighters like Joseph Kessel or Holocaust survivors such as Primo Levi and Wanda Jakubowska evoke the past in what Marianne Hirsch has described as post memory

The Story in Fiction and Film of French Collaboration in the Occupation and Complicity in the Holocaust (1940-1944) Daniel R. Schwarz,2025-07-09 This book examines fiction and film narratives that show the active collaboration of the Vichy government with the Nazis in the deportation and murder of the Jews of France It also explains how these fiction and film narratives affected the official and dominant historical narrative of the 1940 44 Occupation years More than anything what changed the dominant narrative of the Occupation years are documentaries and creative works which imaginatively selected and arranged the presentation of neglected and suppressed facts By stressing how documentaries novels and imaginative films changed the dominant narrative of 1940 1944 the author is also arguing how cultural production transformed history
