Art In 2 Worlds:

Global Art in Local Art Worlds Oscar Salemink, Amélia Siegel Corrêa, Jens Sejrup, Vibe Nielsen, 2023-03-30 This book explores the attribution and local negotiation of cultural valuations of artistic and art institutional practices around the world and considers the diverse ways in which these value attributions intersect with claims of universality and cosmopolitanism Taking Michael Herzfeld's notion of the global hierarchy of value as point of departure the volume brings together six empirical studies of the collection circulation classification and exhibition of objects in present day Brazil China India Japan South Africa and Indigenous Australia in light of Europe's loss of global hegemony Including reflections by a number of senior scholars the chapters demonstrate that the question of valuation lies at the heart of artistic and art institutional practices writ large including museum practices museum architecture galleries auction houses art fairs and biennales

Women Building History Wanda Corn, 2023-09-01 This handsomely illustrated book is a welcome addition to the history of women during America's Gilded Age Wanda M Corn takes as her topic the grand neo classical Woman's Building at the 1893 Columbian Exposition in Chicago a structure celebrating modern woman's progress in education arts and sciences Looking closely at the paintings and sculptures women artists made to decorate the structure including the murals by Mary Cassatt and Mary MacMonnies Corn uncovers an unspoken but consensual program to visualize a history of the female sex and promote an expansion of modern woman's opportunities Beautifully written with informative sidebars by Annelise K Madsen and artist biographies by Charlene G Garfinkle this volume illuminates the originality of the public images female artists created in 1893 and inserts them into the complex discourse of fin de siècle woman's politics The Woman's Building offered female artists an unprecedented opportunity to create public art and imagine an historical narrative that put women rather than men at its center

Henry Ossawa Tanner Henry Ossawa Tanner, Anna O. Marley, 2012 This book constitutes a very welcome contribution to the public appreciation and scholarly study of Henry Ossawa Tanner a painter of considerable significance in both Europe and America and one whose religious imagery merits careful consideration These well researched essays by an international team of scholars offer substantial reflections on complex issues of race and religion and situate the artist's work and career within the context of his life and times This is a robust framing of Tanner as a cultural phenomenon and one that readers will find quite rewarding David Morgan Professor of Religion at Duke University and author of The Embodied Eye Religious Visual Culture and the Social Life of Feeling Henry Ossawa Tanner has finally been recognized as an important artist in the last twenty years and is now firmly part of the American canon as the first major African American painter to emerge from the academy This book enriches our understanding of Tanner's historic place in American art by considering his work as an early modernist religious artist a status entwined with his race but not defined by it These essays by an impressive collection of scholars are full of substantially new material and succeed in broadening our conception of Tanner's life and work Bruce Robertson Professor of Art and Architecture at the University of California Santa Barbara Artists in the University Jenny Wilson, 2017-08-31 This book focuses on the relationship between the university and a particular cohort of academic staff those in visual and performing arts disciplines who joined the university sector in the 1990s It explores how artistic researchers have been accommodated in the Australian university management framework and the impact that this has had on their careers identities approaches to their practice and the final works that they produce The book provides the first analysis of this topic across the artistic disciplinary domain in Australia and updates the findings of Australia's only comprehensive study of the position of research in the creative arts within the government funding policy setting reported in 1998 The Strand Report Using lived examples and a forensic approach to the research policy challenges it shows that while limited progress has been made in the acceptance of artistic research as legitimate research significant structural cultural and practical challenges continue to undermine relationships between universities and their artistic staff and affect the nature and quality of artistic work Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. The Proceedings of the World's Temperance Convention, held in London ... 1846 with the papers laid before the Convention, etc. Edited by Thomas Beggs, 1846 Ireland on Show Fintan Cullen, 2017-07-05 Looking past the apparent lack of a sustainable Irish display culture this book demonstrates that there is a very full story to tell of the way Ireland displayed its art from the late eighteenth to the early twentieth century Ireland on Show analyzes the impact of the display of art as a significant political and cultural feature in the make up of nineteenth century Ireland and in how Ireland was viewed beyond its own shores in particular in Great Britain and the United States Fintan Cullen directs much needed critical attention and analysis to a subject that has been largely overlooked from an Irish perspective This study moves beyond museums to address the range of art institutions in Irish cities that displayed art from the Royal Hibernian Academy founded in the 1820s to Hugh Lane's Municipal Art Gallery opened in Dublin in 1908 Throughout the book explores the battle between the display of a unionist ethos and a nationalist point of view a constant that resurfaces over the period By highlighting the tension between unionist and nationalist viewpoints Cullen uses the display of art to investigate the complexities of Irish cultural life before the founding of the Free State Proceedings of the World's Dairy Congress, 1924 Poole's Index to Periodical Literature: Rev. ed., 1802-1881 (2 v.) William Frederick
