Ingres and His Critics Andrew Carrington Shelton, 2005-10-03 This book examines the critical writing and journalistic reportage on Jean Auguste Dominique Ingres from the time of his renunciation of the Salon in 1834 until his large retrospective at the 1855 Universal Exposition the crucial middle decades of his career This massive body of writing demonstrates how Ingres shaped his career in the rapidly evolving art world of mid nineteenth century Paris Enjoying the benefits of his affiliation with the Academy the artist also employed certain modes of presentation most notably the single artist exhibition and illustrated monograph through which he distanced himself and his work from the embattled world of artistic officialdom

Paul Delaroche Patricia Smyth, 2022-06-15 Paul Delaroche Painting and Popular Spectacle explores the connections between painting and an emergent popular visual culture in the early nineteenth century which included new forms of optical entertainment such as Panoramas and Dioramas and innovation in fields such as illustration art reproduction and stage decor Delaroche s paintings caused a sensation at the Paris Salon with critics comparing the emotional response they elicited to that of popular melodrama Yet his appeal to a certain type of spectator lay behind the increasingly hostile criticism to which his works were subjected and has in our own time led to his uncertain status in the art historical canon

This book focuses on Delaroche's popularity with a newly expanded audience. Lacking in specialist knowledge but nevertheless keen to engage with and deeply affected by art, the behaviour of this new public prompted lively discussions about who has the right to judge art and on what grounds. Working across disciplinary boundaries, this book proposes a new reading both of Delaroche and of the connections between the arts in this period. The artist emerges as a figure at the cutting edge of an emergent trans-medial popular visual culture in which we see the formation of modern spectatorship.
